Not long after the starting hour, a. m., it became apparent to the merators that the Von Buelow rob- on Monday night, perpetrated by who posed as census takers, had housewives and others fearful repetition of the crime. An ex- ple of this came in the west side supervised by J. E. Vesely, rman of the Chicago census ad- committee.

One of Mr. Vesely's enumerators him by telephone shortly after

"Put a note under her door and back tomorrow," said Vesely. "She'll change her mind tomorrow."

Three Refuse Information.

Only three cases of belligerent re- to give information were report- , and these, the enumerators said, from men who appeared to be worse for moonshine. A hint that might be called quelled the re- in each case.

A tired enumerator entered a Polish in the 22d ward just as the ldren were coming home from ool. The mother marshalled her —which she said numbered 12— the dining room and began to tell ir ages. Good progress was until child No. 11 had been ered, whereupon consternation ed the mother, for No. 12 could not found. A thorough but unsuccess- search was conducted and the r was about to ask police aid the wanderer, Stanislaus, aged strolled in from the corner grocery.

How's This to Be Counted?

One embarrassed father encountered census taker could not remember ages of three of his seven chil- , while another made a bashful estion that "If you come around week I'll have another name to you."

A couple, both past 80 years old, ed Mr. Vesely in his office at 4719 Madison street and explained they were departing for Florida wished to fulfill their census ob- ions before they left.

"Any children," Vesely inquired.

"Two youngsters," he was told.

"A boy 46 and a girl 49."

The warmth of the enumerators' ptions varied. Working in the ward, Enumerator Theodore ert of Berwyn found himself the sor of two additional fountain when he concluded his work— gratuities, he said. Another, a an, was coldly received until she ed to separate the woman from whom sought information from a group friends assembled at tea. Then she ered that the woman had been married and wished to keep that a secret. In the 46th ward a an enumerator was twice invited inch.

How to Identify Workers.

Speaking of those women who were ed that the callers were burglars Angeles, Mr. Vesely called attention simple test to prove identity.

"Each enumerator has signed cre- ials bearing a number. They also large paper portfolios with the number pasted on the label. LEARN KILLER HID IN HOME AS WOMAN ENTERED

N. U. Expert Works to Solve Tragedy.

Science apparently was the only hope of the police last night in their search for the slayer of Mrs. Charlotte Mildred Helsing, 26 years old, who was strangled on Tuesday in her apartment at 5830 West Lake street. The resources of the Northwestern university scientific crime detection laboratory were called into the investigation of the mystery as all other clews to the killer's identity proved barren.

In an effort to find some hint of the motive for the killing, if it were other than robbery, Chief of Detectives Egan, Assistant State's Attorney Harry Ditchburne, and Dr. Clarence Muehlberger of the Northwestern labratory, questioned the slain woman's husband, Rueben Helsing, for three hours last night at the Austin station without uncovering a single thing that might be of assistance to them. Helsing, worn out by the ordeal of the last two days, went to his home at 11:30 o'clock, without having shed any light on the mystery.

Ribbon Clew Fails.

The one clew which might have led the police somewhere—a piece of black ribbon with which Mrs. Helsing was strangled—proved of little value, when it was found that the ribbon had been in the house before Mrs. Helsing was murdered. It had not been taken there by the murderer. Another piece of ribbon, matching the strangler's noose, was found in a shopping bag in a closet, where the killer evidently found the bit with which he choked the life out of Mrs. Helsing.

This discovery, however, led the police to believe that the murder had not been premeditated and that it had been committed by a prowler who was hiding in the house when Mrs. Helsing returned from a shopping tour in the neighborhood. It was definitely established that Mrs. Helsing had returned home about 5:30 p. m. on Tuesday. Arthur Walsh, 2130 North Sawyer avenue, who is employed in a radio store at 5959 West Lake strteet, said he saw her pass the shop between 5 and 5:30 o'clock.

Slayer Hides in Closet.

As the police reconstructed the murder, Mrs. Helsing walked into her apartment and deposited an arm load of groceries in the kitchen, and then returned to the hall where she removed the galoshes she was wearing. The slayer, apparently having let himself into the house by forcing a catch on the front door, had heard her approach and concealed himself in the living room in a closet behind a roll-away bed. Here were three shopping bags, containing pieces of dress material, bits of lace, ribbon, and rags, and from one of these, the police decided he drew the piece of ribbon.

Chief Egan said the slayer evidently intended to use it only as a gag in case Mrs. Helsing should scream when he surprised her by stepping from the closet. Mrs. Helsing had removed her coat and hat, when the slayer stepped out of the closet. Although neighbors heard no outcry or sounds of a struggle, scratches on her wrists, neck and shoulder indicated that she fought with her assailant for a short time at least.

First Used As Gag, View.

The killer, it was believed, had thrown the piece of ribbon about her head, possibly over her mouth, but when she struggled and was freeing herself, he slipped it down about her throat, twisting it from behind until he had strangled her. An examination showed that she had not been assaulted, the man probably fleeing with his loot as soon as he had quieted the woman.

When Helsing arrived home about 6:15 p. m., from the Westinghouse Electric company plant, he found the ribbon knotted about her neck and the body covered with a blanket. Dr. Claude Weldy, who examined the body, said the woman had been dead about an hour.

Scientists Seek Clews.

Dr. Muehlberger, as assistant to Col. Calvin Goddard, head of the crime detection laboratory, began his scientific hunt for clews by taking the scrapings from beneath the finger nails of Mrs. Helsing and of George Riley, a colored janitor, who was being detained

Ireland Puts Cosgrave Back as President

BY HUGH CURRAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, April 2.—William T. Cosgrave late tonight was reelected president of the executive council of the Irish Free State parliament by a vote of 80 to 65. This result of the dail's all day meeting was expected, and although the chamber galleries were thronged, with big crowds outside, there was no exceptional excitement.

Eamon de Valera's name was the first proposed in a speech by Sean T. O'Kelly, acting leader of the Republican Fianna Fail. T. J. O'Connell, leader of the Labor party, opposed this nomination on the grounds that the De Valera party wished to abolish the declaration of allegiance to the British crown and modify the treaty creating the Irish Free State. The nomination was defeated, 93 to 54 votes.

Mr. O'Connell, who was put up as Labor's nominee, was rejected, even more decisively, by a vote of 78 to 13. This left only President Cosgrave.

Butcher Political Reputations.

Not for a long time has there been such a butchering of political reputations as occurred in the Dail Eireann during the debates. The nominations were made singly. Three hours of strong speech making on De Valera's merits and demerits intervened before the voting took place. Mr. O'Kelly, nominating De Valera, described him as the only man who could restore confidence to the spiritual outlook of the Irish people.

Thereupon Mr. O'Connell attempted to tear De Valera's reputation to shreds.

"Mr. De Valera has denied the dail's legitimacy, and as such is not fit to be leader of the house," Mr. O'Connell said. "Labor accepted the treaty even when its representatives were threatened with death. The Irish people do not want revolution; they do not even want to talk about revolution."

Desmond Fitzgerald, minister of defense, in speaking for the government which resigned last week, said if Mr. De Valera were elected, he would hand the duties of the government over to gunmen.

House Tires of Debate.

When Mr. O'Connell was proposed, Deputy Lemass of the De Valera party announced the Fianna Fail would not take part in the debate, showing the party was keenly offended by the unexpected attack the Labor party had made on its leader.

Deputy Mongan proposed Mr. Cosgrave for president. He spoke altogether in Irish. Deputy McEntee, for the opposition, pointed out that the iniquities of Mr. Cosgrave and his administration, but the house was obviously tired of the oratory and wanted to get the division over with.

President Cosgrave returns to power after only a 5 day lapse. His ministry, having held on since 1922, fell last week by a two vote margin on extending old age pensions. President Cosgrave opposed the extension as being too great a financial burden.

SENATE BATTLE GROWS HOTTER IN LOOP ARENA

McCormick, Deneen Rallies Interrupted.

Shout Down Hecklers

Heckling became a part of the battle for the Republican senatorial nomination for the first time in Chicago yesterday. Boos and cries of "Throw him out!" "Hire a hall!" silenced interrupters at the noonday rallies of both Ruth Hanna McCormick and Senator Charles S. Deneen. The rival candidates continued their attacks, Mrs. McCormick challenging Senator Deneen to define his position on the Root formula for American adherence to the world court, and the senator assailing his opponent's claim of freedom from county political alliances. The report of Mrs. McCormick's meeting will be found on page 2.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Senator Charles S. Deneen declared last night that Ruth Hanna McCormick in her attack upon the world court and "bipartisan alliances" is "repeating stale arguments of Thompson and Crowe." In speeches on the northwest side and at a noonday rally at the Grand Opera house the senator maintained the voters "repudiated the arguments" at the polls two years ago.

"I've been reading the papers trying to determine whom I should vote for for senator," said Senator Deneen. "I read that Mrs. McCormick says she is an independent and has formed no alliances. I wonder how her followers in the Thompson-Crowe camp feel when they read her speeches. Her name is on their headquarters, on their ballots, on their handbills.

He Makes Some Observations.

"I do not say this in criticism, but I've observed in all parts of the state that Mrs. McCormick is supporting county and local tickets. At Springfield her name is printed over one club and a campaign is being conducted as in Cook county. When she claims independence I cannot help but make a few observations.

"Everything Mrs. McCormick has said about the world court was said two years ago by William Hale Thompson and Robert E. Crowe. She is repeating the same arguments.

"I also remember what her associates were saying some months ago about organizing the sanitary district. They cried out that the Republicans on the board should organize it. They insisted that four trustees later indicted should combine with a new member to organize the board and continue the practices of the sanitary district which the voters have discountenanced at the polls.

"Two Ways to Organize."

"There were only two ways to organize. One was to put control in the hands of Republican trustees subsequently indicted, the other was the way we took. The attack Mrs. McCormick is making on this is the same attack that her associates made.

"I read her criticism concerning the judicial election last fall. You remember the outcry raised against some of the candidates presented by her present associates. The Bar association was disheartened and in company with civic organizations it insisted that good sitting judges should be reelected. Our friends followed the custom of trying to retain good, competent sitting judges. The friends of Mrs. McCormick took the other course.

"Now she is repeating the stale arguments which were repudiated by the voters at the judicial polls. It is only necessary to recall that the sitting Republican judges themselves withdrew from the Republican organization ticket, and the old cry of the city hall organization was answered at the polls by the voters.

The South Park Election.

"Again there was the recent problem of electing a south park commissioner. Three Republican judges with leanings to Mr. Crowe and eight Democratic judges chose a Democrat as commissioner. This was not done to get a better man. The reason is obvious when we learn later that a law partner of Judge Crowe was chosen as attorney for the parks. I simply call this to your attention to show how Mrs. McCormick's friends have done the things they have criticized in others."

After the senator had left the platform at the noonday rally somebody in the audience shouted, "What about unemployment? Tell us about that tomorrow." Voices were raised,

SON, 15, TO GET $2,500,000 ESTATE OF D. P. THOMPSON

Alexis Thompson, 15 years old, 1247 North State parkway, is to receive the entire estate of his father, David P. Thompson, assistant to the president and director of the Inland Steel company, who died intestate on March 24. The estate was estimated at $2,500,000 to $5,000,000 yesterday as a petition for letters of administration was filed before Probate Court Clerk Mitchell C. Robin in behalf of the son.

At a hearing before Edward S. Scheffler, assistant to Probate Judge Horner, Thompson's former wife, Mrs. Millie Caffee Thompson Beaumont, mother of Alexis, was appointed guardian of the boy's person. The First Trust and Savings bank was named as conservator of the estate. Officials of the bank said an inventory of the estate is being prepared.

Alexis is now a student at St. Paul's academy, Concord, Mass. He is preparing to enter Yale university, from which his father was graduated. The law firm of Mayer, Meyer, Austrian & Platt represented him before Assistant Judge Scheffler.

Mr. Thompson died of pneumonia at the age of 49 at Miami Beach, Fla. At his bedside were his son and, at his especial request, his former wife and her husband, Maj. Victor Beaumont of London, who were visiting in Chicago when he became ill.

N. U. FINDS CO-EDS RECEIVE HIGHER WAGES THAN MEN

Although fewer women students at Northwestern university earn a part of their expenses by working, their average earnings are larger, according to figures made public yesterday by the employment office of the department of personnel.

During the first semester 423 students earned $43,070 from 1,162 individual jobs provided by the employment office. Of this amount, 167 co-eds received $19,270, an average of $115 each. Individual earnings ran as high as $450. The average earned by 256 men was $93, the largest sum being $644. The total amount earned by men was $23,800.

Strong Gale Whips Big Spanish Cruiser to Shore

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.]

MADRID, April 2.—The new Spanish cruiser Miguel de Cervantes was driven ashore tonight in a strong gale off the Ferrol naval base. The 9,000 ton warship broke her moorings and, after striking the concrete wall of the drydock, drifted helplessly aground. Tugs were making desperate efforts to haul her off on the rising tide. It is believed the vessel, the third of three cruisers of the Principe Alfonso class, thus far has suffered no underwater damage. The cruiser is 575 feet long and carries 545 officers and men.

Democrats of North Dakota Ask Dry Repeal

Jamestown, N. D., April 2.—(AP)—Repeal of the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act was urged in a plank in the platform adopted today by the North Dakota state Democratic convention.

State Chairman H. H. Perry of Elendale, Secretary Fred W. McLean of Grand Forks, and P. W. Lanier of Jamestown, congressional candidate in the Second district, said they felt the anti-prohibition stand of the party gives it a real chance for victory.

The plank on the liquor question asserted North Dakota Democrats favor temperance and are against the saloon, but that "ten years under prohibition has resulted in a reign of intemperance in words, expenditure of money, crime and corruption."

"Unholy Alliance" Seen.

"The unholy alliance between the underworld, bootleggers, rum runners, moonshiners, and fanatic prohibitionists is being financed by our prohibition law," the resolution says, "and sponsored by the national Republican party and has gotten to a place where the very foundation of our national government is threatened.

"Prohibition," the plank continues, "has robbed the farmer of his market for corn, rye, barley, and hops, thereby throwing farm production out of balance and resulting in overproduction in wheat, overproduction of feed grains, and the general and complete breakdown in land values and ruination to the farmer."

The platform asserted that the party "favors the repeal of the eighteenth amendment and Volstead prohibition law, and recommends that right to pass on this question be returned to states under government control, and in this connection we call the attention of the people to the method of government control now in effect in Sweden, Norway and provinces of Canada."

Wets Lose in Bay State.

Boston, Mass., April 2.—(AP)—The Massachusetts senate today refused to enact the initiative petition to repeal the state prohibition enforcement act. The roll call vote was 26 to 11. This action, duplicating that taken by the house of representatives yesterday, kills the bill in the legislature. Its sponsors must obtain 5,000 more signatures to have it placed on the ballots next November.

Mirage Blamed for Plane Crash Off France; Two Die

PERPIGNAN, France, April 2.—A mirage was blamed for the crash off Barcares late today of a new trimotored seaplane destined for the South American mail service. The pilot, Provost, and the mechanic, Hoff, perished.

LONDON THRILLED BY NEW PLAY ON CHICAGO GANGS

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.]

LONDON, April 2.—Edgar Wallace, criminologist and playwright, thrilled an audience at Wyndham's theater tonight with a new play on gang warfare he had written after a visit of 33 hours in Chicago.

One night last winter Chief of Detectives Stege showed Wallace around Chicago's underworld, pointing out where three men had been shot "on the spot" by rivals.

Wallace took this for the title of his play, which was a revelation to Londoners of a racketeer's life and a triumph for the world's most prolific author of crime stories.

Glider Pilot Is Killed as Towing Auto Swerves

Fort Worth, Tex., April 2.—(AP)—George Gambrien, 26, newspaper reporter, was killed today in a glider crash on a farm north of here. Gambrien, an aviator, took his first ride in the glider last Friday. J. J. Mitchener Jr., a pilot, watching the flight, said the crash was caused when an automobile towing the craft with a rope swerved to avoid a haystack.

Mother Finds 2 Year Old Son Drowned in Ditch

Harold Harris, 2 years old, 3707 North 74th avenue, was drowned yesterday when he fell into a water filled ditch near his home. The child apparently slipped from a plank which had been thrown across the ditch. The body was found by the boy's mother, Mrs. Loretta Harris, who had been searching for him after his disappearance from home an hour before.

"Throw him out!" Another voice, "Hoover, what about him?" When the commotion died down Arthur F. Albert, candidate for president of the county board, took up the question.

"I'll answer that question about unemployment," said Albert. "If the old gang was not in possession of the city hall the people would have had confidence and would have voted bond issues for great improvements which are needed to develop this metropolis. There would be work enough to take up a lot of this unemployment. Blame it on the gang.

"They say Albert is a reformer, but I'm not a reformer. I was born on Goose island and nobody heard of a reformer coming from there. But you do hear of honest people among the humble folks. The reason the gang says I'm a reformer is because I have refused to be a grafter, and I hope to get on the job before they've stolen the doorknobs."

Senator Speaks on World Court.

In dwelling upon the world court at a meeting at the University of Chicago and at rallies on the northwest side Senator Deneen spoke of the Root formula. He said:

"The so-called Root formula will in due course be submitted to the senate and referred to the committee on foreign relations. It is impossible now to determine or foresee how the issues will be presented to the senate. The Root formula may be modified by the committee, as was the statute of the permanent court of international justice by the same committee in January, 1926, by annexing to it the five reservations to which I have referred.

"I voted for the reservations attached by the senate to the statute of the world court and have not changed my views in reference thereto. The whole debate will turn upon whether the Root formula in any way weakens the fifth reservation or removes the safeguards which it was deemed advisable by the senate to create.

Says U. S. Is Safe in Court.

"An international court created to administer international law should rest upon the firm foundation of equality of right among the nations which are members thereof and the method of providing and securing that equality of right, in so far as our country is concerned, 'will be hammered out on the anvil of debate' in the United States senate.

"In becoming a member of the world court the United States will protect its traditional policies of not intruding upon, or interfering with, or entangling itself with the political questions or policies of internal administration of any foreign state, nor will it relinquish its traditional attitude toward purely American questions, nor surrender any of its sovereign rights, policies or traditions."

2,000 AT RALLY BACK KIRK IN SENATE FIGHT

A capacity crowd of more than 2,000 persons crammed the grand ballroom of the Drake hotel last night in a political rally and, with cheers and prolonged applause, pledged their support to Wallace F. Kirk, Republican candidate for the nomination for state senator in the Twenty-ninth district.

The audience was marked by its preponderance of women, a majority of whom were attending their first political rally. It was said by veteran politicians to be one of the biggest gathering of Gold Coast residents for the purpose of nominating a candidate.

Mrs. Kirk took the stump for her husband after he spoke.

"I'm so anxious for you to send him down to Springfield—because I really think he will do a good job—for you," she said.

Among the patrons and patronesses of the meeting were: Dr. Frank Billings, Mrs. Emmons Blaine, Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Farwell Jr., Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Massee, Mr. and Mrs. George Lytton, Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick, Augustus S. Peabody, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Peabody, Mr. and Mrs. Eames MacVeagh, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Meeker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Loesch, and Mr. and Mrs. Weymouth Kirkland.

6 Year Dry Law Sentence Is Given Chicagoan's Son

Los Angeles, Cal., April 2.—(AP)—Sentence of six years and six months in San Quentin prison was imposed today upon Peter Connley, son of a Chicago policeman, by Federal Judge John M. Killits for violation of the prohibition laws.

MRS. McCORMICK CHALLENGES FOE TO TALK COURT

Crowd Shouts Down Youth Who Interrupts Her.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Ruth Hanna McCormick yesterday challenged her opponent in the Republican senatorial primary race, Senator Charles S. Deneen, to give an "advisory opinion" on the issue that she has raised as to whether the Root formula for American adherence to the "league of nations court" adequately protects the United States from entering into war to back the court's decisions.

"I find that the three men who are debating with me have never said anything about anything that they believe in," Mrs. McCormick said, toward the close of her plea before a big noonday audience at the Apollo theater. "They are obstacle struck. They are talking only about me. I want to know what Deneen thinks."

There's an Interruption.

"I want to answer that," said a voice from one of the boxes near the stage. It proved to be that of Robert Brown, a young man who gave the address of 711 Burnham building.

He stood up in the box as Mrs. McCormick paused in her talk and asked him:

"Do you want to tell us your position or Deneen's position?"

"I want to tell you what I believe is Deneen's position," said the interrupter.

Crowd Shouts Him Down.

Brown stood up in the box and courageously faced the audience, which grew more and more noisy and hostile. Mrs. McCormick was amused, and finally asked that he be given a chance to talk.

"The world court is not an issue; good government is the issue," was all that Brown got a chance to say before the crowd yelled him down again. He stood there, while Mrs. McCormick finished her speech and after she had left the platform attempted again to speak to the hundreds who remained, but they would not let him, and the theater people finally put out the lights and stopped the disturbance.

"That's what will happen to Deneen—lights out," said a McCormick enthusiast.

"I'll debate it with Deneen," said Mrs. McCormick as she left the stage.

"I am unalterably opposed to America joining the league of nations or any part of it," she said at the conclusion of her address. "I am opposed to the league court with or without reservations. Now let Senator Deneen tell where he stands."

Republicanism and the Court.

As to the Republicanism of her stand, Mrs. McCormick said:

"Only one Republican platform ever indorsed the league of nations court. That was in 1924. Between that year and 1928 it had become so absolutely proved that the league of nations was directing the negotiations with the United States in an effort to get us into the court on European terms, that President Coolidge had publicly said that foreign nations had refused to accept our senate reservations and so far as he was concerned the question was closed.

"In indorsing foreign policies of President Coolidge at Kansas City the Republican party indorsed that position taken by Mr. Coolidge in 1926. Mr. Root's formula, which was rewritten by Lord Cecil Hurst after Mr. Root took it to Europe and submitted it to his fellow committeemen, appointed like himself by the league of nations, makes the league court a new issue. The Republican party has not subscribed to the Root formula."

Help is coming to Mrs. McCormick from new and rather unexpected sources. Miss Harriett Vittum, head of Northwestern Settlement house and a leader among independent women in politics since Bull Moose days, will speak for Mrs. McCormick's candidacy at the Georgian hotel in Evanston tonight under the auspices of the Ruth Hanna McCormick Volunteers.

It happens that Miss Vittum is one of the judges of this election in the Thirty-first ward, her name having been presented by Lewis B. Sitts, Deneen leader in the ward.

Former Congressman William A. Rodenberg of East St. Louis will make a radio speech tonight for Mrs. McCormick. Mr. Rodenberg last February was urged to enter the Republican primary for the senatorial nomination as a wet in order to get an expression from the voters on this question.

He said the sentiment was there, but that there was not time to organize it. He voted against the 18th amendment and the Volstead act and is bitterly opposed to the United States entering the league of nations, "by the front door, the back door, the window or by way of the cellar."

Replies to Esposito Letter.

Mrs. McCormick gave out the following statement yesterday:

"I have read with interest a letter ostensibly written by Mrs. Joseph Esposito and distributed to the newspapers from the headquarters of Senator Deneen. I quite agree with Mrs. Esposito that the life and death and funeral of her husband should never have been injected by Senator Deneen into this senatorial campaign.

"Like Mrs. Esposito I was shocked when the senator in his first day's speeches downstate on March 3 went into great detail with regard to the record of a man who had been his personal friend for years and his political lieutenant. Mr. Deneen on those occasions was speaking as a candidate for the United States senate, and it is fair to assume that he was submitting his version of the killing of Esposito as an issue in his campaign against me.

"I thereupon commented on the Deneen speeches, quoting at some length his own words concerning Esposito's funeral. I also quoted from the county and federal court records and from records on file in the judiciary committee of the United States senate. The Espositos never were guests at my home as indicated in the letter sent out from Deneen headquarters."

JENKINS ASSAILS 'SHAM BATTLE' OF HIS G. O. P. RIVALS

Raps Deneen-McCormick "Fight Over League."

Newton Jenkins in his campaign for the Republican senatorship nomination declared in his speeches yesterday that Ruth Hanna McCormick and Charles S. Deneen are "fighting a sham battle over the league of nations," while the "real issues are economic." Mr. Jenkins in the senatorship contest six years ago polled 115,000 votes and carried three counties, also running second in eight others. He has been campaigning downstate and over the radio and says his vote may prove an election night surprise.

"There is no real difference between Senator Deneen and Mrs. McCormick," said Mr. Jenkins in an address yesterday. "Are they talking about the economic issues? They are not. They are fighting a sham battle. When the farm debenture bill was before congress they both lined up against it. When the tariff bill was before congress, they both voted the same way, against the people and for the protected interests of the east.

On the European Situation.

"Take the international situation. There is no real difference between them. I don't profess to know much about the European situation. I never was there but once. I was there twelve years ago as a member of the Second division with the Fifth regiment of marines. But when I was there I learned one thing, and that is we ought to stay out of Europe and mind our own business.

"Most of this talk about internationalism is carried on in the name of peace. None knows the futility of war better than the soldier. In my judgment no course leads so surely toward war as to become entangled in the affairs of European countries. I don't believe we need any nation on earth to tell us whether our guns should be elevated or spiked. We need no other nation to tell us how small our navy ought to be. We can determine these things for ourselves, and the place to determine them is in Washington, and not in London or the capital of any other country.

Stresses Economic Issues.

"The most important national issues are economic. Agriculture in the last decade has been deflated thirty billion dollars. Real estate values have declined many billions of dollars. This touches every home and land owner. Security values have recently declined fifty billions of dollars. This affects millions of people. A new system of distribution is springing up. It threatens the existence of every little business man. Unemployment casts its shadow over the workers. These are some of the issues which strike deep into the life of the nation."

WARRIOR PRIEST BACK IN MEXICO AFTER U. S. EXILE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MEXICO CITY, April 2.—Archbishop Francisco Orozco y Jimenez, the "fighting archbishop" of Guadalajara, returned to Mexico incognito yesterday over the ordinary through train from El Paso, Tex., where he has been residing since the Mexican government patched up its quarrel with the Roman Catholic church over a year ago.

The archbishop left the El Paso to Mexico City train at Iraquato, taking the Guadalajara line from there to La Barca, where two trusted friends met him and drove him to Guadalajara.

In the revolution of 1923 and 1924 the archbishop led a military force in the hills, and during the church troubles last year he was the leader of the militant church party which consistently offered a fighting front to the Calles government. He had numerous close escapes from capture. On one occasion the prelate was hidden in the heart of a straw stack about which soldiers who were hunting him were camped.

INDICT 13 MORE POLL OFFICIALS IN BALLOT LIST QUIZ

True bills charging 13 more precinct election officials with conspiracy to violate the election laws by padding the registration were voted by the grand jury yesterday. Assistant State's Attorney Charles E. Lounsbury, in charge of the investigation of alleged frauds in the recent registration, said he expected more true bills before the primary.

The true bills voted yesterday include the members of two complete precinct election boards and part of a third. The wards involved in yesterday's true bills are the 1st and 27th. The latter is the home ward of Homer Galpin, former chairman of the county central committee, who dodged grand juries for months.

Charge 41 Illegal Entries.

Guy T. Holden, James A. Stratton, and Frank Hand of the 29th precinct of the 27th ward are the men named in the first true bill. It is charged that they allowed forty-one names to be illegally entered on the registration lists.

Carmen Salvatore, William Bond, Charles A. Northup, Frank A. Highan and William Lapp, comprising the entire board of judges and clerks in the 4th precinct of the 1st ward are named in the second true bill. It is alleged that twenty names were illegally entered.

Others Are Named.

Fred Ross, B. H. Heckert, Richard O'Malley, William Goldman and A. J. Starkey, the board of the 5th precinct of the 1st ward, are named in the third true bill. In this ward the prosecutor charges 205 floaters are registered.

The grand jury on Monday voted the first true bill. At that time four precinct election officials of the 2d and 24th wards were charged with perjury and allowing false registration.

Mrs. Alfred Smith Is Hurt in Fall at Home

New York, April 2.—[Special.]—Mrs. Alfred E. Smith was recovering tonight from a head injury received in a fall downstairs at her 5th avenue home this morning. The accident caused abrupt temporary adjournment today of a conference in which the former governor was bringing together, in amicable agreement, the Structural Steel Board of Trade and the Structural Steel Workers, at odds for 25 years. Smith feared that this would retard construction of the new Empire State building on the site Waldorf-Astoria site on 5th avenue. The conference will be resumed tomorrow.

CONTRACT BRIDGE TEAS
UNDER THE DIRECTION OF
MR. CHARLES TRUE ADAMS
Member: American Auction Bridge League, etc., etc. Author: "Modern Contract Bridge," "Contract Bridge at Sight," "Auction Bridge at Sight," etc., etc.

DeMet's is pleased to announce that it has been able to arrange with Mr. Charles True Adams, nationally known authority on contract bridge, for a weekly series of contract bridge demonstrations commencing Tuesday, April 8, at three o'clock.

Whether you play Contract or have merely listened to the conversations of friends who do, you know of the tremendous interest which this new development in bridge has aroused.

Here is an opportunity to learn from the man who "wrote the book"—at one dollar per lesson. To learn the simple arithmetic of bidding. To hear how "hotsies" should be passed and whether the informatory two-bid is a fad or a function.

Questions deposited in the question-box will be answered by Mr. Adams, and sample hands will be played. The hour will be devoted to the practical explanation and playing of the game.

Mr. Adams' gift for simplifying the elements of Contract is well-known. Also well-known is the fact that he has taught many of the winning players in the city's fashionable clubs.

Following the bridge, tea, sandwiches, and a parfait will be served. Cards, score pads, and pencils will be provided and the entire charge for the afternoon, including tea, will be $1.00 per person.

In order to insure a seat, it is suggested that reservations be made at once. Tickets may be purchased through your nearest DeMet's store, or may be reserved by telephoning Central 1524.

SOUTH BEND HAS WORDS OVER DRY LAW AND TRIBUNE

Critic Arouses Retorts from Hearers.

South Bend, Ind., April 2.—[Special.]—South Bend's oldest discussion club, the Round Table, was a scene of heated verbal encounter this evening when Dr. Douglas W. Owen, young surgeon here, speaking on the subject "Psychiatry, a Study of the Abnormal Mind," accused THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE of being heavily subsidized in its stand on the prohibition question.

Defending THE TRIBUNE'S stand in no uncertain terms and denouncing the speaker for saying that the newspaper was being subsized were Dr. Thomas Konop, dean of the Notre Dame law school, and Gerald Cosgrove, associate editor of the South Bend Tribune.

Makes Attack on Newspapers.

Dr. Owen said while speaking on the subject of alcohol as it pertained to the study of psychiatry:

"While we are on the subject, let me call attention to a certain interesting psychological problem, that of the effectiveness of advertising. Certain newspapers in our own district headed by THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE continually play up, misrepresent and misquote facts concerning prohibition—either because they are heavily subsidized to do so [which I believe to be the fact] or because of the absolute ignorance of the editors, which can be the only other explanation."

Also Makes Objection.

Dr. Konop, at the close of Dr Owen's address, jumped to his feet and said: "I'm a Democrat; THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE is a Republican newspaper. When any one says that THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE is subsidized that's going too far."

Mr. Cosgrove followed Dr. Konop, saying:

"THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE is among the world's wealthiest newspapers. No one could subsidize that newspaper. To subsidize all the wet newspapers in America one would have to be as wealthy as Henry Ford. You speak of ignorance. Let me remind you, Dr. Owen, if you call that newspaper's stand ignorance, that some of the leaders of your profession are not prohibitionists."

Following the discussion of the paper by the members of the club, Dr. Owen in a 15 minute rebuttal explained that when he said that THE TRIBUNE was being subsidized he did not mean by money but that it probably was taking the wet side prompted by the desire to sell more papers.

FALL WITH STEEL BEAM FATAL.

NABS MAN WHO SOLD HIM STOCK AT END OF SIX MONTHS' TRAIL

Evansville, Ind., April 2.—William Gilmore, miner, is going back to Moab, Utah, with his man. Accompanied by his wife and baby, he has been hunting for him in six months of traveling that took him 7,000 miles and half way across the continent. In a little restaurant here he found him, just when he had but $4 in his pocket and all hope of success seemed to be gone.

According to Gilmore, J. C. McMullen sold him and several friends back in Moab the sands of dollars' worth of stock in the "Standard Gold mine in Arizona," which proved worthless.

"When I realized we were swindled," said Gilmore here, "I just packed up my wife and baby and started out after him. I got a clew at Denver, but he was one jump ahead of me. It was always that way, from Denver to Topeka, to Kansas City, to Minneapolis, to Chicago, to St. Louis. The money I had saved up after years of gold prospecting melted in this chase. When we got here we put up in the cheapest hotel possible.

WOMAN KILLED BY HIT AND RUN AUTO DRIVER

Three deaths caused by automobile accidents yesterday increased the Cook county motor toll for 1930 to 217. The victims:

Mrs. Sarah Witt, 32 years old, 4106 North Mozart street. Struck by a hit and run motorist and left to die in Irving Park boulevard near Mozart street. She was dead when the police arrived with her at the Martha Washington hospital.

William Anderson, 62 years old, 1634 Carmen avenue. Struck by an automobile at Ainslie street and Ashland avenue. Clifford Cederlund, 1826 Pratt avenue, driver of the car, was held for the inquest.

Leon Martin, colored, 7 years old, 3752 South parkway. Died in the Wilson hospital of injuries incurred when he ran into the path of an automobile at 38th street and South parkway. The driver, William Hohe, 4208 North Francisco avenue, was not held.

Mrs. Carol Phillips, 40 years old, 379 Hill avenue, Elmhurst, was critically injured early this morning when an automobile in which she and three other persons were riding collided with a freight train on the E., J. & E. railroad crossing in Cicero avenue south of the Lincoln highway. She was taken to the St. James hospital in Chicago Heights. Otto Schroedel, 26 years old, the driver of the car, and the two other passengers escaped without injuries.

LAUNCH INQUIRY IN BASIL MILES' DEATH IN 1928

Visited by Woman Before He Expired, Report.

Washington, D. C., April 2.—(AP)—A report that a woman of high social standing in Washington had visited Basil Miles, diplomat and economist, shortly before he died on June 14, 1928, arose today in the investigation the justice department is making into the circumstances of his death.

The woman, who probably will be called for questioning, was said to have left the room shortly before Miles' wife entered it. His wife was described as having been in the room when he died. Mrs. Miles now is the wife of Col. Henry H. Rogers, a Standard Oil millionaire.

Body May Be Exhumed.

Assistant District Attorney Neil Burkinshaw, who is directing the investigation, was considering having the body of Miles exhumed.

Miles was operated on by a prominent surgeon on June 4, and ten days later had so far recovered that his physician left Washington. While the resident physician at the hospital was attending another patient that afternoon, he was attracted to the corridor by a woman's screams. Mrs. Miles told him her husband was dying.

When the physician reached the room, Miles was dead. The death was attributed to pulmonary embolism, or a blood clot on the lung. He was buried at Murray Hill cemetery at Philadelphia.

Stationed in Russia.

Miles was born in Philadelphia in 1877, and began his work with the government in 1905 as a secretary to the American embassy in Russia. Later he was associated with the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, and in 1917 accompanied the Root mission to Russia. Subsequently he took over the department of Russian affairs in the state department.

He married Mrs. Margaret Peabody Savell in Europe in 1925 after she and her first husband had separated.

Dr. Edward J. Grass, the physician who was first to reach Miles after he died, already has been questioned by Burkinshaw and an agent for the department of justice.

Mrs. M. G. Nash, the nurse who was attending Miles, was said not to have been present at the time he died, but it was indicated that she also will be questioned.

ESTABLISH SMOKING ROOM FOR CO-EDS AT U. OF C. CAMPUS

University of Chicago co-eds who smoke will be able to do so in the future without enduring the outraged glances of their nonsmoking sisters. A separate smoking room for women has been established in Ida Noyes hall on the campus, one end of a large reception room being designated as a refuge for smoking co-eds.

"Separate rooms for the smokers and nonsmokers provided the only solution of the problem," said Miss Damaris Ames, assistant to the superintendent of Ida Noyes hall. "Those who do not wish to smoke can stay out of the room."

HUNDRED CAST ABSENTEE VOTES AT CITY OFFICE

More than 100 Cook county voters have cast their ballots for the April 8 primary at the offices of the election commissioners, under the law which permits registered voters, whose business will take them out of the city on primary day, to cast their votes before time. Chief Clerk John S. Rush yesterday predicted that more than 200 citizens will take advantage of the law.

The law requires the filing of an application by the voter. The application may be filled out in the offices of the election commissioners or secured by mail until five days of the election.

Vice President of Closed Bank Is Sued for Divorce

Alexander Jaremа, cashier and vice president of the closed City State bank of Chicago, was sued for divorce in the Circuit court yesterday by his wife, Mrs. Frances W. Jaremа. The Jaremas were married on Nov. 1, 1928. Mrs. Jaremа says her husband refused to live with her and asks for alimony and the custody of their son, Warren, 10 months old. She is represented by Attorney Milton J. Sabath.

WHEATON MAN FINED.

Sherman Koch, 24 years old, of Wheaton, was fined $25 yesterday by Judge Alfred O. Erickson in the Chicago avenue court on a charge of indecent exposure.

Controller's Son Weds Ex-Wife of Athlete

Kasper G. Schmidt, son of City Controller Schmidt and vice president of the Prudential State bank, was married on Tuesday in New York to Mrs. Ruby Delores Halladay, according to information received by Chicago relatives and friends yesterday. Mrs. Schmidt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Burge, 5233 Blackstone avenue, and is the divorced wife of Bob Halladay, former University of Chicago athlete. Mrs. Halladay and Mr. Schmidt had known each other for more than a year. Mrs. Schmidt gave her age as 24 and Mr. Schmidt as 33. They are expected home today.

SECOND WARD SHOWS CUT IN TAX VALUATION

Compare Figures for Block on South Side.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

Tax valuation records in the Second ward show reductions in the reassessment as compared with the 1927 tax valuation. Properties on the east side of the 2900 block of Dearborn street were compared yesterday to obtain a comparison of the two assessments. This stretch of street is in the Ninth precincts of the Second ward, in the heart of the Negro district.

The property at No. 2901 is owned by Mrs. Julia Kreger. Under the old assessment her lot was placed on the tax books for $2,250. Under the reassessment it is put down for $378—one sixth of the old amount. Her building under the old assessment was down for $4,000, but under the reassessment for $1,840. She paid taxes on a valuation for her entire property of $6,250 under the old assessment; while under the reassessment her figure is $2,218.

Cite Another Reduction.

The property of W. H. Curdest at 2931 South Dearborn street was given a fair cash full value of $708 in the Cutmore reassessment appraisal. The tax valuation under the 37 per cent ratio was therefore only $263 for both house and lot, and with the lot taking $174 of that amount. Under the old assessment this property was on the books for $1,300.

At 2927 South Dearborn street is a house and lot owned by Mrs. B. Quinn. Her assessment under the old scheme was $1,200; under the new it will be $324.

Mrs. Mary E. Keyes owns a lot 25 by 110 feet at 2969 South Dearborn street on which there is a house of no great value. The reassessment set the value of the entire property at $1,186. At the 37 per cent ratio her assessment is $440, while she paid taxes the last time on an assessment of $1,300. Two-thirds of her taxes have been eliminated.

St. No.	1927.	1929.	Change.
2901	$6,250	$2,218	$4,032
2907	1,200	987	213

2967	1,300	440	860

*Increase.

On the other side of the ledger is the three story flat building at 6327-29 Stewart avenue. That building—lot not included—of which a picture was printed in THE TRIBUNE July 26, 1928, to show the inequalities of the old assessment, was then on the books for $1,000. The new appraisal of the building was $19,939. The 37 per cent ratio placed it on the tax books under the reassessment at $7,378 instead of $1,000.

ACCUSED CHIEF OF CITY BUREAU IS SUSPENDED

Bernard W. Cullen, superintendent of the city's water pipe extension bureau, was suspended from office yesterday pending the filing of charges against him before the civil service commission by Commissioner of Public Works Wolfe. Mr. Wolfe charged that Cullen had kept an employé on the pay roll although the employé did not report for work.

The situation was called to Wolfe's attention by John P. Allen, a district superintendent of the bureau, who was named by Wolfe to act as superintendent in Cullen's place. Allen wrote to Wolfe that Cullen had authorized the timekeeper to carry W. H. Cummings, listed as a plumber, on the pay roll for three and one-half days of last week when he did not work. Allen also said the timekeeper's records show evidences of erasures made to credit Cummings with the extra time.

Cullen was certified to his position soon after Mayor Thompson was returned to office in 1927. He supplanted Allen, who was superintendent of the department under the late Mayor Dever.

Sunny skies and mild temperatures yesterday helped April to live up to its reputation as a spring month. Still warmer weather, although cloudy, is forecast for today. The mercury climbed to 45 degrees at 3 p. m. yesterday, four degrees above normal for the date. A minimum of about 36 degrees during the early morning hours was predicted. Yesterday's balmy weather drew large crowds to the lake front and the parks.

CIVIL SERVICE CHIEF QUIZZED BY GRAND JURY

Maj. Carlos Ames, president of the civil service commission, told the grand jury yesterday, it was reported, that since he became president about one year ago 130 examinations have been held for candidates for civil service jobs. He said that twice as many examinations have been held during his régime as during the preceding two years and more than were held under the Dever administration.

"I am in favor of civil service," Maj. Ames said before entering the grand jury room to answer questions about the charges of the state's attorney's office that pay roll padding and violations of the civil service law abound in the city hall. "The examinations held during my administration have been taken by 40,000 persons. I have reduced the waiting list by 4,000."

Edward J. Denemark and Bishop Archibald Carey, the other members of the civil service commission, were also taken before the grand jury, as was Michael J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements, and Bernard C. Romin, superintendent of the license bureau.

REVIEWERS ADD $60,000,000 TO VALUES IN LOOP

Action May Raise Revenue by $1,000,000.

The board of review yesterday ordered an increase of approximately $60,000,000 in the full value of loop property. The increase was made by raising the square foot value of 58 of the 61 properties, whose owners were asked on March 18 to show cause why their land values should not be increased.

The increases were made on the recommendation of the board's land committee, consisting of Perkins B. Bass, John P. Hooker, and Thomas E. Sullivan. The raise will increase the value for assessment purposes, which is 37 per cent of the full value, by $22,200,000, and may yield approximately $1,000,000 in added revenue.

The members of the land committee stated that they are unable at this time to translate the increase into percentages on each piece of property. The square foot values must be translated into unit foot values for comparison with the values set by the assessors, they explained. It is believed that the owners of the properties will carry their protest to courts for adjustment, as was announced by Attorney Lester Falk at a hearing before the board.

Put on Assessment Rolls.

The increases include the placing on the assessment rolls of the Holden property at Wacker drive and State street, which the reviewers hold was erroneously exempted by the board of assessors as city property. The city had not obtained legal right to the property on April 1, 1928, it was held. The Marshall Field estate at La Salle, Adams, and Clark streets, is also listed. Other properties are the following:

Rookery Bldg.	Peoples Gas Bldg.
Board of Trade	Marshall Field Block
State Bank	Woolworth, State-Washington.

McCormick Bldg.	Chicago Title & Trust.
Railway Exchange	Postal Telegraph.

Hearings will be held on the increases as soon as the board has translated the raises into unit foot values. All of the properties were listed in the complaints filed by the board of education, holding that loop property was undervalued.

KILLS SELF WITH GAS.

Ad Hinman, 55 years old, 1053 Madison street, committed suicide yesterday by inhaling gas in his room. Mrs. Nellie Higgins, his landlady, said he had been despondent because he was out of work.

Locked in Opera House All Night; Asks $50,000

New York, April 2.—[Special.]—The Metropolitan Opera company was sued in the supreme court today for $50,000 damages in behalf of a patron who alleges that after he sat through one of the defendant's longest operas, "The Meistersinger," from 7:45 to 11:45 p. m., he was locked in the opera house all night and was not released until the next day. The suit was brought in behalf of Charles Everett Colson, 19 years old, by his mother, Eveline L. Colson, for $40,000, while his father, Charles Herbert Colson, asked $10,000 additional for loss of the boy's services.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

That is the joyous cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the sibstitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 20 years, and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver.

Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, just a healing, soothing vegetable laxative, safe and pleasant.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They help cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—torpid liver—constipation, you should find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets.

Chicago's crime fighting forces went review yesterday before more than 00 business men who are pledged to upport them. When the review was ver and the men at the front had been heard from, the business leaders avored loudly and reaffirmed their onfidence and their support.

The occasion was a meeting of the hicago Association of Commerce in he grand ballroom of the La Salle otel. Col. Robert Isham Randolph, he president, had asked every head f a law enforcement agency in the ity to send representatives.

Police Heroes Present.

Chief of Detectives John Stege and ifty of THE TRIBUNE $100 award olice heroes represented the police epartment. District Attorney George . Q. Johnson was there representing he federal forces; State's Attorney wanson and his assistant, C. Wayland Brooks, came on behalf of the ounty forces; and George F. Getz, hairman, came representing the citiens' advisory committee.

Col. Randolph was there and scatered among the more than 1,000 members of the association were the "seven six," the crime fighters of the rganization who are to aid the authorities whenever they need help.

Cooperation was the theme. The crime fighters said they were doing their best and urged support of the business men. The business men, through Col. Randolph, made it plain that the authorities have the moral and financial support of business as far as it may be needed.

Dean Heilman Chairman.

Dean Ralph E. Heilman of the Northwestern university school of commerce, who was chairman, said:

"Chicago proposes to answer in no uncertain terms the charge that it is a crime ridden city. Its answer will be to put its house in order as quickly as possible. I know that the resources of this association are dedicated to aiding the constituted authorities in this fight. Let the forces of corruption beware."

"Yes," said Col. Randolph, "we are out to aid the authorities. There will be nothing extra-legal. This is no reform wave, nor is it a crusade. Neither are we in any sense vigilantes.

Will Aid Authorities.

"We were drafted for this situation and we are out to help the authorities in cases of crimes of major violence and general lawlessness."

"We are not complaining about the tools we have," said Stege, "but we have only about one-third enough men to prevent crime in Chicago. In the last 7 months 7 policemen have been killed, but we've bested them four to one, for in that same period the police have killed 28."

Introduce Two Policemen.

Jerry Bowen and James O'Neill were introduced as examples of the thirty police heroes who sat at the speakers' table. Col. Randolph stated each had been shot three times in getting his man—but he had got him

The circumstances of each case were told. When Bowen arose and the business men saw he was a colored man there was loud applause.

District Attorney Johnson was presented, and Col. Randolph then introduced State's Attorney Swanson saying the prosecutor "was dynamited into office"—referring to the campaign bombing of Swanson's home. Mr. Brooks, who recently convicted several bombers, told the business men of those cases and how they were fought and won.

U. S. FLYING ACE JAILED IN PLOT TO SMUGGLE ALIENS

MEXICALI, Lower California, Mexico, April 2.—(AP)—Loren W. Mendell, former co-holder of the world's airplane endurance flight record, was in jail here tonight accused by officers of participation in a plot to smuggle aliens into the United States. The flyer was arrested near Black Butte, 27 miles south of here, today by Mexican customs officials and his six place cabin biplane was confiscated.

Near the place where Mendell's plane settled down on the desert was a waiting automobile. In it were Mexican customs officials, United States border patrolmen, and two Japanese. The Japanese said they were waiting to be taken to the United States in the airplane.

Mendell is alleged to have admitted he planned to carry the Japanese across the border and said he was driven to "take a chance" because of debts and need of money to support his wife and three children in Los Angeles. He declined to name his confederates, saying "I'll take my medicine alone."

ROBS FOREST PARK OIL STATION.

A bandit who drove into an oil station at 7272 Jackson boulevard, Forest Park, yesterday robbed Carl Parod, 1222 Kenilworth avenue, Berwyn, the attendant, of $30. He locked Parod in a washroom and then drove away.

100 DIE IN PANIC AS STORM SINKS JAPANESE FERRY

Boat Tips as Passengers Rush to One Side.

TOKIO, April 2.—(AP)—The capsizing of an overloaded ferry boat off the island of Kyushu, southern Japan, today was believed to have cost the lives of more than 100 persons. Forty-eight bodies have been recovered.

After leaving Wakamatsu, a coal exporting port, for the nearby town of Tobata, the ferry boat Wakato Maru was lashed by a gale, which swept waves board.

200 Passengers Aboard.

She was carrying at least 200 passengers, twice her normal capacity, and they rushed to one side of the laboring ferry boat to avoid drenching. Their weight caused the little boat to turn over.

With the exception of two Serbian girl dancers, who are missing, all of the dead were believed to be Japanese.

Victims Have No Chance.

Summoned to the rescue by signals of distress, numerous craft rushed to the scene and picked up many survivors. The plunge of the Wakato Maru was so sudden, however, that scores of persons were carried down with the vessel and others had no chance in the rough sea. The search for bodies continued tonight.

Other shipping disasters were feared as the whole coasts of the four main islands of Japan were gripped by storms.

COMMUNIST STRIKE CLOSES UP SCHOOLS; RED CHILDREN RIOT

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, April 2.—A school strike of more than 1,000 communist children in the Neukoelln quarter of Berlin today closed down four public schools and interfered with the functioning of several others. Ardent communist mothers engaged in hair pulling contests with mothers who had accompanied their children to school, fearing trouble.

There was also plenty of serious rioting, accompanied by violence typical of a grownup Red demonstration. Young communists beat up children who ignored the strike.

The communists called the strike in protest against the excessive economy of the Berlin school board.

Three Communist party officials were arrested today on order of the German Supreme court at Leipzig on charges of inciting soldiers to mutiny and treason.

Find Buried Explosives.

ESCHWEILER, Germany, April 2.—(AP)—Local police announced tonight that they had discovered a large amount of explosives buried in the Probsteier forest and that they were convinced that there was a plot to blow up the public buildings.

Taxes

Property owners in Chicago pay 35% less taxes on property of the same valuation than in New York. The investor who makes money expects to be taxed; he is fortunate when the rate of taxation is so low, and the rate of increase in realty valuation is so high as in Chicago today. WET FORCES HOPE TO WIN CONTROL OF LEGISLATURE

They Must Take 21 Seats in State Senate.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

The wets hope to control the next Illinois legislature. Their hope is based on expected gains in the election, due to what they claim is a change in sentiment on prohibition.

As evidence of the supposed change in the popular attitude, they point to THE TRIBUNE poll of legislative candidates, and also to the Literary Digest canvass of views on the repeal, modification, and enforcement of national prohibition. The latest figures of the Digest poll show the following in Chicago, downstate, and in the state as a whole:

	In Chicago.	Outside Chicago.	In Illinois.
Repeal	43,695	16,246	59,341
Modification	27,696	12,622	40,318
Enforcement	11,913	18,808	30,721

45 Per Cent for Repeal.

The totals for the state now show 45 per cent of the straw voters for repeal and only 23 per cent for enforcement. That view favors the wets. However, 63 per cent of the straw votes were taken in Chicago and less than 37 per cent downstate; and there are more voters outside of Chicago than inside the city. While Chicago shows 52 per cent for repeal and only 14 per cent for enforcement, downstate shows 39 per cent for enforcement and 34 per cent for repeal. The balance of public sentiment downstate in this poll appears to lie with those who desire modification.

From the wets' viewpoint another fly in the ointment is that while the downstate area has only a little more than half of the voters it has 64.7 per cent of the legislators. More than half of the voters might be wet, yet the drys might still have a majority of the legislature.

In the last two sessions the wets have had a majority of the lower house in test roll calls, but have never had the upper hand in the senate. In contrast to the Illinois assembly the house of representatives in Washington recommended the eighteenth amendment by a vote of 282 to 128—more than 2 to 1. The United States senate approved of the amendment by a vote of 65 to 20—more than 3 to 1.

Test Votes in Illinois.

In Illinois this amendment was approved by the house by a vote of 84 to 66, and in the senate by a vote of 30 to 15. The test votes in the Illinois legislature since the eighteenth amendment was proposed may be summarized by sessions as follows:

	Senate		House
Year.	Drys.	Wets.	Drys.	Wets.
1919	30	15	84	66
1921	30	12	81	63
1923	31	1	78	72
1925	28	20	73	60
1927	33	17	64	79
1929	28	21	65	77

If it can be assumed that the house will continue to vote wet, then the control of the general assembly by the wets lies in their ability to capture the senate. To do that they must elect 21 out of the 26 senators to be voted upon, which appears exceedingly difficult.

Wets Must Win 21 Seats.

Senators are elected this year in the odd numbered districts. The senators from even numbered districts hold over. There are 20 holdover senators who voted at the last session with the drys. The wets have only five among the holdovers. To have the 26 majority of the 51 senators, the drys have only to elect six this year, while the wets to gain a majority must elect and reelect 21, or some of the senators who have heretofore voted dry must switch over to the opposition. However, 16 of the 26 senators to be elected this year will be from Cook county, where the sentiment is against the drys.

On the other hand, the drys have two candidates for the senate without opposition. These are Martin R. Carlson of Moline and Charles H. Thompson of Harrisburg. Potentially, therefore, the drys have 22 votes in the senate as a starter for the majority of 26, unless some who voted dry in the last session vote wet in the next.

Two of the wet senators who are candidates for reelection are without opposition for renomination, but both have candidates against them in the opposition party.

211 Oppose, 24 Favor Dry Law in Tribune Poll of Candidates

A majority of the 582 candidates for the state legislature in the April 8 primary have voted in the poll which THE TRIBUNE is taking to inform the voters of the candidates' views on the prohibition question.

Yesterday 45 replies were received to the questionnaire which was sent to all the candidates, bringing the total responses to date to 312. Of these a total of 211 favor repeal of the Illinois prohibition law, by legislative action or by referendum, while 76 favor a referendum of the people on the question of the repeal. On the opposite side the poll shows 24 candidates opposed to the repeal and one candidate opposed to a referendum.

The vote to date is tabulated as follows:

In favor of a direct legislative repeal of the Illinois prohibition law and also in favor of submitting the repeal to a referendum of the people of Illinois	187
In favor of submitting the repeal to a referendum	76
In favor of the direct repeal	24
Total	287
Opposed to the direct repeal and also opposed to submitting the repeal to a referendum	18
Opposed to submitting the repeal to a referendum	1
Opposed to the direct repeal	6
Total	25

The following candidates marked their ballots in favor of the repeal of the law and also a referendum on the repeal. The list gives the district in which the candidate is running, and his party is indicated by [R] for Republican and [D] for Democrat:

7. A. E. Borg [R].

SENATE.

20. John J. Joyce [R].

Anna Wilmarth Ickes, one of the Republican candidates for the house from the Seventh district, expressed her opposition to the repeal of the law, while State Senator Harry G. Wright of the Thirty-fifth district voted as opposing either the repeal or referendum.

SOVIET ANTI-GOD POLICY ASSAILED IN BRITISH LORDS

Archbishop Asks Action by Government.

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 2.—Another scathing attack on the anti-religious policy of the Russian government was made by the archbishop of Canterbury in the house of lords tonight.

"It can be proved that in Russia there is still deliberate persecution of religion," declared the archbishop.

He appealed to the British government to use its influence to obtain mercy for religious bodies in Russia. He admitted that there had been some improvement lately and urged the government to press the yielding door.

Government Refuses to Act.

Lord Ponsonby feared that a debate might make more difficult Foreign Secretary Henderson's task of negotiating an agreement with Russia.

Lord Parmoor admitted, however, that "there had been a terrible amount of religious persecution."

Despite the government's reply, the archbishop later said he was not without hope that a friendly remonstrance would have the effect of mitigating the soviet policy.

200 Children Put on Farm.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

RIGA, Latvia, April 2.—The Moscow Pravda, one of the official organs of the soviet government, reports that 200 children have been gathered into the first children's communal farm in the Don district. Because of incompetent supervision the Pravda says the morals of the children are reported to be bad and stricter segregation is proposed.

Order Food for Starving Jews.

MOSCOW, April 2.—[Jewish Telegraphic Agency.]—The central soviet government today ordered from ten million to twelve million poods of foodstuffs to be sent to Crimea to relieve the dire situation in the Jewish and non-Jewish colonies there until the next harvest. [A pood is 36.07 pounds.] The same order instructs the soviet officials to discontinue the merging of Jewish and other colonies in Crimea.

PICTURES OF BYRD'S PARTY ARE DELIVERED AFTER FAST FLIGHT

New York, April 2.—(AP)—The first photographs picturing the arrival in Dunedin of the homeward bound Byrd antarctic expedition reached New York today, brought to the Associated Press, the New York Times and the Paramount News by Lee Schoenhair, pilot of the Goodrich monoplane Miss Silvertown.

Ending the last leg of his flight from Panama, where he obtained the pictures last Sunday, Schoenhair arrived at the Newark, N. J., airport at 2:30 p. m., 8 hours and 17 minutes after he had taken off from Miami, Fla.

An hour later the news photographs were being telephotoed across the country for immediate distribution to newspapers and the Paramount News workshop was grinding out movie newsreel releases which will be shown in the theaters tomorrow.

ELMORE THROWS LIGHT ON DENEEN 'BREAK' CHARGES

Tells of Differences in Canal Management.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Some light on the question that has been raised in the United States senatorial battle concerning a split between Senator Deneen and President Elmore of the sanitary district because of the latter's reported "refusal to carry out orders" was provided by a statement from Mr. Elmore yesterday. In it he said he had refused to carry out suggestions from political leaders and further on said that the only difference between him and Senator Deneen "seems to be in the method of managing the sanitary district of Chicago."

"Since becoming president," Mr. Elmore said, "I have steadily refused to carry out any suggestions made by political leaders or political factions that I felt were not for the best interests of the taxpayers of the sanitary district.

"The results in dollars and cents are these: First, the district pay rolls have been promptly met; second, the public works required by the federal government in 1929 have been finished; third, the actual saving to the taxpayers for 1929 over 1928 exceeded $12,000,000; fourth, we have coördinated the work of the district so that instead of more than 4,000 people on the pay roll we have only about 1,300; lastly, the district is being efficiently handled and the pledges to the people are being fulfilled.

Asks Votes for His Ticket.

"If the voters want this work continued I feel it is absolutely essential that they vote for the five candidates I am indorsing."

Elmore then reviewed the formation of his own drainage board ticket which he had expected to see included in the Deneen slate and the development of the Butler-Seabury ticket which was adopted by the Deneen group.

"From this," he continued, "it would seem that the 'civic ticket' is a creature of the Deneen organization, brought into being not for the benefit of the people of the district, but for the benefit of the Deneen organization itself. Therefore the clean cut issue before the voters is whether they wish to continue my administration or whether they want to hand over to these Deneen candidates the affairs of the district.

"The only difference of opinion between the senator and myself seems to be in the method of managing the sanitary district of Chicago. I am willing to leave it to the voters and I want them to decide whether my method of handling the district is entitled to their wholehearted support and coöperation."

Galpin to Stay Away.

Elmer K. Galpin, former chairman of the Cook county Republican central committee, won't be here for the primary next Tesduay. His address during the winter, "somewhere in Europe," has been changed to "somewhere in New England," and within a short time it will again be changed to his big potato farm in northern Wisconsin, according to reports.

For several days there have been rumors that Galpin had arrived in Chicago and was operating secretly for this or that candidate, that he was handling his old ward, the 27th, and even that he was forming a new combination of ward leaders for the primary.

On the scent of a lively news story politically, reporters have been trying for several days to run down these reports but have failed to find Galpin anywhere. He has not been in Chicago, they learned, and he probably will not be, it was reported, unless it is on personal business after the spring potato planting is finished.

Bacon Makes a Pledge.

In speeches at Deneen meetings last night, Walter E. Bacon, candidate for county treasurer, pledged himself to keep the office free from objectionable political influences if he is elected.

"I reiterate my position on this issue," he said, "that I will not solicit nor accept the support of any of the political elements in Chicago or Cook county that are allied directly or indirectly with crime, corruption, incompetency or racketeering. And after I am elected and assume the office of county treasurer, I will not ally myself nor permit the influence of my office to be allied with other officials or politicians who are responsible or even tainted with the conditions of scandal, corruption, debt and bankruptcy which have shamed us."

FROM THE REPUBLIC OF SAN MARINO.

This letter came from San Marino, the smallest republic in the world. This little state has been in existence more than 1,000 years. It lies near the Adriatic coast, south and east of Rimini, has an area of 38 square miles, and a population of about 13,000.

At present it is the refuge of a committee who are fighting for the freedom of Montenegro, who regard the absorption of their country into Jugo-Slavia as an international crime. It was from this committee that the above letter was received by Mr. Chicharevich, who says "the people of San Marino are in sympathy with the Montenegran people, who have been in slavery since 1918."

BROKER LIKES SEA, SO KEEPS SUITE ON SHIP

New York, April 2.—[Special.]—"Uncle Charlie" Jeffries must go down to the seas again—and he's going. He's been going now for so long that he can claim every sea as home.

Uncle Charlie, whose formal name is J. T. Jeffries and who was a broker in Philadelphia until the lure of the wide watery spaces puled him away from his ledgers, came into port today on the liner Caledonia and prepared to go right out again.

The Philadelphian, known to all the passengers who sail aboard the Anchor line, has become as much a fixture there as Capt. Collie, the bowsprit, and the hold cat.

In December he sailed for Glasgow from New York on the Caledonia, intending to make a European tour, but when the vessel returned he was still aboard, explaining to the officers that he liked nothing better than sea travel and that the ship suited him perfectly. He has the best suite aboard.

Four of Mexican Bandits Holding Yankee Are Slain

TEPIC, Nayarit, Mexico, April 2.—(AP)—Four members of the bandit gang holding J. E. Bristow, oil operator of San Angelo, Tex., prisoner, were killed in a clash with federal troops south of Ixtlan, Nayarit, Tuesday. Others of the gang escaped with the prisoner who is being held for 30,000 pesos ransom—about $15,000.

COAST GUARD IS SHOT IN BATTLE ON DETROIT RIVER

WINDSOR, Ont., April 2.—[Canadian Press.]—Two members of the United States coast patrol and three men in a 36 foot launch which is believed to have been heavily loaded with liquor exchanged a dozen or more shots in midriver tonight. The fusillade ended with the rum runners' craft having four .48 caliber bullet holes in its hull.

According to Sandwich police, at least one of the patrol boat's crew was wounded. Their ammunition exhausted, the smugglers headed for this side of the Detroit river while the American patrol craft, its engine apparently laboring, limped back to its Detroit station.

Ordered by the officers to throw up their hands, the smugglers are reported to have replied with a volley from a sawed-off shotgun.

Gordon Marsden, coast guard officer, was taken to a hospital in Detroit and treated for a wound in the hand, the hospital authorities said. K. C. Rudd, who was with Marsden, escaped injury, although several shots passed through his coat.

Woman Dies After Taking Liniment for Toothache

Mrs. Louise Eden, 48 years old, collapsed and died suddenly last night in her home on Hintz road near Milwaukee avenue, a mile southwest of Wheeling. Dr. Edward L. New YEAST and IRON Builds Weight. Quick Results—or pay nothing

"After a 7 weeks' revival campaign I was entirely run-down and had lost flesh so rapidly I became excited about my condition. My wife and members urged me to do something.

Then I saw your advertisement of IRONIZED YEAST and decided to give it a 3 weeks' trial. After 2 weeks I found my strength returning and the dull tired feeling gone. At the end of the 3 weeks I had gained 7 lbs. and was myself again. I can recommend IRONIZED YEAST gladly." Rev. W. H. Taylor

Why Be "Skinny"?

Stop Being a "Skinny" Weakling

Imagine just 3 weeks to change from a "skinny," tired, run-down person that nobody thinks much of, to a strong, well-filled-out, "peppy" man or woman that everybody admires. Thousands of letters like the mini...'s tell how ugly hollows in face and neck vanish. "Broomstick" limbs become gracefully round and chubby. Tired feeling disappears. Blemished skin clears quick.

Only when Yeast is Ironized is it so wonderfully effective—for Iron is needed to bring out the weight-building and strengthening values of Yeast. That's why IRONIZED YEAST works so marvelously. Get these pleasant little tablets in the handy bottle today. No yeasty taste. Never upset stomach or cause gas or bloating.

Try It on "Money-Back" Offer

Go to any druggist today and get a full size treatment of IRONIZED YEAST. Take it regularly as directed. If after this generous trial you are not delighted with weight and health benefits gained, your money promptly refunded by manufacturer.

CAUTION! While the amazing health-building value of IRONIZED YEAST tablets has been positively demonstrated in cases of lack of energy, indigestion, constipation, skin eruptions, poor complexion and generally weakened condition IRONIZED YEAST should not be used by anyone who OBJECTS to gaining weight. Take it regularly if you want the full benefit. And take it long enough so you not only gain but HOLD what you gain.—©I. Y. Co.

Amazing Numbers of Illinoisans Write Letters Like These:

What IRONIZED YEAST has done for all these folks it should certainly do for you. Take advantage of our generous trial offer. If not delighted, get your money back.

'ARF PINT FLIES OVER MOUNTAINS ON GOTHAM TRIP

Pathfinder Enjoys Good Weather All Way.

BY ROBERT WOOD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 2.—[Special.]—Stretching across the state of Pennsylvania from the Delaware river to the Susquehanna is a range of ragged mountains which have come to be known as "the graveyard of aviators." The 'Arf Pint, THE TRIBUNE'S air pathfinder, flew these mountains today on an observation tour from Cleveland to New York.

A bright sun and clear skies robbed the Alleghenies of their most sinister aspects today, for it is not the mountain peaks that worry the flyers, but the fog and clouds that push in from the midwestern plateau and nestle there.

The 'Arf Pint got away from Cleveland early this morning, following the giant four motored Fokker down the runways and "tailing" it for a few miles in the direction of St. Louis, where the ship was headed on its maiden trans-continetal hop. Then Pilot Homer Berry turned about into the sun and headed straight for Bellefonte.

Talk with Weather Man.

At Bellefonte the mountains begin and here the planes set down to wait when the worst storms rage in the heights beyond. Here also the pilots get the "highball" to go across, talking with the weather office by radio phone as they fly over.

The first ridge apears at the end of a valley of farms and the "'Arf Pint" rolled on over it like a canoe riding the surf. Beyond for 200 miles to Washington, N. J., the rocky wooded ridges curl across the landscape. Bald spots on the tops of the ridges show where emergency fields have been cleared for the air mail, and here and there along the course—on rocky peaks, along the mountain sides and on the banks of winding rivers—are the beacon lights which flash at night to guide the pilots on their way.

Wesley L. Smith, veteran flyer of the night mail, and division manager for National Air transport at Cleveland, will tell you that the Pennsylvania mountains are "not so bad;" that there is hardly a place in them where you can't "crack up safely" and walk away from it.

Weather Has Peculiarities.

Today he explained some of the weather peculiarities of the Alleghenies.

"The clouds in a storm," he said, "usually have a tendency to remain above flat territory, but to arch down to meet and envelope high points along the way. A plane flying from Cleveland to New York at an elevation of 3,000 feet frequently finds itself beneath the clouds over the valleys, but very much in the clouds when flying over the ridges and high points."

Meteorological data shows that the Alleghenies act as a buffer for weather moving in from northwestern Canada, from the western plains, from Mexico and Florida on its way to its customary exit through the St. Lawrence valley.

Some pilots favor a more northerly course between Cleveland and New York, which, though a trifle longer, skirts the rougher regions of the mountains.

Radio Adds to Safety.

Radio has done much to diminish the dangers of flying the route between here and Cleveland, which, despite its obstacles has more air traffic than any other line in the country. But occasionally a night flyer, trying to get through thick weather with the mail, goes down in the hills.

Today's flight across the mountains was the second made by a TRIBUNE plane. The first flight was made not quite a year ago in the 'Untin' Bowler and a passenger on that flight was Ben Eielson. Eielson flew out from Nome, Alaska, last November on an errand of mercy and did not come back alive, but he lived long enough to see his dream of conquering the Arctic with airplanes approach realization. The 'Untin' Bowler lies 25 fathoms beneath the shifting icebergs in Hudson strait.

Predict St. Lawrence River Ice Free by End of Week

MONTREAL, Que., April 2.—(AP)—The progress of the icebreakers Saurel and Lady Grey in clearing ice indicates that the St. Lawrence river will be open and the channel free of ice before the end of the present week.

Overshoes Made for Planes to Protect Wings from Ice

Ithaca, N. Y., April 2.—(AP)—Overshoes for airplanes—a new method of keeping wings free of deadly ice—were announced tonight at Cornell university, after successful tests in the midwest.

They were developed by Dr. William C. Geer, research chemist, with the coöperation of Dr. Merit Scott, Cornell physicist, the Daniel Guggenheim Fund for the Promotion of Aeronautics, the B. F. Goodrich company of Akron, the National Air Transport, Inc., and its eastern superintendent, Wesley L. Smith.

The overshoes lace over the forward edge of the wing. They are a thin layer of specially vulcanized rubber exuding continually a colorless oil.

It is announced that the ice does not stick nor the oil "scrub off."

This slipperyness alone is insufficient and so the overshoes have a small hose underneath their striking edge. A slight pulsation of pump driven air in this hose breaks the ice as it forms on the wing edge.

"Two weeks ago," said Dr. Geer tonight, "a successful test was performed at Cleveland, and another and final confirming one is in order for this week.

"Although much work will be required by way of detailed improvement I am convinced that we have developed fundamental principles and simple means through the use of which the ice hazard may be eliminated from airplanes. This conclusion is shared by Mr. Wesley L. Smith at Cleveland, eastern division superintendent of the National Air Transport, who personally piloted the test plane."

"We use a selected group of oils which stand cold down to zero without appreciable stickiness, and which are nondrying over long periods.

"When ice forms the pilot can turn air into the air tubes, slightly expanding them. This moves the ice, 'breaks the vacuum,' and since the adhesion to the oiled rubber is essentially zero, the ice becomes a loose object on the plane and is instantly blown away.

"These overshoes are designed to be applied like ordinary overshoes in bad weather only. They lace on quickly, the parts are not heavy or cumbersome; about 100 pounds added weight for a biplane of 40 foot wing spread.

"The propellers have not been protected, but they, the radiator shutters, and control wires present no problems of unusual difficulty when viewed in the light of these fundamentals."

Hawks Reaches Tulsa in His Glider Flight

Tulsa, Okla., April 2.—(AP)—The aerial train of Capt. Frank Hawks, transcontinental flyer, who is piloting a glider towed by an airplane on a proposed flight from San Diego, Cal., to New York City, landed at Garland airport here late today after encountering unfavorable weather conditions on the journey from Sweetwater, Tex. The day's lap of 375 miles from Sweetwater was completed in five hours of flying time, stops being made at Wichita Falls, Tex., and Oklahoma City. After spending the night here, Hawks planned to resume the journey early tomorrow, with East St. Louis, Ill., his goal for tomorrow night's stop. He plans to reach New York Sunday after making the first cross-country glider flight in history.

FRENCH HEAD OF WORLD AIR BODY ON VISIT TO CITY

Count de la Vaulx of Paris, president of the International Aeronautical federation, stopped off in Chicago last night on a 55,000 mile tour of North and South America. Starting from France in February, he has already visited Brazil, Argentina, Uruguay, Chile, Peru, and Panama to aid in the organization of new national air associations.

He took off from Salt Lake City at 5:20 o'clock yesterday morning and made a nonstop flight to Chicago, arriving at the municipal air field at 6:50 o'clock last evening. He was the guest of officials of the Chicago National Air Race association at a dinner last night at the Hotel Sherman. Other guests were M. de Fontnouvelle, French consul, and Lieut. Faret, a former officer in the French air service.

Count de la Vaulx will leave this afternoon for Cleveland.

NEGRO MURDERS WOMAN AND HER BABY; IS SLAIN

Sebring, Fla., April 2.—(AP)—A woman and her child were slain today in their home by a Negro intruder who was in turn shot to death by the woman's husband.

Mrs. William E. Carver and her 2 year old son were beaten to death with an ax when the woman awoke from a nap and found the Negro, identified as Ben Whitehead, ransacking her room.

There was an outcry and Mr. Carver, who was asleep in the next room, awoke. He looked into his wife's bedroom in time to see the Negro hit Mrs. Carver. Carver picked up his revolver and fired four shots into the Negro's body.

That robbery was the motive for the murders was evidenced by the fact that some of Mrs. Carver's jewels were taken from the pockets of the Negro.

Mrs. Carver's mother is Mrs. H. C. Boardman of Winthrop terrace, Chicago.

MRS. ERLANGER' VALUES ESTATE AT 100 MILLIONS

Fraud Laid to Attorney in Will Making.

BY TOM PETTEY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 2.—[Special.]—Charlotte Fixal, the former show girl who wants to share in the estate of Abraham Lincoln Erlanger as his common law wife, delivered another attack this afternoon on the heirs and attorneys of the late theatrical man. In an affidavit filed in Surrogate court and signed "Mrs. Charlotte F. Erlanger" she insisted the Erlanger fortune was "more than 100 million dollars" and cited hitherto unrevealed bank accounts to prove it.

"Mrs. Erlanger" also charged Saul Baron, the Erlanger attorney, with fraud and with exercising undue influence in procuring the making of the will which bequeathed the estate to blood kin and ignored the woman who says she lived with Erlanger for eighteen years as his "wife."

Naming of Brother Opposed.

The affidavit was filed in an effort to prevent the appointment of Mitchell L. Erlanger, brother of the former theatrical man, as temporary administrator.

In placing the value of the estate at 100 million dollars, "Mrs. Erlanger" refutes the estimate of $2,000,000 made by Isidor J. Kresel, one of the attorneys for the estate, and reveals that Florenz Ziegfeld does not own the New Amsterdam theater. The claimant to a "50 per cent share in the estate" says that last February Mr. Erlanger "had $1,000,000 in cash in five banks."

Lists Bank Accounts.

"On Feb. 14, last," states the affidavit, "Mr. Erlanger had certificates of deposit for $478,166 in the Bankers' Trust company; more than $235,000 in a personal account in the Bank of America; $228,000 in a personal account in the Empire Trust company, and $35,000 in the Chemical National bank."

In an effort to show she was well known to Erlanger's friends in the theatrical world "Mrs. Erlanger" included a telegram in her affidavit received Aug. 11, 1927, from Ziegfeld:

"Mrs. Charlotte Erlanger, care of Abe Erlanger, Shelburne hotel, Atlantic City: Would like Abe's permission to announce Erlanger and Ziegfeld present the Ziegfeld Follies. Regards, FLO."

Later this afternoon Max D. Steuer, attorney for Charlotte Fixal, filed a memorandum attacking Saul J. Baron. The paper said in part:

"It has been specifically pleaded that Saul J. Baron was guilty of undue influence and fraud in the preparation of and the execution of this so-called will. Up to this time there has been no affidavit filed in which Baron denies he has said: 'You know there is no Mrs. Erlanger.'"

STIMSON SIGHTS 5-POWER PACT TO CUT NAVIES

U. S. Declares Japanese Reply Fair.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 2.—Following a meeting of delegation chiefs to the London naval conference today, it was noised about at the American headquarters that a navy limitation agreement of some sort is already in sight.

This agreement is said to be either a five power treaty or a tripartite treaty among Great Britain, America and Japan, in which France and Italy will be permitted to join later. The adoption of the latter alternative will permit an earlier conclusion to the conference than has been anticipated.

"The situation is much improved since last week," said Secretary of State Stimson following the session. "I am much more optimistic of a five power agreement than I was at that time."

U. S. Approves Japan's Reply.

Although the Japanese government has returned the Anglo-American-Japanese agreement to London for further negotiations on some points, the American delegation views Tokio's reply as satisfactory. Reijuro Wakatsuki submitted the Tokio acceptance, with its four reservations, to Mr. Stimson and Prime Minister MacDonald this afternoon, and it was agreed to postpone the consideration of the reservations until tomorrow. According to circumstantial reports Great Britain and America through their Tokio envoys checkmated France in an endeavor to block a three power treaty. The French ambassador is said to have sought to influence the Japanese government to reject the terms of the agreement negotiated by America, Great Britain and Japan, but failed.

Senator David A. Reed will take up the further concessions which Japan asks tomorrow. Under the Reed-Matsudaira agreement, Japan was given submarine parity with America and Great Britain at 52,700 tons. Japan objected that the replacement schedule involved would keep her shipyards in idleness for several years. Senator Reed is expected to agree to allow Japan earlier replacements on 10,000 tons of submarines in order to keep her yards busy.

PLENARY SESSION DELAYED

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 2.—Despite the efforts of official spokesmen of the naval conference to take optimistic views, it could not be concealed tonight that the recent hopes of rapid progress are not being realized. Much of the new gloom was due to the slow progress being made by Aristide Briand of France and British Foreign Secretary Henderson in their search for a formula which will permit the French to believe that they have won additional security and permit the British to believe they have not undertaken any additional commitments.

Several plans have been sent to Paris for consideration, but none seemed to fit, for tonight the plenary meeting, scheduled for Friday, was postponed indefinitely because it was thought inadvisable to interrupt the Briand-Henderson search.

It was also disclosed at the meeting of the big five this afternoon that most of the work was found to be still in the debatable stage and was referred back to the various committees.

Meanwhile the British parliament is getting very uneasy about the suggestions that Great Britain might be involved in new continental wars through some strengthening of article 16 of the league of nations covenant. Mr. MacDonald was bombarded with questions in the house of commons this afternoon, and in his absence they were answered, or rather not answered, by Philip Snowden, chancellor of the exchequer. He referred all questions to Mr. MacDonald's former answers to similar questions to the effect that Great Britain would undertake no new military commitments.

SENATOR ALLEN VISITS CITY ON WAY TO CAPITAL

Stronger sentiment in favor of prohibition, a brighter future for the farmer, and greater prosperity were predicted yesterday by Senator Henry J. Allen of Kansas, as he passed through Chicago on his way to Washington. He declared that Kansas is just as dry as it ever has been. He declared that the federal farm board's efforts to reach a solution of the farm problem have gained increasing support in Kansas.

CHINA ALARMED AS IT SEES JAPAN'S NAVY CONTROLLING COAST

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SHANGHAI, April 2.—Chinese Nationalist officials who for the last four years have been loud in their demands for the withdrawal of foreign navies, particularly the Anglo-American fleets, from the Chinese coast, as well as from inland waters, have suddenly become apprehensive that such an action might leave the Japanese navy in exclusive occupation of the Chinese coast.

The Chinese apprehension is due to reports from London, as well as Tokio, referring to the proposed American, Japanese, and British three power pact, by which both Great Britain and America may recognise Japan's paramount position in China. A Japanese Rengo News agency report from Tokio last night alleged that Secretary of State Stimson, in conversations with the Japanese delegate, Tsuneo Matsudaira, had confirmed the report America intended to recognise completely Japan's predominant position in the far east.

The announcement has had the effect of a bombshell in Chinese political circles. It had just been announced that China had granted Britain permission to continue to use Weihaiwei naval base for ten years as a summer training station, in exchange for Britain's decision to relinquish the base to Chinese control. It was stated that Great Britain's use of Weihaiwei base is similar to the American use of the Chefoo base.

$500,000 FRAUD SUIT DISMISSED BY JUDGE FRIEND

Circuit Judge Hugo Friend has entered an order dismissing a suit brought by John Regan, 6558 North Richmond street, charging his brother-in-law, Thomas J. Grady, 4844 Lincoln avenue, with defrauding him of $500,000 in a real estate partnership. Regan charged that his partner sold assets of the company and kept the money. Attorney Henry M. Miller presented a demurrer on March 28. He offered testimony that Regan had never been a partner in the real estate concern, but was employed as a laborer by Grady. The judge sustained the demurrer and ordered the suit dismissed. Regan has a similar action pending in the Superior court, brought since Judge Friend dismissed the suit.

"PEACHES" FINDS MORE BROWNING MEANS TO CLAIM

New York, April 2.—(AP)—Frances "Peaches" Browning, through her mother, today filed suit against her husband, Edward W. Browning, and the Edoro Realty compay to have her dower right established in 24 parcels of property held by the realty company. Mrs. Browning says her husband, from whom she has been separated since 1926, is real owner of the property, and that as his lawful wife she is entitled to dower rights. This is one of several suits of similar nature she has brought against Browning.

Edward Browning married Fraces Heenan on April 26, 1926. She was 15, he 51. They separated a few months later.

ITALY SEES SELF OUT IN COLD IN A SECURITY PACT

Charges British, French Framing Alliance.

BY DAVID DARRAH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, April 2.—The announcement from London today that the French and British are nearing a basis of agreement on a method of interpreting article 16 of the league of nations covenant in such a fashion as to satisfy the French security demands had an extremely bitter reception in Italy. It has aroused the Italian rancor against the British, it has further disturbed Mediterranean waters, and as one writer puts it today, it has justified the worst fears of Italy that the whole London conference would lead Europe back to the system of private agreements such as preceded the last European war.

One writer describes this accord as "sea wolves having united with land wolves." Roberto Davanzetti, a member of the grand Fascist council, tonight declares the agreement means that Prime Minister MacDonald and the Laborites, under pressure of the admiralty and the foreign office, are simply reviving the so called Anglo-French naval compromise of 1928, which was dropped after protests from the United States and Italy.

Fears Diplomatic Stroke.

From all appearances, Italy will have nothing to do with any London agreement based on widening the scope and commitments of this much disputed article. In the first place, it is pointed out that England and France are incompetent even to discuss changes in the interpretation of either article 16 or of the Locarno treaty since other nations are also signatories.

What is apparently feared here is that some subtle diplomatic stroke is being prepared at London whereby a three power pact between England, the United States and Japan would be formed and that France, after having secured the guaranties she wants, would lower her tonnage demands and accede to the three power pact in her turn. Thus Italy sees herself without her parity demands even being given a hearing, and forced into a position of either joining the pact, without recognition of parity, or of seeing the others form a four power agreement without her.

The reply here is that Italy is now indifferent and will reassume her liberty of action and build the size of fleet she pleases without any restrictions.

Appeals to Japan's Emperor.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TOKIO, April 2.—The campaign in opposition to the Japanese acceptance of the Reed-Matsudaira compromise on naval tonnage limitation at London, being led by Admiral Kanji Kato, chief of the naval staff, gained momentum today when the admiral unexpectedly submitted a direct memorandum to Emperor Hirohito criticizing the compromise as dangerously weakening to Japanese sea defense.

A movement to create public opposition to the compromise will begin tomorrow at a massmeeting in Shiba park in the heart of Tokio, called by the big navy men. The speakers will include Vice Admiral Ichizen Yamaji, son-in-law of Admiral Takarabe, and a dozen retired naval officers. A resolution denouncing the compromise will be adopted, which will be later submitted to the cabinet.

SCIENCE HUNTS STRANGLE KILLER OF HOUSEWIFE

last night for questioning as a witness. Dr. Muehlberger said that skin torn from the woman's body where the killer scratched her during their struggle would be strong evidence if it were found under the nails of the suspect.

The theory of robery and murder by a prowler was strengthened by the fact that Mrs. Helsing's diamond engagement ring and her wedding ring had been removed from her finger, and that a knee length Hudson seal coat and a heavy gray possum coat and 10 suits of her lingerie were missing from the house. Her purse, which her husband said he thought contained about $15, was also missing. A wrist watch, which had stopped at 2:15, was torn from her wrist during the struggle and was found on the floor.

Other Articles Not Taken.

Other articles of value, however, were left behind, and a $5 bill was found in a bureau drawer. Helsing could recall no other articles that were missing when he was questioned last night.

Lieut. Sullivan conducted an experiment with the pieces of ribbon taken from the slain woman's neck. The husband had cut the ribbon with a scissors and when Lieut. Sullivan pieced it together it was too large to have fitted tightly around the neck as a noose and not long enough to have been wound around twice.

There was nothing in the lives of Helsing or his wife to furnish a clew, the detectives said. Helsing said he had no rivals for her affections, either before or after their marriage. He was graduated from the engineering school of the University of Nebraska in 1924 and came here then to work. He met the girl, who was then Charlotte Mildred Carson. She was working as a stenographer and they eloped to Crown Point, Ind. Their marriage has been most happy, he said.

The police were seeking a beggar who had been reported as knocking at doors in the neighborhood Monday afternoon.

Prowler Is Questioned.

The Grand Crossing police were questioning Joseph Koler, 33 years old, 735 South State street, who was found on Tuesday night loitering in the rear of the home of Daniel Frazier, 7818 Kimbark avenue, after neighbors had seen a prowler there, but he denied any knowledge of the Helsing murder.

When a detective squad arrived at Frazier's home they found Koler crouching on the steps. In his pocket the police found a chisel, a screwdriver and a knife.

LINKS McERLANE HOSPITAL FIGHT TO OBERTA DEATH

Coroner and Police Trace Gun of Slain Gangster.

Coroner Bundesen announced last night that, through police aid, he had solved two recent gang shootings.

The coroner made his announcement following the resumption of the inquest into the slaying on March 6 of John [Dingbat] Oberta, gangster politician. He said his evidence showed that Oberta's death was linked to the shooting of Frank McErlane, who was wounded as he lay recovering from former gunshot wounds in the German Deaconess hospital. The hospital shooting occurred a few days before the killing of Oberta, who was a foe of McErlane, according to the police.

Gun Is Link in Shootings.

A .45 automatic pistol, found in McErlane's possession after the hospital gunfight, is one item which links the two shootings, Coroner Bundesen declared. This gun, he said, before the hospital shooting was in the possession of Sam Malega, Oberta's bodyguard, whose bullet riddled body was found beside that of Oberta at Roberts road and 103d street.

Several empty .45 caliber shells were found beside McErlane's cot after the hospital battle, and this indicated, the coroner said, Malega had used the weapon in that fight.

As a third point in his reconstruction of the two crimes the coroner recalled the exclamation attributed to McErlane by the police: "Never mind who did it. You'll find 'em in a ditch." Malega's body was found in a ditch, Bundesen pointed out.

Bundesen to Carry on Search.

The coroner admitted, however, that he had not been able to determine the actual slayers of Oberta and Malega, though he said he was certain that McErlane directed them. He adjourned the inquest indefinitely.

"But I'm not through with this case," he declared. "We're working on information that should lead to further important evidence."

One task, the coroner said, is the tracing to individuals of twenty-five other guns which were found by the police at the scenes of murders and which are known to have been at some time in the hands of gansters. All these guns, Sergt. Patrick Donohue of the detective bureau testified, came from the sporting goods shop at 633 South Ashland avenue. The shop is conducted by Benjamin Tamen, who was a witness at the inquest.

Tells of Selling Gun.

Tamen admitted that he had sold Malega the .45 caliber gun which was found in McErlane's possession. He said he ordered pistols shipped through the firm of Von Lengerke & Antoine, 11 South Wabash avenue, to Jack Kraske, at Morris, Ill., his brother-in-law. Traske testified that Malega received the guns from him but denied he knew for what purpose the guns were sold.

One of the confiscated guns identified as part of the Tamen-Malega shipments was picked up at the scene of the St. Valentine's day massacre, Sergt. Donohue testified. Another of the guns, found beside the body of a gangster slain on the south side, had been sent to a man at Salem, Wis., the playground of Joe Saltis, Donohue asserted.

"Another gun in this Tamen lot was taken from Frank McErlane in 1928," Donohue said. "It had been shipped to Henry Taylor at Palos. Still another was found on the person of Willie Niemoth, a police character."

FORGIVES HIS WIFE FOR BIGAMY; SAYS SHE'S GOOD MOTHER

New York, April 2.—[Special.]—Spurned by his wife for another man, James Meehan of Brooklyn nevertheless welcomed her back because she "was a good mother," after Mrs. Mary Meehan pleaded guilty to bigamy before County Judge Algernon I. Nova today.

"Well, Meehan, what do you want me to do?" Judge Nova asked after the plea was entered.

"Let Mary come home to me and our children. She made a mistake and I'm ready to forgive and forget, because she was a good mother to our children and that's what counts," Meehan, a red cheeked, husky young Irishman, replied.

"That's just what I expected from a smiling lad like you. I'll bet you're Irish," Judge Nova observed.

"Irish-American."

"Yes, Irish-American, and it's good that we're all here. Did you ever hear of the lost tribes of Israel?" inquired the judge, who is a Jew. Meehan had not heard of them.

"Well, of the lost tribes the Irish were the only ones found," Judge Nova said.

"That's news to me," Meehan answered.

Judge Nova suspended sentence on Mrs. Meehan, and as Mr. and Mrs. Meehan walked out of court, arm in arm, their 14 year old daughter, Mary, rushed up to her mother and hugged her. They have another child, James, 9.

MURDER BARES $200,000 LIFE INSURANCE PLOT

Rich Doctor Arrested as Arch Conspirator.

Bentonville, Ark., April 2.—(AP)—An amazing story of a $200,000 life insurance swindle attempt, in which one of the conspirators was slain, was unfolded today to officers and a grand jury by Miss Pearl Powell, a former waitress.

Miss Powell identified the body of a man found shot to death near here last Saturday as that of William Robert Pearman, 47, former automobile mechanic of Columbia, Mo., and two Columbia mechanics, Z. P. Lamaster and Hugh Zumult, corroborated her identification.

Dr. A. J. Bass, retired dentist and wealthy land dealer of Columbia, is in jail here on a murder charge. Officers accuse him of having been the "master mind" in the plot.

"Folta's" Papers on Bondy.

The body was discovered with three bullet wounds in the head, on the roadside near Gravette, bearing papers with the name of William Folta of Martinburg, Mo., who disappeared seventeen years ago.

Dr. Bass identified the body as Folta's. Insurance in Folta's name totaling $200,000 had been assigned to Bass as collateral on a land deal involving a tract in Miller county, Ark.

Officers became suspicious when the mother and brother of Folta declared the body was not that of their son and brother.

Miss Howell was quoted by Sheriff Fields as saying she had been a friend of Pearman for some time, and that while he had not divulged the plot to her she had pieced it together from his conversations and his actions.

Planned to Fake a Corpse.

Miss Howell said she believed the plan was to obtain a body, represent it as that of Folta, and collect the insurance.

Pearman, married and the father of two children, she said, met Dr. Bass last fall and shortly afterward became affluent.

Then, the waitress related, after the two learned of William Folta's disappearance for 17 years, they learned details of Folta's life and a description of him, which Pearman, she said, resembled.

Pearman left Columbia March 21 to go to Kansas City, she said, and she received a wire from him there a few days later saying he would return to Columbia last Thursday. When he failed to return and had not communicated with her by Sunday she read of the mysterious slaying here and went to Pearman's wife, telling her she believed the body of the man to be Pearman's.

Miss Powell said Pearman confided to her last November that he and Bass were involved in a big land deal in Arkansas and told her three persons in it expected to get $85,000 each.

Later, she said, he told her another man had been admitted as a partner.

Insurance investigators identified the body as that of a man who had taken life policies totaling $200,000 last January under the name of William Foltra. The supposed Foltra represented himself as having made a fortune in Japan.

Flota's Brother Tells Story.

Martinburg, Mo., April 2.—(AP)—Frank J. Folta Jr., brother of the missing William Folta, today told of meeting Dr. A. J. Bass of Columbia, Mo., last Oct. 14 on a train. They discussed William Folta, he said.

On Oct. 24, according to Flota, Dr. Bass came to Martinburg and called at the Folta home, saying that "Willie" was alive and well in Chicago and intended to write soon.

A month later, on Nov. 24, according to Folta, a man called and introduced himself as a "government agent." He obtained complete information regarding the Folta family history and left.

Dr. Bass, Folta said, made two more visits, during which he asked if word had come from the missing brother. About that time the Foltas advertised in newspapers and by radio, asking William Folta to return and claim a $10,000 share in the estate of his father.

On Feb. 10 a letter signed "William Flota" was received. It informed the family that the missing son was coming to see them on April 1.

TRIES TO END LIFE, RELEASED.

Olen Nelson, 29 years old, 934 Leland avenue, a deaf mute, who attempted to commit suicide by gas on Tuesday night, was discharged by Judge Alfred O. Erickson when arraigned in the Town Hall court yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct.

WIVES (PRESENT AND PAST) SAVE DAY FOR VICTOR

Mrs. Rose Feleci, 1209 Larrabee street, and Mrs. Mary Feleci, the second and third wives respectively of Victor Feleci, a mechanic of 1126 Milton street, joined forces yesterday, first to send Feleci to jail and then to keep him from going to jail for alimony arrears. Feleci was taken before Superior Judge Sabath, charged with being $1,051 in arrears in his payments to Mrs. Rose Feleci.

Before the second wife could state her case Mrs. Mary Feleci, the present wife, demanded that the judge send her husband to jail because she did not love him any more. Wife No. 2 objected. Though the wives had gone to court together, they began to dispute. Victor silenced them with a single command. Both stretched their arms toward him. He evaded them and stepped nearer the judge.

Then the women united in a plea to have the judge reduce Victor's bond from $2,000 to $1,000 so that he would not have to go to jail. Judge Sabath agreed.

ARRESTED AT 66 ON FRAUD CLAIM, HE TAKES POISON

Joseph Rheinstrom, 66 years old, who the police say has a long record as a confidence man, was arrested yesterday at his room in the Ambassador West hotel by Lieut. John Cartan and Sergt. John Quinn on a warrant from Tulsa, Okla. Rheinstrom, admitting that he was the right man, packed up his baggage and then stepped into the bathroom for a drink of water, he said, before starting for the detective bureau.

As the street car on which he and the detectives were riding reached 8th and State streets Rheinstrom became ill and the trio walked the remaining three blocks to the police building. There he was registered and was led to a cell.

"Don't put me in there," Rheinstrom pleaded. "I took three poison tablets when I drank that glass of water."

He collapsed and after treatment by a physician was taken to the Bridewell hospital. He is expected to recover.

TARIFF FORCES ABRUPT HALT IN DRY HEARINGS

Wets Lose Chance to Quiz McBride.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 2.—The dry side of the house judiciary committee's hearings on the 18th amendment came to an abrupt end at the close of a one hour session this morning, when Chairman George S. Graham [Rep., Pa.] after hearing one witness announced that consideration of the tariff bill on the floor barred further hearings for the day.

As a consequence five leaders of the biggest dry organizations were permitted to insert statements into the record without submitting to cross-examination.

This arrangement was readily accepted by the drys. It allowed them to broadcast their final arguments through the committee, untouched by questioning. It did not please the wet committeemen so well, however.

La Guardia Disappointed.

"Does this mean that we cannot cross-examine the representative of the Anti-Saloon league?" asked Representative F. H. La Guardia [Rep., N. Y.], one of the active wets. The chairman answered that "It does."

"Why, I've been waiting ten years for a chance to cross-examine the Anti-Saloon league on the witness stand!" La Guardia exclaimed.

The single witness appearing this morning was J. Weston Allen of Boston, former attorney general of Massachusetts, who argued the legal aspects of prohibition.

Personal liberty to keep and drink liquor is not an inherent or constitutional right, he held, and the eighteenth amendment is a proper part of the constitution. He was questioned only casually.

Six Drys Insert Statements.

The dry organization officials permitted to put statements into the record were Dr. F. Scott McBride, superintendent Anti-Saloon league; Deets Picket, research secretary Methodist board of temperance, prohibition, and public morals; the Rev. E. C. Dinwiddie, superintendent National Temperance bureau; Eugene L. Crawford, secretary board of temperance and social service of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; Dr. E. H. Cherrington, secretary World League Against Alcoholism, and the Rev. William Sheafe Chase, superintendent International Reform federation.

Each of the dry officials unreservedly opposed the wet measures pending before the committee, denouncing the charges that prohibition has broken down as a wet falsehood, upheld the theory that a vast majority of the people are dry, and urged tighter enforcement as the only remedy for existing conditions.

McBride Sounds Keynote.

The keynote of all the statements was sounded by Dr. McBride in this sentence: "Prohibition at its worst, even in the worst cities and in the worst places within these cities, is better than the oldtime licensed liquor traffic at its best."

Dr. McBride declared that the wets have failed to prove their major contentions—that the 18th amendment fails to contribute most effectively toward the solution of the liquor problem; that the people are asking for repeal, and that they, the wets, have a constructive program upon which they can unite.

Alludes to Chicago.

The Anti-Saloon head referred several times to Chicago and THE TRIBUNE, which he mentioned as "probably the world's wettest newspaper." He cited a study recently made by Health Commissioner A. H. Kegel as proof that "the death rate from alcoholism in Chicago has been greatly reduced." Dr. Kegel's study, according to McBride, showed that there were 18 alcoholic deaths per 100,000 population in 1912 and a maximum of 9.7 after prohibition, with a decrease to 4.1 in the last year. He also quoted a letter from Dr. H. C. Newton, 25 East Washington street, Chicago, taking issue with Bridewell statistics presented by Dr. F. J. Gerty of the Psychopathic hospital.

Quotes Tribune Editorial.

McBride quoted a recent editorial in THE TRIBUNE entitled "Let's Go," pointing out the soundness of American industrial conditions as evidence of prosperity under prohibition.

Dr. McBride denied that bootleggers contributed to the Anti-Saloon league. Upon receiving proof of any such donations, he said, he would give the amount to charity and an equal sum to a wet organization.

DRY LAW WILL LIVE ONLY 4 MORE YEARS, DARROW DECLARES

Attorney Clarence Darrow returned to Chicago yesterday after a nine months tour of Europe to launch a crusade against prohibition. His campaign will begin in a debate with Senator Brookhart of Iowa at Columbus, O., on April 8. This debate will be followed by another at Toledo two days later.

Mr. Darrow will lecture against prohibition throughout the country. He says he believes that prohibition will exist only four more years. At the end of that time, he predicts, the Volstead law will be repealed and the eighteenth amendment will be dead.

"Prohibition is dying on its feet," Mr. Darrow said. "A lot of prohibitionists know it. That's the reason for this spurt of attempted enforcement. They are trying to give a dying souse a shot of bootleg hooch. But it is too late.

"It will take about two congressional elections to get the will of the people translated into the halls of congress. Then our congressmen will be as afraid to vote for prohibition as they now are to vote against it. And I hope to do my part in fighting to throw that scare into them."

SEEK $20,000 TO PAY FOR RAZING PART OF JAIL

An appropriation of $20,000 to tear down a portion of the north section of the old county jail on the near north side will be considered at the next meeting of the council finance committee on Wednesday morning, according to Ald. John S. Clark [30th], chairman. The appropriation has been requested by Ald. Dorsey R. Crowe [42d], who has been informed that the walls may collapse and injure pedestrians. The building became the property of the city in an exchange by which the county was given ground for its new jail and Criminal courts building on the west side.

CANADIAN MOVE TO SIDETRACK BAN ON U.S. RUM FAILS

BY GEORGE SMITH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

OTTAWA, Ont., April 2.—While senate opponents of Premier Mackenzie King's bill to halt the export of liquor to the United States continued today in the senate chamber and in the lobbies their effort to sidetrack the measure to a special committee it became apparent that the move will fail and that the bill will carry through the senate by a majority of 20 to 30 and become law.

The committee reference move is being interpreted in some quarters as merely an effort to delay the enactment of the bill and thus give the Canadian distilleries an opportunity of disposing of their surplus stocks.

Senator Charles E. Tanner of Pictou, N. S., flayed the American government for "exerting silent pressure" to have the liquor export ban bill passed. He condemned the Canadian government for being "always on its knees to the United States" and criticized the principle of the legislation itself.

Then he brought a smile to usually grave senate faces by declaring he hadn't decided how he would vote.

"Washington always gets what it wants in its dealings with Canada," Mr. Tanner said. "We sing 'O Canada, We Stand on Guard for Thee,' but we always are on our knees to the United States. This measure is being urged at the instance of Washington. Of course, the United States government didn't send a letter ordering us to pass this bill, but always, always, it is exerting silent pressure.

"Look what it is doing at the London conference. It is saying here we are; come to our terms and there may be a bargain, otherwise there will be none. The United States never has considered us in its legislation. It certainly didn't consider us in the framing of its tariff.

"Canada was not considered when Chicago began stealing international waters. Of course, I don't blame the American government or the American people. I admire them. They are business people, seeking to drive the best bargain they can. I admire them, and would that Canada had a government of this caliber, that would look out for our interests."

Senator Tanner declared the majority of the people of Canada as well as of America were opposed to the measure, and ascribed its almost unanimous passage through the commons to both parties playing "the political game." He demanded the bill's reference to a special senate committee for widest investigation of its effects.

BRITISH VESSEL SEIZED ON SEAS BY COAST GUARD

Boston, Mass., April 2.—(AP)—The British two masted schooner Aramay, with 800 cases of liquor aboard, was seized off the coast of Maine by a coast guard patrol boat today, Thomas F. Finnegan, in charge of customs enforcement squad here, announced. The Aramay was taken into custody by the crew of the coast guard patrol boat Frederick Lee off Mount Desert island within the 12 mile limit, Finnegan said. She will be towed here and is expected to arrive tomorrow morning when, Finnegan said, the crew would be turned over to him for questioning and then arraigned in federal court on charges of conspiracy and smuggling.

CHICAGO Girl's Letter

MARCIA C hasn't found the key to romance . . .

"He likes me, Miss Dix," she writes, "but there isn't a sign of his falling in love with me, and yet he's the one man in the world—"

To all the girls like Marcia in this big city I want to say . . . don't be disheartened . . . romance can be yours. It is every girl's birthright. To win out, Marcia, you must first have faith in yourself. Faith in your daintiness—your charming femininity.

Clothes will help you . . . for clothes have a subtle effect on a woman's psychology . . . and I don't mean just the clothes that show.

When everything you wear—including your lingerie, your stockings, all your intimate things—is very dainty, colorful, you yourself feel perfectly charming.

And because you FEEL charming you ARE charming.

It is all summed up in two simple rules—

FIRST: Buy the loveliest, laciest underthings you can, for they make you believe in yourself.

SECOND: Keep them colorful, shimmering, like new—for *drab, faded underthings cannot give you this feeling of dainty femininity.

You may ask, "But how can we keep these delicate things color-fresh in spite of frequent washing—colors fade so easily!"

No doubt colors do fade when washed the ordinary way with ordinary soap, but there is a wonderful product made especially to preserve color in the daintiest fabrics.

"You must have faith in yourself—in your daintiness—in your charming femininity"

Of course I mean LUX. Lux is especially made to cleanse without disturbing the loveliness of colors, the shimmering beauty of dainty fabrics. DOROTHY DIX

MOTHERS now learn value of MAGNESIA

Because it is so helpful in keeping babies and children healthy and happy, every mother should know about Phillips Milk of Magnesia.

This harmless, almost tasteless preparation is most effective in relieving those symptoms of babies and children generally caused by souring food in the little digestive tract, such as sour-belching, frequent vomiting, feverishness, colic. As a mild laxative, it acts gently, but certainly, to open the little bowels in constipation, colds, children's diseases.

A teaspoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia does the work of half a pint of lime water in neutralizing cow's milk for infant feeding, and preventing hard curds. Its many uses for mother and child are fully explained in the interesting book "Useful Information." It will be sent you, FREE. Write the Phillips Co., 117 Hudson St., New York, N. Y.

In buying, be sure to get genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Doctors have prescribed it for over 50 years.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co., and its predecessor, Chas. H. Phillips, since 1875.

FARM LOBBYIST GRAY FLAYED BY SENATOR NORRIS

Bureau Man Is Attacked as "Traitor."

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 2.—[Special.]—Repudiation by the American farm bureau federation of Chester Gray, its Washington lobbyist, who, he asserted, has been exposed by the lobby investigating committee as a traitor to the farmers' cause, was demanded in the senate today by Senator G. W. Norris [Rep., Neb.] sponsor of the pending resolution for government operation of the Muscle Shoals power and fertiliser project.

Norris climaxed his denunciation of Gray for activity endorsing the American Cyanamid company bid for a lease on Muscle Shoals with the charge that the farm bureau official, seeking to conceal his relations with the Cyanamid company and the Union Carbide company, perjured himself before the senate agriculture committee in 1928.

Says Testimony Changed.

Asked at that time who financed the preparation and distribution of Muscle Shoals anti-government operation propaganda distributed in the name of the federation, Gray, according to Norris, who read from the agriculture committee's record, replied "the American farm bureau federation." Later when a transcript of his testimony was given to him for correction, Gray, Norris charged, added the word "cooperatively" to his answer.

Grilled by the lobby committee on the same point a few weeks ago, Gray admitted that the material supplied to country newspapers was financed by the Union Carbide company.

"The only thing that saved this fellow Gray from punishment for perjury," said Norris today, "is that when I came to present the facts to the district attorney I discovered he had not been formally sworn when he took the stand."

Charges Farmer "Flimflammed."

The Nebraska senator declared that throughout the recent tariff fight Gray took his salary from "the toiling farmers and sat by seeing the farmer flimflammed from morning to night without raising his voice in protest." The Nebraska senator reviewed Gray's coöperation with the Tennessee River Improvement association, a lobby in behalf of the cyanamid bid formerly headed by C. H. Huston, now Republican national committee chairman.

The lobby committee's inquiry into the Muscle Shoals lobby was completed today with a perfunctory examination of W. B. Bell, president of the Cyanamid company, and W. G. Waldo, a consulting engineer for the Tennessee River Improvement association.

WASHINGTON NOTES

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The senate today confirmed the nomination of Benjamin M. Day to be commissioner of immigration of the port of New York.

Appropriation of $50,000 for a study by President Hoover of means of conserving the public domain was voted by the senate as a substitute for the house measure authorizing appointment of a presidential commission to make the inquiry.

Secretary Wilbur announced that President Hoover had designated the three commissioners for Alaska as members of a committee to recommend steps for improving governmental administration in that territory.

The house resolution authorizing construction of a $875,000 federal reserve branch bank building at Pittsburgh was ordered reported to the senate by its banking committee.

A joint invitation from the governors of Colorado, Utah, New Mexico, and Nevada was extended to President Hoover by Senator Phipps of Colorado to attend a conference on city planning to be held in Denver, June 23, 24, and 25.

The nomination of Randolph Bryant to be United States attorney for the eastern district of Texas was confirmed by the senate.

Powerful Bomb Exploded in Crowded Dept. Store

HAMBURG, Germany, April 2.—(AP)—A powerful bomb exploded in a crowded department store here today. The force of the explosion, however, was mainly upward and there were no casualties. The blast blew out windows and demolished parts of the second floor walls.

HOUSE REGULARS ADVANCE TARIFF TO CONFERENCE

No Radical Among G.O.P. Committee Members.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 2.—[Special.]—Administration Republicans proved to be in complete control today when the house by a vote of 421 to 153 approved a special rule to send the tariff bill to conference. A motion to close debate by ordering the previous question was carried by a vote of 237 to 153. The action followed three hours of discussion.

In the vote on the adoption of the rule, 19 Republicans and one Farmer-Labor member voted with the Democrats in the negative. Fourteen Democrats voted with the Republicans in the affirmative.

Speaker Longworth appointed the ranking members of the ways and means committee, Representative W. C. Hawley [Ore.], A. T. Treadway [Mass.], and Isaac Bacharach [N. J.], Republicans, and John Garner [Tex.] and James W. Collier [Miss.], Democrats.

After being notified of the house action the senate approved the appointment of its conferees. Vice President Curtis named the ranking members of the finance committee, Senators Reed Smoot [Utah], James E. Watson [Ind.], and Samuel Shortridge [Cal.], Republicans, and F. M. Simmons [N. C.] and Pat Harrison [Miss.], Democrats.

No atempt was made in the senate to upset the seniority rule in the selection of conferees. As a result the coalition of Democrats and radicals will be powerless in the adjustment of differences between the senate and house bills except in so far as it may threaten to block approval of the conference report. There are no radicals among the Republican conferees of either senate or house.

FINED FOR PLUMBING VIOLATION.

Joseph Malattia, 221 East 116th street, was fined $200 yesterday by Judge C. H. Douglas in the Municipal court for failure to have the plumbing in his flat changed in accordance with orders from the city health department.

STRIVES SEVEN YEARS TO FLEE SOVIET RUSSIA

Discovers Communism Looks Better Afar.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 2.—[Special.]—Seven years ago Feodor Borozdoff, a Russian native in process of becoming an American citizen, picked up a Russian newspaper telling of the "wonderful things" that were being done in his native country by the communists. He immediately left his home at Granite Falls, Wash., and returned to Russia.

State department files made available for publication today told of the disillusionment of Borozdoff when he arrived at his old home and of seven years' struggle to return to his children in the United States. During his adventures he was arrested as an "American" spy in Russia, as a vagrant in China, and as an alien in India.

Finally Wins Way Back.

Thanks to the charity of British and American diplomats at Kashgar, China, he was given funds enabling him to reach Calcutta. At that point the American consul placed him aboard a steamship on which he worked his way back to the United States.

The state department's first information regarding the plight of Borozdoff came in a letter sent to the editor of a Russian languagc newspaper published in New York and forwarded to Washington.

"Please help me in my misfortune," Borozdoff wrote. "Having heard about the wonderful things going on in Russia I was stupid enough to decide to return there after living several years in the United States. I left Dec. 5, 1923, and returned to my old home in the Caucasus. But things there were not as they were painted. I found my property had been sold and I decided to return to the United States. I asked for a passport and was arrested by the police as a spy sent to Russia by the American government."

Troubles Not Over.

At the time the letter was written in 1927, Borozdoff was in Kashgar, China. He had finally escaped from Russia and having no money had started to walk to Shanghai, where he understood members of his family were living. After a 1,700 mile walk across the mountains, Borozdoff was arrested as a suspicious character. He was entirely destitute of funds.

SUPREME COURT ASKED TO RULE ON FALL APPEAL

Washington, D. C., April 2.—(AP)—To hasten the end of the protracted litigation arising out of the leasing of the naval oil reserves, the government today asked the Supreme court to decide the appeal of Albert B. Fall from his conviction on the charge of accepting a bribe from Edward L. Doheny without waiting for the court of appeals of the District of Columbia to pass on it.

The former interior secretary was convicted in 1929 of accepting $100,000 from Doheny as an inducement for awarding him a lease on the Elk Hills naval reserve in California and contracts for the construction of storage tanks at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

He appealed recently, asking the District of Columbia Court of Appeals to set aside the verdict.

PREDICTS CAR PLAN WILL BE READY IN WEEK

Ald. James B. Bowler [25th], chairman of the council subcommittee that is working on the proposed transit franchise ordinance, predicted last night that a complete draft of the ordinance, including the financial and reorganization provisions, will be ready for submission to the local transportation committee next Wednesday.

After yesterday's meeting in the office of Attorney Walter L. Fisher, the fourth of the recent sessions, Ald. Bowler said that an accord on practically all the provisions of the ordinance has been reached between the bankers, the citizens' committee, transportation executives, and the aldermanic subcommittee. The city and company attorneys will meet today with Attorney Fisher to redraft the sections to correspond with the agreements reached at the four sessions.

PARTY REGULARITY AND THE WORLD COURT.

Is the world court a test of regularity in the Republican party? Senator Deneen, supporting the court, says that it is. Mrs. McCormick says it is not. There is no question as to the league of nations. The declarations of the party and the response of the voters are clear as to that. As to the court, there is one unequivocal party declaration for it. That was in the platform of 1924, when Coolidge was nominated. There was no authority for Harding's espousal of the scheme. The convention which nominated him was preoccupied mainly with the league of nations and the action of the senate in refusing to fatify the covenant.

This convention declared against the league and its purposes as being a repudiation of American policy and principles. It supported the principle of arbitration, but reserved the right to determine on each occasion what was to be regarded as right and fair, "the right to exercise judgment." That was consistent with previous Republican party conduct and doctrine. From these generalizations as to arbitration, with the specific condition that there was no commitment as to future decisions and judgments, Mr. Harding proceeded to, an indorsement of the world court for which he had no authority in the party resolutions. Mr. Coolidge, succeeding Mr. Harding, adopted his world court policy. The convention of 1924 found that two Presidents, whether authorized by the party or not, had taken up the world court. In these circumstances the party indorsed the court.

When the 1928 convention assembled the situation again had changed. The senate had adopted the court protocol with reservations unacceptable to other court nations and the United States had been rejected because of these conditions. The party then returned virtually to the position taken in 1920. The Kellogg treaty had become an administrative measure. It was indorsed. The administration had undertaken to formulate a scheme of arbitration with all the American governments, and these treaties were indorsed by the convention. Such arbitration was recommended in all international relations. The league of nations was again condemned, and the party declared against the assumption of any obligations under its covenant. The court is its creation.

Arbitration and the world court are two entirely separate things. Arbitration is represented by the Hague tribunal, and it protects the right to determine on each occasion what is right and fair, "the right to exercise judgment," without having a decision in the past control an unperceived event in the future. The party ignored the world court. Mr. Hoover followed Mr. Harding and Mr. Coolidge in accepting it, but no Republican President in failing in with the idea has had the authority of the convention which nominated him, which represented the Republican voters, for his action. The convention once indorsed the step after it had been taken, but four years later, when the project seemingly had failed, was silent on that subject and returned to the old doctrine of arbitration.

Each time a Republican President has first advocated the world court he has stepped outside of the platform upon which his candidacy was offered to the people, and the only time the party has supported the court was when its judgment had been forced by a President it was about to renominate. That does not represent a judgment of the party, but of the chief executive.

Mrs. McCormick opposes the world court and supports a system of arbitration. Senator Deneen says that party regularity requires the acceptance of the Root formula for the world court. The formula is not understood by very able lawyers who have studied it. They do not know what all its possible meanings may be found to be. The last utterance of the party indorsed the system of arbitration which the administration is putting into effect with its neighbors.

Senator Deneen has the individual privilege of supporting the world court and following Mr. Hoover and Mr. Root in this idea if he thinks the course is wise or politically expedient, but more of the party doctrines are expounded in Mrs. McCormick's opposition to it. There is consistent party regularity in opposition. There is not in advocacy of the court.

THE DRY DEATH ROLL.

Senator Brookhart thinks "1,365 is a mighty small number to be howling about in the enforcement of the greatest moral reform in the country's history."

Brookhart is speaking for himself and for the fanatic minority which occupies the front rank of the prohibitionists. We are confident he is not speaking for the majority of his constituents or of the people of Iowa. Bloodthirsty bigotry is at the heart of the effort to impose teetotalism by force of government and seeks justification for acts of violence in supposed devotion to "moral reform," as the zealotry of inquisitors and puritan persecutors of past centuries indulged the private appetite for persecution under cover of religious zeal. Brookhart and the prohibition bosses and extremists represent a recrudescence of the ancient lust of persecution. That is why the government has been bullied into excessive measures and a policy of ruthlessness which does not characterize its action in any other of its activities. The majority of Americans who are classified as prohibitionists have no such urge to persecution and we are confident do not support it. It is inconsistent with the really kindly spirit of American life which more and more emphatically is revolting against it. The savage temper of Brookhart, which taints many of his public pronouncements, finds a congenial outlet in the excesses of enforcement, but it also illuminates the Sadistic element in prohibitionism. Its self-exposure is an unintentional service to the cause of real temperance reform, which will be resumed when the ill-conceived and demoralizing experiment in law enforced teetotalism is replaced by methods consistent with the American spirit, American principle, and American common sense.

BRIDGE RELIEF.

The summer motoring season is almost at hand and bridge relief ought to precede it. Representative Britten has tried to accelerate an adjustment at Washington, but, while Chicago will have to fall back upon that if necessary, the problem should be solved here at home without the expense of time and money involved in a trip to Washington. The facts are here and they are not obscure. The representatives of both the private and public interests concerned are here and ought to discard pride of opinion and discount private self-interest on behalf of the common good. Mr. Simpson's appeal is perfectly reasonable and expresses the major interest of the city. Special Assistant Corporation Counsel Goldstein has been working zealously for settlement and he has the strong support not only of the business interests but of the general motoring public whose convenience is unnecessarily sacrificed by existing regulations.

The Chicago Waterways association is composed of business concerns which cannot afford in the long run to feel the resentment of millions of motorists, as well as of the substantial business interests of the metropolis. The Erie railroad management is showing not only common sense but public spirit in offering to conform its practice to the proposed bridge hours. We are quite certain the other corporations involved would be wise to act in the same spirit. If they do the great central Chicago business district and our millions of motorists can be given relief from the bridge nuisance in time for the season of heaviest traffic.

GAS IN PEACE AND WAR.

An uprising of 1,200 prisoners in the Missouri penitentiary was put down with tear gas bombs. Tear gas is in frequent and growing use by police in the United States. It has saved many lives. When a killer makes a house or room a fortress the price of subduing him by the old means is too high. Tear gas solves the problem without sacrifice or with the least sacrifice of life. Its use in riots, especially where they take place in enclosed places, has been very useful, as it permits a comparatively small body of peace officers to subdue large numbers without resorting to deadly weapons.

There is irony in the observation of this humane and sensible use of tear gas when we consider that if our professional humanitarians were to have their way tear gas could not be used in war. At Geneva, in 1925, chiefly through the effort of our representative, former Senator Burton, a protocol was adopted prohibiting "the use in war of asphyxiating, poisonous, or other gases and of all analogous liquids, materials, or devices." Last year the subject was much discussed in the league of nations and it was pointed out that the United States, whose delegation had been chiefly instrumental in getting the anti-gas protocol adopted, had not yet ratified it.

The situation is one with which we are growing familiar. We send delegations abroad which do not represent the convictions or reasoned opinion of the nation. They represent or are influenced by minorities or "groups." In this case there had been inadequate discussion of the question of gas. There was a very uncritical sentiment based on exaggerated reports of the terrors of gas warfare, and if a referendum had been held in 1925 the protocol would have been approved in congress and by the nation. But since then the objections have been heard. Distinguished scientists have discussed the possibilities and physical realities of gas warfare and deflated its terrors. The difficulties of imposing a prohibition have been emphasized. The protocol therefore appears in a very different light than when it was passed.

There probably will be further attempts to induce the senate to ratify it, but they will be weaker. Meanwhile, all the leading nations are studying the use of chemicals in warfare and making every practicable preparation to use them. It is to be hoped our government will not fall behind in this field of preparedness.

Editorial of the Day

[Outlook and Independent.]

Of one thing we may be sure: future historians who study the prohibition experiment during these two decades will be struck by the amazing lack of logic and astonishing temporary success of those churchmen who, because they worked politically for prohibition, succeeded in identifying it in the minds of their followers with the religion of Christ—to the vast detriment of the Christian churches so affected.

Certainly, if the ordinary person learns anything in Sunday school about Christian character and conduct, he learns that genuine goodness comes from the inside out—not from the outside in. No man will ever enter the kingdom of heaven through enforcing upon others his own personal rules of conduct. He must achieve the kingdom of God in himself. Temperance as a virtue is a personal matter, considered in connection with the Christian faith.

Prohibition, on the other hand, is a political method of dealing with the use of liquor; one which attempts, mistakenly, to legislate it out of existence. Properly speaking, it has nothing whatever to do with religion, if we except the Mohammedan faith. It belongs in the political realm of legislative experiments to improve society.

Total abstinence, it is true, may be a matter of personal conviction, and for those who hold it an excellent principle. But the instant it ceases to be the individual's means of achieving Christian character and becomes a rule of moral conduct which that individual spends his time enforcing upon others—in that instant it becomes opposed to the basic principles of Christ's teaching.

That this is not merely a matter of theory is evidenced by the number of liberal minded people who are being alienated from the Christian churches by political religious leaders who are exhibiting all the bigotry, intolerance, and tyranny which are associated with the enemies of Jesus.

ON HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE.

WHAT a person with high blood pressure should do to maintain himself in comfort, to prevent involvement of his kidneys and retina, and to ward off apoplexy, depends on his body build and some other considerations. Dr. A. H. Douthwaite says women are apt to develop high blood pressure about the time of change of life. The women of this group tend to put on fat, to lose hair, and to run a subnormal temperature. This type of high blood pressure he calls menopausal. He advises that persons with this type of disorder, not all of whom are women, should be given small doses of thyroid under their physician's direction.

In the next group are the short, thick necked, rather stout people who develop high blood pressure when beyond forty years of age. Most of these are men, though women make up a part of the group. The members of this group are apt to develop apoplexy and die suddenly. These people should avoid alcoholic beverages beyond all else. That is the group that gets most good from reforming their habits. They are apt to be rather gluttonous. They should avoid big meals and gorges and all forms of dietary excess. They should reduce weight. It is this group who are most benefited by diet.

The third group is composed of lean, very nervous people, rather given to worry and other emotional manifestations. They are apt to be constipated and many of them are sallow. Among the earlier symptoms of high blood pressure, which call for further investigation are: Headaches returning to persons who once were subject to them but who have been free for years; persons having headaches for the first time after reaching forty years of age; shortness of breath; giddiness; vertigo; head noises; irregular heart action; loss of memory; and hemorrhages from the nose or into the eyes. High blood pressure is apt to develop in this lean group at earlier ages than in the others. This is the worry group. The measure which does them most good is practicing emotional calm and avoiding worry, anger, and emotional storms. They must learn to go slow and to take things quietly. Dieting is not of major importance with them. However, it is best to overcome constipation by diet when that can be done.

It is a mistake to send people to bed for high blood pressure, at least for a longer period than two or three days. Persons with high blood pressure, whatever type, should not eat eggs. The same proscription applies to eating liver and brains. Meats can be eaten in moderation at least every other day by persons with high blood pressure.

PROBABLY COLD NETTLERASH.

R. H. F. writes: Please tell me what to do for my skin. Every time I take a bath I break out with a rash; even when I wash my face and neck I break out like I had the measles. When I scratch welts appear.

REPLY.

My guess is that you have been sensitized to cold and this is a species of nettlerash caused by cold. If so it is unimportant, except as it is inconvenient. If necessary you can use cold creams instead of water. Perhaps changing the temperature of the water may help you.

ORANGES AND GRAPEFRUIT.

T. P. P. writes: I am much interested in your recent remarks as to the effects of drinking orange juice in generous quantities, and would like to have you state whether the juice of grapefruit has similar effects. If it has, I should be interested to know how it compares with orange juice, if such a comparison is available.

REPLY.

Probably grapefruit ranks well up with orange juice, but I know of no comparative tests of it. This subject is new and few foods have been tested by the new standard.

GALL STONES AND EGG DIET.

K. C. S. writes: Is it true that one having gall stones should not eat eggs?

REPLY.

I think it is, though I could not prove it.

CITIZENSHIP PROBLEM.

Chicago, March 27.—[Friend of the People.]—My uncle, separated from his wife and son, came over here from Germany about fourteen years ago. Because the European courts had not awarded him his son at the time, he answered "no" to the question "Have you any children?" when applying for his naturalization papers. Is the boy, who later joined his father here, a citizen? D. B.

The question submitted cannot be answered without full particulars. It is suggested that the boy referred to be requested to call at this office, 776 postoffice building.

FRED J. SCHLOTTFELDT,
District director of naturalization.

GAMBLING.

Chicago, March 29.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—Is there any sort of gambling that does not take the form of a contract, express or implied, between two or more persons? E. D. M.

All forms of gambling contracts are illegal, although there are forms of gambling which may not be contracts.

PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX.

Chicago, March 28.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—In March, 1929, I moved to a farm outside of Chicago. In September of the same year I moved back to Chicago. Just received a personal property tax statement. Please advise me if I must pay this, in view of the fact that I remained there six months. X. Y.

The community in which you reside at the time the tax is levied has the right to tax all of your personal property.

NOTICE UNNECESSARY.

Chicago, March 29.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—How many months in advance before a lease terminates must a tenant notify the landlord that he is moving? E. H.

Section 12 of the landlord and tenant act provides "when the tenancy is for a certain period and the term expires by the terms of the lease the tenant is then bound to surrender possession and no notice to quit or demand of possession is necessary."

AH! WHAT A LOVELY WORLD!

Gosh! We never knew we had so many friends; a colyum conductor usually hasn't any. But now our mail is full of letters which say how much the writer esteems us, how he has always esteemed us, and he hopes the folks are all well, and what a potent influence we are in the Republican party, and what a whizzbang we've always been as an original dyed-in-the-wool Jeffersonian Democrat, and some day he hopes that he and us will get together and have a nice long chat. All of which would be very soothing and make us feel life was indeed worth living—except—somehow—we wonder—if the fact that they want us to vote for them in the primaries next Tuesday has anything to do with it. But—tut, tut—certainly not. It is only another example of sterling worth being finally recognized. Oh, absolutely!

TALK TO ENGLAND.

(Placard in a continental postoffice.)

When I talk to England
It's as a lover talks,
Thinking of the hedges
Beside the lovers' walks:
Thinking of the hedges
Beside the roads that go
In and out among the farms
As lazy rivers flow.

When I talk to England
I talk with all my might;
Joy comes with every heartbeat,
Joy gives a keener sight.
There's not a bird that sings but has
A partnership with me;
They tell of secrets of the land,
They flash from every tree.

When I talk to England
There comes a hush in space,
As though the world were listening
To the world's first words of grace:
For it's all an act of blessing,
It's all an act of love—
With England all about me,
Within me, and above.

MASSMEETING OF THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE cheering the results of straw vote taken by the Lit Digest. Oh, it was a grand meeting, and you can see from the photograph how pleased everybody was. The chairman is just reading: "Evanston, Ill., 589 for enforcement of the 18th amendment, 490 for modification, 729 for repeal." At this point the drys threw their hats in the air and jumped up and down with joy. LY KELL PHOTO.

FLORIDA says it won't have Mr. Alfonse Capone, and these United States says that Citizen Capone has a right to go to his home in Florida if he wishes to. It may take the marines, four battleships, and several regiments of the army to escort Citizen Capone into Florida, and we rather regret that some of the money we paid in taxes to the government will be used to escort Mr. Capone home. Well, we'll stand for it; we're patient and long suffering and we'll stand for anything, but might we ask that none of our money go for roses to strew in Mr. Capone's path or to pay for the gold headed walking stick or handsome wrist watch, whichever the government may decide to present Mr. Capone when he arrives at his Miami palace? We'll stand for everything, but there are just a few little trifles now and then that give us a pain in the neck.

IT IS SIMPLY AMAZING to us to learn that Iowa has a population of 2,422,915. Not only amazing but astounding! When Sen. Tydings expressed his horror in the upper house that the dry law had cost 1,365 killings Sen. Brookhart of Iowa said, "1,365 is a mighty small number to be howling about in the enforcement of the greatest moral reform in the country's history!" Yessir, it's simply amazing to think that Iowa has 2,422,915 people to choose from and they pick out Mr. Brookhart for senator.

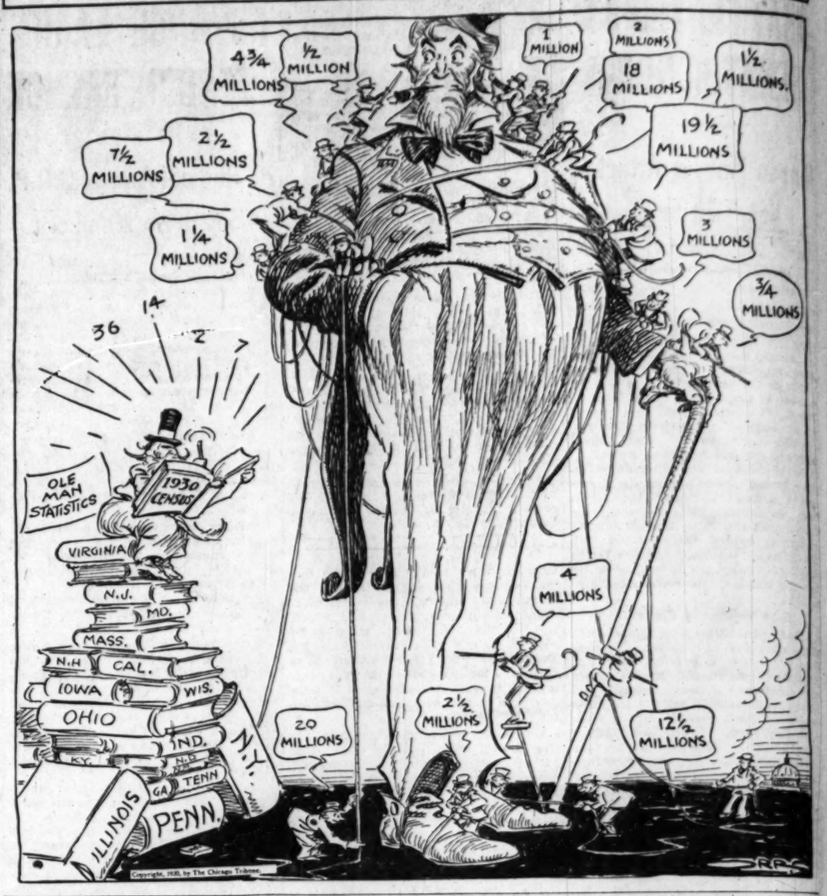
THIS TIME we're going to play safe. It was a beautiful day yesterday, the sky was a rich blue, the sun shone brightly, the dear little birds sang overhead, the snow was almost gone, and the grass of a bewildering green was peeping shyly from the ground. So may we not merely remark in passing that the police say, and also it is alleged, and likewise several bystanders who refused to give their names, and from a man in a high official position who cannot be quoted, and some of the neighbors declare—that spring is here? But for pity's sake don't say we told you. R. H. L.

TAKING HIS MEASUREMENTS



FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

APRIL 3, 1865.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Dispatches from President Lincoln at City Point announce the triumphant success of our arms after three days' hard fighting. On April 1 Sheridan, aided by Warren, had at 2 p. m. pushed the enemy back so as to retake Five Forks. The Five Forks, barricaded by the enemy, was carried by Devlin's division of cavalry. A dispatch from Lieut. Gen. Grant, dated April 2, 5:30 a. m., states that Sheridan has carried everything before him. He captured three brigades of infantry, a wagon train and several batteries of artillery. The prisoners will amount to several thousand. At 11 a. m., April 2, the President telegraphed: "All is going on finely. Generals Parke, Wright, and Ord's lines are extending from the Appomattox to Hatcher's Run. They have all broken through the enemy's entrenched lines, taking some forts, guns, and prisoners. Sheridan with his own cavalry, the 5th corps and part of the 2d, is coming in from the west on the enemy's flank, and Wright is already tearing up the South Side railroad."

The latest dispatch from Mr. Lincoln, 8:30 p. m., says: "At 4:30 p. m. Gen. Grant telegraphs as follows: 'We are now up and have a continuous line of troops, and in a few hours will be entrenched from the Appomattox below Petersburg to the river above. The whole captures since the army started out will not amount to less than 12,000 men and probably 59 pieces of artillery. All seems well with us and everything is quiet just now.' A. LINCOLN."

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Mrs. Lincoln returned from the army, leaving the President there to enter Richmond, as Gen. Grant has promised that he shall, within the next 48 hours.

NEW YORK.—The Richmond Sentinel of March 30 says the advance of Thomas' army is said to have been at Carter's, 20 miles east of Bristol, on the 26th, but it was reported in Lynchburg on the 27th that he was falling back toward Greenville.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

APRIL 3, 1900.

CHICAGO.—This is aldermanic election day and 36 aldermen will be chosen to represent the voters in the city council. There are 101 candidates from which to choose.

NEW YORK.—The General Electric Company of New York has secured control of the Siemens & Halske Electric Company of America, the stock of the latter having been bought by individual stockholders in the General Electric.

CHICAGO.—Silas B. Cobb, whose residence in Chicago has been longer than the oldest building now standing in the city and who through six decades of his life was connected prominently with the important business interests of the city, lies at the point of death at the home of his son-in-law, William B. Walker, 2027 Prairie avenue. Mr. Cobb celebrated his 88th birthday on Jan. 23 last.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

APRIL 3, 1920.

CHICAGO.—This city's labor war broke loose again when a high explosive bomb wrecked the home of Hugh Lynch, 3453 South Ashland avenue. Lynch was a "pal" of Moss Enright and was ousted by Mike Carozzo as president of Tim Murphy's street sweepers' union. Since then he has been fighting Murphy for control of the sweepers.

CHICAGO.—John Cullerton, manager of properties of the Chicago fire department, refused to accept the resignations of 1,664 firemen shoved at him in a batch, as a result of the wage controversy, and a possibility of a walkout began to evaporate. The controversy will be placed before Mayor Thompson for arbitration of some sort or another today.

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay.—Washington Beltran, editor of the newspaper El Pais, was shot and killed in a duel by José Batlle y Ordonez, former president of Uruguay.

CHICAGO.—George A. Yuille, associate of the late Charles T. Yerkes and identified with gas and traction interests of Chicago for many years, died in St. Paul, Minn., at the age of 58.

WET ILLINOIS IN THE SENATE.

Chicago, April 1.—According to figures published in your issue of March 29, the referendum vote taken on Nov. 7, 1922, gave a wet majority of 553,131, and in 1926 the wet majority was 284,039. Still, in view of the above returns, Senator Deneen, instead of carrying out the wishes of the majority of the voters he represents, has taken it upon himself on all occasions to vote with the dry element in the United States senate. Is this because of the fact he believes he is more intelligent than the voters he represents or is it due to the fact that he feels he is not obliged to carry out the wishes of the majority?

Should a referendum vote be taken again in the state of Illinois, and should the majority vote be in favor of the wets, will Mr. Deneen state at this time and before the primaries of April 8, if he will abide by the decision of the majority?

I would also like to ask Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, if elected United States senator, will she vote dry in view of the fact the people of the state have expressed themselves as being opposed to the present prohibition act, or will she in voting on the question carry out the wishes of the majority?

M. J. KANE.

ANY TAKERS!

Chicago, April 1.—I am willing to vote for any candidate who, after the primary, will have the decency to remove his advertising from our unkempt, untidy streets. Do I hear promises? Not one. JEAN MARGARET HAMBLY.

A PROTEST FROM THE WEATHER BUREAU.

Chicago, March 29.—The editorial, "Fair and Warmer," in today's issue of THE TRIBUNE is so manifestly unfair and unjust that, as the responsible head of the Chicago office of the weather bureau, I feel impelled to protest. Apparently the writer has, in his appraisal of the forecasts, fallen into the same error that others have. That is to say, he has been "counting the misses and forgetting the hits." The facts are, as any one who has kept an accurate record knows, that the forecasts made for Chicago are substantially correct in the great majority of cases.

It seems to me that an apology of some kind is due this office in this matter.

C. A. DONNEL,
Principal Meteorologist.

THE L. V. I.

Hamilton, Ill., April 1.—Who is this Legislative Voters' league? There is no doubt that such a list of recommendations as appeared in THE TRIBUNE last Sunday will influence public opinion. And so we who are interested in getting honest representatives in our legislature want to know who presumes to recommend among the candidates. We are not objecting to the principle that the voters need to be informed. We are only trying to find out whether those who propose to do the informing are honest themselves and competent to judge. JAMES GARRETSON.

STATISTICS ON FLUNKING OUT.

Chicago, March 29.—In view of a recent publication of statistics of the academic record of the University of Illinois, showing more than 6 per cent of the total enrollment had been dropped from the university because of inability or lack of desire to maintain desired standards, it is interesting to review the figures of one of the great eastern endowed universities, Princeton.

As opposed to acceptance at the state university of all who present a satisfactory certificate from a secondary school, Princeton requires its applicants for admission to pass college board examinations, and a mere ability to pass these examinations does not necessarily qualify a student for admission. In addition to having demonstrated his ability to pass examinations, the applicant must show that he is of good character and habits and have some worth while qualifications as well as a mere academic knowledge.

The results of this selective type of admission seem to pretty clearly demonstrate that the system is well worth while, for it weeds out many who have no business going to college and saves many a heartache in the homes.

This year the undergraduate enrollment is about 2,235 students. The total number of failures, that is, young men dropped from college due to the February examinations, was only 32, divided as follows: Senior, 1; junior, 6; sophomore, 14; freshman, 11. This amounts to less than 1½ per cent, as against as excess of 6 per cent in the state university.

In addition to this excellent showing it is most interesting to see that 480 out of the 611 members of the freshman class passed in all subjects; of the remaining 131, 90 failed in only one subject and 30 in two. Of the 611 freshmen admitted in the September class, 50 were admitted on trial. These were men who for some reason or other had not fully qualified as to entrance examinations but who showed evidence that they could carry college work and were of the caliber that should go to college, so that the showing is all the more remarkable.

F. H. SCOTT.

MORE POWER AND PARALYSIS.

Chicago, March 26.—We can't approve your position in favor of "booze." We would like you better if you advocated a policy of punishment with severe long sentences at hard labor and solitary confinement for the people who manufacture and sell licit or illicit liquor, and a law compelling them to establish a sinking fund for the support of the widows and orphans they make.

You not only hit the nail on the head in today's editorial condemning our senators and congress men and women for their inactivity and utter neglect of our interests relating to the Chicago postoffice and the Illinois waterway project, but you do the voters a great service in presenting these matters at this very opportune time. More power to your pen on these two latter items. But may heaven paralyze your arm in any future attempts to favor booze.

OUR 65TH Anniversary

...JUST AN OLD FASHIONED SALE . . . PRESENTING NEWEST FASHIONS AT LOWEST PRICES

"TIME ROLLS HIS CEASELESS COURSE" . . .

—SIR WALTER SCOTT—(The Lady of the Lake . . . CANTO III)

STARTING next Saturday, April 5, we celebrate our 65th Anniversary, with "Just an Old-Fashioned Sale —Presenting Newest Fashions at Lowest Prices." To us and to every home-loving person in Chicago and vicinity, this event will have historic significance. For in commemorating the founding of the first Hartman store in Baltimore in 1865, we have planned a value-giving Sale that we sincerely believe surpasses anything ever before attempted in furniture and home furnishings. It will be a truly GALA EVENT—a series of ONE-DAY-ONLY SALES—celebrated at all Hartman stores throughout the nation.

Thursday and Friday are COURTESY DAYS, set aside for new and old Hartman customers, in which they may take advantage of sale prices in advance, and shop at their leisure. All Sale items are tagged and marked with sale prices. Purchases will be held for future delivery, if desired.

TWENTY-FIVE years ago we coined a phrase—"Let Hartman's Feather Your Nest," which became a household "byword" in thousands of American homes. In later years, somehow this phrase was lost—dropped. But now, on the occasion of our 65th Anniversary, this simple, "homey" phrase comes again to our mind, tossed there by a new tide of feeling—

"Let Hartman's Feather Your Nest!" . . .

For all over America, there is spreading a great wave of appreciation of beauty in the home. More and more the American family is making the HOME the great object in life. In recent years, the American woman has set for herself a NEW standard of excellence and has come to seek the things that will make her home FINER, more COMFORTABLE, more RESTFUL and MORE LIVABLE. Hartman's is helping her.

From the far-flung markets of the world, Hartman's expert staff of stylists and buyers here and abroad bring to the home-maker furniture and home furnishings of rare charm and distinction—so that now every woman, rich or poor, may select within her price range those pieces that will beautify her home. For Hartman furniture is STYLED furniture. It is fashioned for the beauty of today and the pride of tomorrow.

This Sale climaxes 65 years of selling fine furniture. During that time Hartman's have grown to be the World's Largest Furniture Retailers, with 56 stores in 35 cities. Over 250,000 families enjoy the convenience of a Hartman charge account, which enables you to pay for your purchases in 1 to 18 months, at your convenience. We are deeply appreciative of the privilege of serving such a vast number of homes, and they, in turn, can attest to the fact that the name HARTMAN'S is synonymous with good furniture and fair dealing. So MANY families can't be wrong!

65 YEARS ago, when Martin L. Straus, Senior, founded this company at Baltimore, he decided to sell, not merely furniture, but GOOD FURNITURE. That policy was built into the foundation stones of the Hartman Corporation, and has remained rigidly intact through three generations.

Hartman's realize that furniture makes the HOME . . . and that the home molds character. We realize that people must live, day after day, and year after year, WITH their furniture, and that it influences their lives. So we accept our responsibility as the World's Largest Furniture Retailers, and refuse to sell anything but GOOD FURNITURE.

Balk at Telling Values.

Supervisor John R. Malmquist of the Northwest side office learned from his enumerators that some of those questioned were balking at telling the valuation of their homes.

Householders who owned an interest in duplex or two apartment houses were at a loss as to how to record the value of their home, since each family resident there had a half interest in the building. This was finally resolved by splitting the value of the property between the families.

Other difficulties arose when persons born in other countries had forgotten the place of their birth.

Supervisor R. L. Goodman, whose district includes Wards 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, and 50—and thus both the Gold Coast and "Little Hell"—had a somewhat different problem.

A Task for the Discreet.

"My principal trouble," he said, "is in selecting enumerators who won't be too curious when they visit the mansions on Lake Shore drive. While all those hired know that they cannot reveal any of the facts they learn under pain of being sent to prison, I'm afraid they might be overwhelmed by the magnificence they behold and find an irresistible urge to talk about it. Therefore, the 100 or more enumerators who will cover the Gold Coast are being selected from all over the district and warned especially to be discreet."

On the south side Supervisor Daniel A. McGillvray reported little trouble.

Get Employment Figures.

An indication of the employment situation was found in a survey of families in the Twenty-ninth ward, in a district which Mr. Vesely described as peopled with "middle class" families. Of 180 family heads questioned only five were found to be out of work.

In some instances, while collecting unemployment statistics, the census takers found that men retired from active business insisted upon being carried as "out of work." "Some insist upon it," said Mr. Malmquist, "even when they admit they left their business years ago."

One bit of comic relief was afforded Mr. Vesely's office at the close of the day. From an anxious woman came this telephoned plea:

"Please send that enumerator right back to my house. I told her that I was three years older than I really am and I do want that corrected."

In Mr. Vesely's district a number of the women eumerators reported by telephone as early as 11:30 a. m. that they had completed their first 100 names, indicating the good progress of the count, he said. Today the enumerators will be called to their headquarters and their tally sheets examined.

HOOVER SEES CENSUS MAN

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 2.—[Special.]—Census takers enumerated the occupants of the White House today as 100,000 government employes in all sections of the country buckled down to the task of determining the population of the United States for the 1930 decennial census.

And scarcely had the task of recording data about the first family been completed, when reports were received from several small communities scattered about the nation, stating that they had finished their enumerating.

Fills Out Answers Personally.

President Hoover personally filled out the answers to the scores of questions recorded in the questionnaire and handed his schedule to J. Sterling Moran, census supervisor for the district.

In submitting his schedule the President stressed the necessity of full cooperation on the part of the public if the census figures obtained are to be of value. He termed the census "the great stock taking of American progress."

Has Answers Prepared.

"Sir," said Mr. Moran, "I am the federal census taker for this district, and I have come to enumerate the occupants."

"Good," replied Mr. Hoover. "I have secured a family schedule which I have filled out in advance and it is ready for you. Here it is."

"Everything in this schedule is confidential," Mr. Moran said, thanking the President.

"It is well for the American people to know that the census is confidential," Mr. Hoover replied.

The President then remarked, indicating newspaper men and camera operators, that there seemed to be "no secrecy about this."

Later some of the President's answers to questions were made available to reporters.

Neither Owned Nor Rented.

The question, "home owned or rented?" was answered "occupied" for the White House and did not apply to the residence Mr. Hoover owns on S street here. The President gave his age as 54 years. The answer to this question filed for Mrs. Hoover was not made public.

Further in the record the President answered that he was married at 25, that he could read and write, that he was born in West Branch, Ia., and Mrs. Hoover in Iowa; that his father was born in Miami county, Ohio, and his mother in Ontario province, Canada, and Mrs. Hoover's mother and father in Wooster, O.

First District Completed.

Missouri, New Jersey and Idaho contested for the honor of having completed the first district in the census. Centertown, Cole county, Mo., which takes its name from the fact that it is the exact geographical center of the state, telegraphed its claim to being the first town to complete the task, to census headquarters here. Contesting that honor was Kootenai county, Idaho, which reported the enumeration there completed at 9:30 a. m. Morris township, Morris county, N. J., finished early in the afternoon.

City Auto Taxes for Three Months Higher Than in '29

City Collector Eller reported yesterday that his office has collected $4,469,128 for city vehicle tags in the first three months of 1930, an increase of $311,753 over the receipts of $4,157,375 for the corresponding period of 1929. City tags for passenger automobiles of 35 horse power or less were taken out by 317,639 motorists and 10,271 for more than 35 horse power.

Gets the 3 Best Things in Life

When all a girl needs is a clear, smooth skin, plenty of energy and a stomach which does not deprive her of the cake, candy and good food she wants, just keep down the excessive stomach acids, like pretty Lillian Utley, 921 Eastwood Ave., Chicago, does.

"I got the surprise of my life when I started taking Acidine," says Miss Utley. "Whenever I ate anything rich my stomach got so acid I'd have headaches and get sick. That's all over now. Acidine sweetens my stomach so easily I never have to worry. It tastes fine. I like it."

Sick, sour stomach, burning sensation in the throat, excessive thirst, skin rash, come from too much acid when the stomach doesn't digest the starchy food and sweets you eat. Get a package of Acidine at any drug store and see how quick, pleasant and inexpensive it is.

DUNHAM'S COW PASTURE MAY BE APARTMENT SITE

Plan Sale, Improvement of Famed Meadow.

John Dunham's noted cow pasture, which for years has been an anachronism in the heart of the fashionable Hyde Park residential district, soon is to be the site of a $10,000,000 apartment building development if negotiations now in progress for the sale of the property by the Dunham heirs to a New York syndicate are concluded successfully.

News of the transaction was disclosed yesterday by David Snyder, an attorney. Although loath to discuss the matter, James J. Carroll of Carroll, Schendorf & Boenicke, south side real estate firm, who is in charge of the negotiations, confirmed the report of the deal.

The Dunham property consists of ten acres in the blocks bounded by 49th and 50th streets and Dorchester and Kimbark avenues. When Dunham, a pioneer Chicago banker, died in 1893 his will provided that the pasture and other real estate holdings could not be disposed of until after the death of his immediate heirs. The death of his daughter, Miss Mary Virginia—the last of his children—in February, 1928, opened the way for the sale of the land.

Plan Separate Buildings.

Mr. Carroll declined to disclose the members of the New York syndicate. However, it is stated that present plans call for the project to be developed in three steps. The first would be a $3,000,000 apartment house.

All of the buildings are to be separate so as to allow for light and air. Part of the ground is to be used for gardens and playgrounds. It is proposed that the various units go to the full building height permitted by the zoning ordinance. Flats will vary from one and two room units to de luxe apartments of ten or more rooms.

The Dunham property, since the death of Miss Dunham, has been sought by various realty groups for development. It is located just west of the Illinois Central and but a few blocks west of the lands being reclaimed from the lake for the south park system.

Miss Dunham, who was about 80 years old when she died, willed the property to church and charity interests and to relatives. Included in the heirs are Mrs. Levanche Hawes Boyd, Mrs. Fanny V. Hawes Shaw, John Hawes Chivers, and Helen Virginia, John D., and Stephen C. Hawes. At the time of Miss Dunham's death the pasture ground was valued at $1,500,000.

Becomes City Farm.

For years the property was used as a cow pasture and a small garden. Caretakers daily took milk, flowers, and vegetables produced on this city farm to Miss Dunham, who lived in the old fashioned three story residence which stood on Michigan avenue, south of and adjoining the Congress hotel. Abraham Lincoln, when a young lawyer, is reputed to have once sought shelter from the rain in one of two dilapidated barns that long stood on the Dunham farm.

After Miss Dunham's death the property was leased for five years to the Hyde Park Racquet club to be used for tennis courts. The lease has three years to go, but the club is said to be a party to the proposed sale.

CONFER NEXT WEEK ON PLANS FOR NEW CHICAGO POSTOFFICE

Washington, D. C., April 2.—[Special.]—A conference of architects and government officials that may have an important bearing on the date when the new postoffice at Chicago can be started will be held here next Monday or Tuesday. A representative of Graham, Anderson, Probst & White, the Chicago architects, will discuss the plans they have prepared with postoffice and treasury officials.

John W. Philip, fourth assistant postmaster general, has been making a restudy of the postoffice plans for the last week and it is expected he will report to the postmaster general before the meeting. Postoffice officials have asked for certain alterations in the preliminary building plans submitted some time ago. Whether Postmaster General Brown will insist on a still further revision of the plans probably will be made known at the conference.

BUILDING WAGES DROP AS JOBLESS GO HUNTING WORK

BY THOMAS WREN.

Unemployment among Chicago building trades mechanics and laborers has automatically set the law of supply and demand for labor in action, according to building experts. It was reported yesterday that a large percentage of the men now employed in the construction industry here receive less than the wage scales specified by union agreement.

The reports vary, but, with the large labor surplus seeking employment, building contractors are said to be receiving applications of tradesmen willing to work at $1 and $1.25 an hour. The average basic wage is $1.62½, while several trades—bricklayers, electricians, lathers, plasterers, steamfitters, and plumbers—get $1.70 an hour.

Builders say the wage scales of the building trades are lopsided in comparison with the wages received by the white collar class. They point out that the wages of these trades have been raised at intervals since 1920, with the result that labor costs now constitute 60 per cent of actual construction costs.

Hope for Relief Soon.

There are approximately 110,000 building tradesmen and laborers in the city, according to contractors' estimates. Builders are optimistic that Chicago's spring construction program will relieve some of the unemployment among the 75,000 men who are without jobs. Many of them have not been employed in the last twelve months. Among the artisans occupying what are termed the "mourners' benches" in the various union headquarters are men who are said to be some of the most efficient in their crafts.

Many of these are men of family and during the rush of building of the last seven years they spent their earnings freely in maintaining their homes.

Among those most severly affected by the recent building decline were the painters. The wage scale of this craft was recently raised from $1.62½ to $1.75 an hour. It is reported that about 5,000 of the union's 16,000 members are employed. Immediately after the raise became effective several large loop buildings discharged their maintenance crews of painters and let the work to contractors.

Representatives of the lathers say that about 200 of that union's 2,500 members are employed, and the reports from other trades are that the same ratio runs along the line for bricklayers, carpenters, electricians, and plumbers.

Ironworkers' Situation.

Joseph Corr, business agent of the Bridge and Structural Ironworkers' union, announced that 500 of the union's 2,400 members are employed. This trade halted millions of dollars' worth of Chicago building last year, when it succeeded in obtaining a raise from $1.50 to $1.62½ an hour. This year the spokesmen for the organization have demanded another wage increase to $1.75 an hour.

Officials of the Iron league have rejected the demands of the ironworkers and have urged the union to codperate with the general program launched by the Building Construction Employers' association to stimulate construction.

The Chicago department of health reports a decrease of 87.3 per cent in the number of new family accommodations provided during the first three months of this year, as compared with the same period of 1929. The statistics are based upon the building plans submitted to the health department for approval and show a total of 5,424 new family accommodations in the first quarter of 1929, as compared with 691 in 1930, a decrease of 4,733.

Spring Temperatures are hard on the furnace man

When outside temperatures run gaily up and down the scale—without advance warnings—the unfortunate Furnace Man, amateur or professional, needs to be both a prophet and a miracle-man to keep his fire right. No wonder spring is the season for colds in so many households!

Automatic Gas Heating, the Bryant way, overcomes all that. There's no overheating the house one minute and being chilled to the bone an hour later. As rapidly as the weather changes outside, a Bryant automatically adjusts itself to the change and continues to hold the temperature inside of the house constant within a single, thermometer-measured degree. No wonder a Bryant-heated house is a more healthful place to live!

For steam, vapor, hot water or warm air systems, in old houses or new residences, large and small.

Any office listed on this page can arrange to give you a completely dependable, advance estimate of the cost of installation and operation, based on a heating survey of your house (or house plans) by a qualified gas-heating engineer.

A survey made now will place you under no obligation but will enable you to make the change over to gas-heating at the time most convenient for you, now or later. Remember—there's no obligation on your part.

BRYANT GAS HEATING

Furthermore, Bryant Heating brings no dirt into the house and creates none. A single match is your winter's kindling. There's no ordering of fuel, no keeping your eye on your fuel supply, and no paying for fuel until you have used it and enjoyed its benefits. Trips to the furnace room are timed by the calendar, not by the clock. A Bryant heating plant has no delicate parts nor revolving mechanisms to wear out or grow noisier with age—it is just as permanent an investment as your house itself.

And—best of all—it is so utterly dependable and automatic in action that, as thousands of Bryant owners in Chicago and its suburbs will gladly testify, you can "let your pup be your Furnace Man."

AUSTRALIA DROPS MILITARY DRAFT AND CUTS ARMY

Commonwealth Sees Long Era of Peace Ahead.

BY CHARLES DAILEY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

CANBERRA, Australia, April 2.—According to Albert E. Green, minister for defense of the Australian Labor government, the day of conscription has passed except in event of a possible war with an outside nation, and this is deemed an impossibility for many years. The army was reduced recently from 47,000 to a volunteer force of 35,000, and constructed on a skeleton system capable of expansion to 180,000.

The Australian West Point will be maintained on a reduced scale. The Australian military college at Duntroon will be the only real military center, and it may be combined with the naval college. As for the naval college at Jarvis Bay, which has been separately maintained by the commonwealth, the expense there has been reduced to the extent that there will be only ten new cadets a year as compared with the previous thirty.

Heavy Cost Is Reduced.

"Since 1921, the number of training centers has been gradually reduced," Mr. Green said, "because of the heavy cost, and the training has been confined to the more largely populated areas. The saving to the commonwealth will be great and the chief idea is to train enough officers so the army can be expanded to 180,000 men in the event of an emergency. This total number was provided for before, but we did not have in readiness the officers that would be required.

"Australia is not concerned in the Singapore naval base, as it has maintained its own naval unit and in return was not asked by the empire to share its cost. We hope that the empire's expense will be greatly lessened if the size of capital ships is reduced under the Hoover-MacDonald program."

Militia Confined to Big Centers.

At present the strength of the militia is confined to the largely populated states of New South Wales and Victoria, of which Sydney and Melbourne, the chief seaports of Australia, are the respective capitals. It may be pointed out that the population of all Australia is around 6,000,000, of which 3,000,000 are concentrated in New South Wales, and 1,000,000 are crowded into Sydney and its suburbs. Another million are in the Melbourne area.

Brig. Gen. C. A. Brand of the militia is now visiting the principal cities addressing various public bodies to solicit the good will and co-operation of all who can make the new militia yield the maximum efficiency.

"Leaders cannot be trained when war bursts upon us," he said, "but this must be done in peace time."

INDIAN "LILA" SO ILL MISTRIAL IS CALLED IN CASE

Buffalo, N. Y., April 2.—(AP)—The trial of Lila Jimmerson, Indian woman, collapsed today. The illness of "Red Lilac," accused of complicity in the slaying of Clothilde Marchand, brought a halt to the attempt of the state to convict her of murder, first degree.

Judge F. Bret Thorn, informed that the prisoner could not be removed from a hospital at this time, ordered the jury dismissed and declared a mistrial.

District Attorney Guy B. Moore, immediately arose to ask Judge Thorn if on the basis of evidence given at the trial, he believed the names of Henri Marchand, husband of the dead woman; Anson Jimmerson, Lila's father, or Ann Snow, the aged Cayuga aunt of the defendant should be presented to the grand jury for possible complicity in the case.

Judge Thorn replied:

"So far as any evidence I have heard in this court or anywhere I do not believe the district attorney would be warranted in returning an indictment."

Hertz Plane Flies 800 Miles Trinidad to Porto Rico

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, April 2.—John D. Hertz's air taxi Three Johns came in this afternoon from Trinidad, registering about 800 for the day's mileage and making a total of 3,300 since the Hertz family started on March 23 from Miami. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson H. Talbot of Dayton are guests of the Mr. and Mrs. Hertz on the trip. The return to Miami is scheduled for Monday.

Let's Have a "Peace Pact" for the Home!

We don't presume to suggest this as a cure-all for domestic ills, although it often is a help. But we are all for stopping the war between the furnishings of homes. After all, it's the age of the "entente cordiale" in everything—from costumes to complete homes.

The world has decided on harmony in everything—and in your home the chairs just can't call the sofa black—any more than the pot in a modern kitchen can insult the electric waffle iron. For today they go together, and even periods of furniture that never even saw each other meet in unexpected places and think nothing of it—for they're in complete harmony!

It's this harmony that alert Chicagoans find at Mandel's—for we've made it easy to assemble the furnishings for your home in one harmonious whole. It's the fashion—and the fashion is observed at Mandel's, for Mandel's is

WHITE SOX WIN, 9-3; SCORE 8 RUNS IN NINTH

BUSH'S VERBAL LASHING SPURS HOSE TO ACTION

Belated Rally Routs Fort Worth.

Who's the Boss?

FORT WORTH, Tex., April 2.—[Special.]—Manager Donie Bush took his first disciplinary action tonight when he sent Pitcher George Connally away. He was told to go home and stay there until such time as he was willing to go to work.

"He came up this evening" Manager Bush said, "and got into an argument with Lou Barbour. He was not in the condition I expect my ball players to be. I told him to take his stuff and leave. I also told him he could not report back to the club until he is in condition to pitch and that he could get that way at his own expense."

Connally had expressed a desire to be sent to the Dallas club of the Texas league, where he worked last season. Bush spiked that desire by informing the player he would not be released to Dallas now or later. "If he can't keep in shape to do the Sox any good, I'll say where he will go," Bush said.

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Fort Worth, Tex., April 2.—Manager Donie Bush was running up and down in front of the White Sox bench this afternoon just before the start of the ninth inning, and his language was reported to be something terrible. For eight innings his hired hands had been held to three hits by Dick Whitworth of the Fort Worth Cats. The game seemed all set to take a 2 to 1 beating, but at the end they had won, 9 to 3, with eight of the runs acquired in the ninth.

J. Smead Jolley, first up in the ninth, who hadn't poked the ball out of the infield all day, didn't do it at this urgent moment. He was thrown out by the second baseman. Then up strode the Great Shires, elevated this day to the No. 5 spot in the batting order. Arthur lined a single to right. That event set off the fireworks.

Watwood Keeps Rally Going.

Now just read what happened immediately thereafter:

Watwood doubled to left and Shires rolled up at third. Kamm, whose homer had furnished the Sox with their only run, came to bat and grounded to Rabbit Tavener, erstwhile Detroit Tiger and Cleveland Indian. Rabbit was a bit startled by Shires' speed in a dash for home and threw the ball to the screen back of home, Shires scoring and Watwood stopping at third.

McCabe then relieved Whitworth. Reisler batted for Riddle and walked, filling the bases. Dave Harris, the water night marshal of Greensboro, N. C., shined up his star, which he always wears in emergency, and went up to bat for Welland. He tripled to left center, clearing the bases, and scored himself when Hunnefield singled to center.

Hunnefield took second on a passed ball, and Cissel walked. Reynolds singled to left, scoring Hunnefield and putting Cissel on third. Jolley came along with his first hit of the game, a grounder to center, scoring Cissell and Reynolds. Shires and Watwood obligingly popped to Tavener just as the groundkeeper was getting his fire hose out on the field.

Cats Score in Third.

The two runs with which the Texas leaguers seemed in a fair way to win the ball game were well earned. Whitworth opened the third inning by walking to Watwood, but Moore beat out a perfect bunt toward first. Urban flied to Reynolds, then Sullivan walked. Old Joe Bonewitz, who has been playing ball down here for years and years, leaned on Thomas' fast one for a double off the center field fence, scoring Moore and Sullivan, Cissell threw out Stebbins.

Thomas got out of a jam the last of the fifth. Whitworth singled to left and stopped at second when Moore singled to right. The pair moved up on Urban's sacrifice. Sullivan sent a hot grounder to Thomas, who threw to Hunnefield in time for Hunney to tag Moore off second. The inning ended when Bonewitz popped to Hunnefield.

Grady Adkins hurled the last of the ninth and held the Cats to one run, though he allowed two hits, a sacrifice fly, and committed a balk.

BLAKE TWIRLS FULL GAME AS CUBS WIN, 10-2

Ailing Heel Keeps Rajah Out of Angel Contest.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Los Angeles, Cal., April 2.—Just when it began to look as if a few unkind remarks might be necessary, the Cubs swung into action today with something resembling their true form. Led by Sheriff Blake, who pitched nine innings without showing any concern over the absence of various regulars, the major leaguers staged a concentrated attack that gave them a 10 to 2 exhibition victory over Los Angeles.

The Chicagoans' lineup was jumbled a bit more than usual because of the addition of Rogers Hornsby to the list of those unable to attend the daily training services. The right heel on which the Rajah has been limping most of the spring finally reached the point where activity on the diamond was no longer tolerable. Tomorrow he will consult a local doctor to determine whether anything can be done about it.

Ailing Since Last Summer.

Hornsby's heel ailment dates back to last summer, when he developed what he thought was a mere stone bruise. Despite the annoyance, he remained in every game, the sad world series included, but during the winter permitted surgeons to probe for the cause of the trouble. Several pieces of boney growth were removed, and the expectation was that nature in a brief time would restore the foot to normal.

Hornsby proceeded on this theory from the day training started. He worked daily, thinking that the tenderness occasioned by the operation would vanish. There were days when he couldn't put his weight on the heel without suffering, but he continued to believe what he had been told. Now he is convinced rest and possibly a little more display of surgical skill is the only solution. A few days on the bench may be sufficient to correct the defect.

English Returns to Lineup.

With Hornsby out of action, the Cubs now boast only one-quarter of their regular infield. The sole regular available is Woody English, who returned to short today after a week of idleness with a charley horse.

By way of showing their hitting prowess even with Hornsby out, the Cubs piled up seventeen hits today. Twelve of these were off Delaney, ex-major leaguer, in seven innings and the others off Holling.

TOM THUMB AND THE GIANT

Tod Sloane, world famous jockey, masters the most fractious thoroughbreds, but he'll leave that job to some one else if the mountainous Primo Carnera is to be tamed. Wee Tod and the burly Italian fighter are merely exchanging compliments, even though the tiny rider has pulled on the gloves. [Associated Press Photo.]

Gagnon Swamped with Offers— One for Bout with Carnera

New York, April 2.—[Special.]—Suddenly cast into the limelight by his six round knockout victory over Tuffy Griffith in Philadelphia Monday night, Jack Gagnon, the heavyweight from New England, is being swamped with offers—more numerous than he can accept. One of these is for a ten round bout with Primo Carnera, the giant Italian, at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, June 4.

It's a strange thing what one victory can do to a fighter. Before Gagnon stopped Griffith he couldn't readily get a fight anywhere. As a drawing card he wasn't worth a dime to New York promoters. But now he finds himself in the peculiar position of dickering with fellows who heretofore would not give him a thought and actually turning down offers that would have sounded like fakes a week ago.

Leon See, manager of Primo Carnera, is thinking seriously of sending the giant Italian out to Oklahoma City to tame a wild oil gusher. Mons. See has $30,000 in the company owning the well, and if they can stem the flow he figures he will be a millionaire before Primo starts fighting real fighters.

MISS VAN WIE IS BEATEN, 4 AND 2, BY MISS QUIER

Collett, Hicks and Orcutt Reach Semi-Finals.

Pinehurst, N. C., April 2.—(AP)—Playing a steady and exact game, Miss Edith Quier, youthful Reading, Pa., entry, stroked her day to the semi-finals of the north and south amateur golf tournament for women today by downing Miss Virginia Van Wie of Chicago, former national champion, 4 and 2.

Other favorites in the quarter finals came through, Miss Glenna Collett, national champion, beating Mrs. Leo Federman, New York; Miss Maureen Orcutt, New York, downing Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City, and Miss Helen Hicks of Hewlett, L. I., defeating Miss Louise Fordyce of Youngstown, O.

Miss Hicks Has Difficulty.

Miss Hicks found her task difficult, however, the match going 22 holes before it was decided.

Miss Collett was not extended to beat Mrs. Federman. The New Yorker shot sixes on the first four holes, to lose them in rapid succession, while Miss Collett was playing a steady game.

They came to the turn with Miss Collett 5 up, and although Mrs. Federman steadied on the last nine, Miss Collett was able to end things on the fifteenth, 4 up and 3 to play.

Orcutt vs. Collett.

The other match of the day found Miss Maureen Orcutt, New York, metropolitan champion, winning from Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City. Mrs. Hill had difficulty with her approach shots, but Miss Orcutt was smacking terrific drives and playing with the utmost confidence.

WYNNE RESIGNS AT CREIGHTON

Omaha, Neb., April 2.—Chet Wynne, head football and track coach at Creighton university since the fall of 1923 tonight announced his resignation, effective May 1.

Although Creighton officials have announced no successor to Wynne followers of the Bluejays' spring chores place special significance in the fact that Roger Kiley, who starred at end with Wynne at Notre Dame, has been assisting him for the past week. Kiley, who coached football at Loyola university for two seasons, is a practicing attorney in Chicago.

WALTER LAUFER.

Laufer and Crabbe Swim Off with N. A. A. U. Titles at Lake Shore

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Walter Laufer and Buster Crabbe won National A. A. U. championship swimming events last night at the Lake Shore Athletic club. Laufer, Lake Shore star, successfully defended his title in the 100 yard free style and the Honolulu swimmer took the 300 yard individual medley.

These events concluded the first day of the four day senior A. A. U. championships. However, last night's program included, in addition to exhibitions, two events for Cook county high school swimmers and the 50 yard free style women's junior Central A. A. U. championship.

Laufer took an early lead in the 100 yard free style and finished a yard ahead of George Fissler of the New York A. C. Weston Kimbal, Hollywood A. C., was third. Merton Wilcox and Arthur Highland of the Chicago Athletic association finished fourth and fifth, respectively. Laufer's time was 52 4-5 seconds, one second slower than his time last year.

Those who have said Buster Crabbe couldn't negotiate a 75 foot pool in championship style changed their minds after his victory in the medley. Crabbe had the advantage after covering 100 yards with the breast stroke, but Laufer caught up to swim a dead heat during the 100 yards back stroke. Then the free style hundred.

Fifty yards and still they were even, the remainder of the field trailing badly. But at the last turn Crabbe forged ahead and won by three yards. His time was 3 minutes and 41 seconds, a second slower than the record held by Walter Spence.

Maine Township High school's undefeated 200 yard relay team won in the Cook county competition. The team is composed of Bob Kerber, Walter Murphy, Cedric Barlow, and Merrill Pasco.

Northwestern swimmers have withdrawn from the championships, although it was reported last night that they might compete tomorrow and Saturday.

BY HARLAND ROHM.

The rebel yell was toned down a bit in the second day of the national interscholastic basketball championship yesterday at the University of Chicago, but though the band played Dixie slightly less blatantly, the southern teams still hold a big edge. With the tournament reduced to 16 teams, half of them come from the south, three from the central states, two from the Rocky mountain states, two from the southwest, and one from the east.

The lanky Hornets of Athens, Tex., national champions, made an impressive start in their drive toward another title when they stung Lankin, N. D., 35 to 11, in their first start. The big Texans, with only two of last year's team back, but with replacements fully as big as the 6 foot plus giants who won last year, blocked off their opponents from short shots and passed over the Dakota boys' heads to short baskets.

Corinth's Long Shots Win.

Two major surprises livened yesterday's program and two games were the kind which would deserve colmuns were they not buried in such a rush of hourly games. Corinth, Ky., unleashed a celuge of long shots on the big Chinock, Mont., team to win, 35 to 20.

The big team from the section of Montana that has the reputation of being the coldest spot in the United States, moved in to a 10 to 4 lead in the first quarter, but after that Corinth gave up trying to bore in and began shooting from beyond the defense. The result was just too bad, for Frank and Dave Lawrence and Roscoe Rogers couldn't miss.

That was one upset and the other came in the game between Robert E. Lee high school of Jacksonville, Fla., and the Y. M. C. A. Day school of Chicago. The southern boys were favored to win by ten points or more, but the Chicagoans overcame every handicap from lack of height to bad breaks in refereeing to beat the highly rated southerners, 29 to 26, in a game which ranked as one of the two thrillers of the day.

Iaculla Leads "Y" Team.

Point for point they battled, with little Pete Iaculla, "Y" floor guard, carrying the burden for the Chicagoans, and Smith, Florida's great center, who scored nine of his team's eleven baskets, keeping his quintet in the running. Ten times the score was tied or one team took a lead of a point on a basket.

The other thriller came at night when Linsly Military institute of Wheeling, W. Va., won from Spartansburg, S. C., 25 to 22, in a driving finish. Linsly led, 9 to 6, in the first quarter, but Spartansburg came back with a rush to lead, 13 to 11, at the half.

Starting the last eight minute quarter Linsly led, 20 to 16, and the last quarter was a battle. Linsly increased its lead to five points, but Spartansburg came back with a rush. Ferguson sinking a long shot and Baker another to leave them only a point behind. The free throw that would have tied the game hit the rim and rolled off, and in the last minute Capt. Moore of Linsly dribbled the length of the floor to tip the ball through the basket and give his team a three point lead and victory.

Morgan Park Outclassed.

Holloway, a slender floor guard, led Durham, N. C., to an easy victory over Morgan Park Military academy of Chicago, 27 to 16, and Holloway was the whole show. He escaped the Cadets' guarding time after time to drop the ball through the hoop. He scored seven baskets and three free throws, enough to win the game by himself.

Wisconsin, represented by St. John's Military academy of Delafield, turned loose a fast scoring pair of forwards to defeat a team from Casper, in the oil country of Wyoming. The Badger cadets won, 33 to 17, McDavitt and Williams each scoring five baskets.

HONESTY'S THE BEST POLICY—EVEN IN A MEXICAN SWEEPSTAKE

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

NEW YORK, April 2.—[Special.]—A few weeks ago, when the idle rich and other career men in the army of the unemployed and the ladies of the auxiliary services were engaged in winter maneuvers along the east coast of Florida, certain gentlemanly agents passed among them, selling tickets, or chances, as one of the witty lads called them, for the first annual Agua Caliente sweepstake. The price was $2 per copy, or $20 for a book of ten, and, as $2 just barely qualifies as money in the Florida rate of exchange in winter, business was quite brisk.

The chaps who were down there, giving conscientious attention to their winter and early spring drinking, were more than a trifle surprised to learn that there was still something that could be bought for $2 along that coast and this unique character gave the tickets, or chances, if one must make jokes, a certain value as curios. Myself, I did not buy any, as I figured that anything which sold for $2 in those parts probably was worth no more than $2, or, in round numbers, practically nothing.

However, a great many of the chaps viewed the proposition from another angle. They figured that in a country where the value of the $2 was practically negligible, they couldn't get much the worse of any $2 transaction, so, as I say, trade was quite active in the tickets for the first annual Agua Caliente sweepstake and the chaps around the horse track took up a large piece of the issue among them.

I am rather slow to learn what is going on, so it was not until some time later that I found out that other agents had done a handsome business in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, and Boston, and, in fact, had pretty well accommodated the trade in every town in the U. S. A. of sufficient size and breadth of mind to support and abide a poolroom or handbook.

Another Public Safeguard.

On March 9 the drawing was held at Agua Caliente, where every prospect pleases and man is no more vile than elsewhere, but somewhat more frank about it. I am assured that everything was strictly scrupulous. In the first place, the enterprise was conducted and personally indorsed by two distinguished sportsmen, long associated with the circus and cabaret trades, the Messrs. James Crofton and Baron Long, in whom, naturally, any suggestion of unscrupulosity in the administration of a pool of two dollar bills would arouse active repugnance.

Then, also, the drawing was witnessed by a committee of three journalists from San Diego, Cal., and the tickets were plucked, one by one, by a little child, age 6 and blindfolded, than which, of course, assurance could go no further.

It has occurred to me that they did protest a bit too much when they went to the extent of blindfolding the little child, but children may be precocious, and it is just as well not to trust them too generously.

At any rate, it fell out that when the first annual Agua Caliente handicap was run one week ago last Sunday and Victorian won the race, some farmer from Idaho held the winning number and was awarded the capital prize of $51,500. Second prize, about $25,000, went to some one in Maryland and so on, down a diminishing scale of awards. I believe the exact proportions were 45 per cent of the total to the farmer from Idaho, 20 per cent to the party in Maryland, 10 per cent to the holder of the ticket on the third horse, and 5 per cent to the one who owned the coupon for horse No. 4. Then a further 10 per cent was divided among persons holding tickets for steeds which went to the post but met with delays on the way and so finished fifth or worse.

Even Nonstarters Pay.

And finally, 5 per cent was apportioned among those who drew the names of the nonstarters. As there had been 79 nominees in the first place, this 5 per cent was spread rather thinly, the return being $88 for $2. The other 5 per cent was allotted to the gentlemanly agents who sold the tickets, being deducted. I suppose, at the source.

But this comes to 100 per cent of the total and one has to conclude either that the sportsmen who conducted the sweep did so at their own expense or discovered some curious mathematical phenomenon whereby the whole exceeded 100 per cent and thus left some margin for expense if not for profit. Sportsmen who run race tracks presently develop a well-nigh magic knack for figures and I would be the last one to indulge in captious criticism, if this were the way of it.

My only impression is one of mild surprise because the pool amounted to slightly less than $115,000, which is trivial money as compared with that amassed in the English Derby sweeps of the Calcutta Turf club and the Baltic and stock exchange sweeps of London. The Calcutta is the largest lottery of the kind in the world and last year's capital prize was almost a half million dollars. But, like the Baltic and stock exchange sweeps and all the other sweeps on the English races, the tickets are theoretically restricted to private sale among the members. But, of course, the members buy them in large batches, to order, cash in advance, for their friends and thus they achieve a wide circulation, some being held in this country every year.

Inasmuch as this was the first annual Agua Caliente sweepstake, it is likely that in years to come the pool will be larger, but every dollar of increase will connote a proportionate temptation to unscrupulous persons to counterfeit the tickets and to corrupt the little blindfolded child who draws the numbers from the bass drum. In fact, there has been some idle and, I hope, baseless talk of counterfeit tickets for the first annual Agua Caliente sweepstake and, depressing as it is to contemplate such sordidness in the world, I suppose this is one of the things which will have to be fairly faced and nipped in the breeches, as the saying goes.

Ray of Hope.

For one boon, however, the owners of idle and practically worthless two dollar bills may be thankful. It is comforting to reflect that when the second or third annual Agua Caliente sweepstake is sold, and the receipts amount to $500,000 or, perhaps, a million, even though the little child shall slip her blindfold and the committee of journalists shall succumb to temptation or deception, the two sportsmen in charge will still stand as sponsors for the integrity and scrupulosity of the drawing and the payoff. They will stand on foreign soil, in Mexico, it is true, but I cannot believe the customers will be any the worse off on that account. After all, sportsmen are sportsmen wherever they come to a stand.

Americans Hold Lucky Tickets on Steeplechasers

LONDON, April 2.—(AP)—Americans won first and third prizes in the Mutual club Overseas sweepstake on the Grand National steeplechase, it was announced today. J. Kristobelk, Garfield, N. J., drew the winner, Shaun Goilin, and wins $25,000. Mary Ferrara, Somerville, Mass., drew Sir Lindsay, which finished third, and wins $5,000.

Second prize, for holding the ticket on Melleray's Belle, went to a resident of Nairobi, South Africa, who used the nom de plume of "Desperado."

KEARNS PLANS SWEET REVENGE ON JACK DORVAL

Napoleon Jack Dorval, heavyweight, ran out on Jack Kearns, his manager, some time ago. At least this is Jack's story, and Jack wants the Chicago fight fans to know that a boxer can't get away with anything like that.

So Manager Kearns dropped all other affairs and went along the highways seeking another heavyweight, one who would fit his plans for revenge. Jack found Al Fay, a 200 pound Irishman with a bit of French blood, who tops 6 feet by an inch. And on Monday night in the White City ring, through the matchmaking of Jim Mullen, Kearns' new heavyweight will battle Kearns' old heavyweight for Kearns' revenge.

Recalls Early Lessons.

A knockout is the least that will satisfy Mr. Kearns. Apparently Fay has such a blow in his repertoire. In his activities last year Fay knocked out three boys, and six rounds was the longest it took him. He also scored two ten round decisions. Napoleon Jack's record is so-so since he left Kearns' tutelage, but it was rumored yesterday at Kid Howard's gym, where he's preparing, that he was brushing up on some of Kearns' early lessons and expected to spring them against his former manager.

Should the revenge plot miss, Chicago fans will depend on Ted Ross of South Chicago and Jack Barry for their action. Barry recently won the decision over Edgar Norman, but then Ross has duplicated that feat, so it's six to one and a half dozen of the other.

Seeks a Heavyweight.

Baxter Calnes, a slugging heavyweight from Kansas, was matched with Wyoming Warner. Wyoming, however, went back to Minneapolis and now Mullen is seeking another opponent.

300 GRAPPLERS ENTER AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Diamond Amateur Wrestling championships which start April 15 at the Coliseum now have an entry list of 300. There will be three divisions, the open, high school and academy, and university and college. If entries continue at the present rate the tournament may run three or four days. Entries close April 7.

Bob Hicks, wrestling instructor at Tilden High school, has entered a team, and 20 wrestlers from the Western Electric Hawthorne club have sent in their names.

Dates Announced for Suburban Prep Meets

Milwaukee, Wis., April 2.—[Special.]—Dates for the suburban High School league spring meets were announced today. They are: Swimming at West Milwaukee, May 14; track and field at Wauwatosa, May 31; tennis at Waukesha, June 7, and golf at South Milwaukee, May 22.

SIGNS OF SPRING AT BOWIE

Bocaratone leads Pennant Lass across the finish line in the Bowie Inaugural handicap which opened the eastern racing season Tuesday. Most of the 20,000 spectators had their money on Rapid Transit and as a result Bocaratone paid $69.20 in the $2 mutuels.

Y. M. C. A. BASKET ENTRIES REACH NEW HIGH MARK

International Y. M. C. A. basketball tournament records will be broken at the eighth annual world title event to be held on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at the Oak Park High school fieldhouse by an entry list of at least twenty-one teams.

After the list was thought to have been completed on Monday with eighteen towns represented, the next day brought in entries from Fremont, Neb.; Portsmouth, O., and Kansas City, Mo. Word from other localities indicate that the total may be as high as twenty-five before the pairings are made.

The last moment entries caused two changes in plans. The opening games were to have been started shortly after a luncheon on Thursday for officials and members of all teams and at which the pairings were to have been made. The opening will now take place in the morning, necessitating an earlier drawing.

An extra floor will also have to be procured to take care of the consolation series on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning and afternoon. The gymnasium of the new Dominican High school, Washington and East, Oak Park, is the most likely place to the selected.

The advance guard of the visitors proved to be four members of the Cambridge, O., team who arrived in Oak Park by auto on Tuesday afternoon. The twenty-one teams entered are:

Oak Park, Ill.; Englewood [Chicago]; Naperville, Ill.; Montclair, N. J.; Rahway, N. J.; Newton, Kas.; Greenwich, Conn.; Cambridge, Mass.; Buffalo, N. Y.; Hamilton, O.; Detroit [Adams street], Mich.; Detroit [northern branch]; St. Paul, Minn.; Superior, Wis.; Green Bay, Wis.; St. Louis, Mo.; Juniata, Pa.; Vincennes, Ind.; Fremont, Neb.; Portsmouth, O.; Kansas City, Mo.

KAYE DON GETS TIME EXTENSION FOR SPEED TESTS

Daytona Beach, Fla., April 2.—(AP)—Extension of the sanction of the American Automobile association contest board for Daytona's speed trials for an indefinite period was announced today.

The extension was granted following Kaye Don's request for further time for the trials, since beach conditions and minor mechanical difficulties have combined to prevent a satisfactory record attempt of the Silver Bullet.

Nine More Schools Accept Bid to Marquette Relays

Milwaukee, Wis., April 2.—[Special.]—Nine schools today accepted invitations to compete in the eighth annual Marquette University High school relays, May 3, Conrad Jennings, athletic director, announced. These swell the list of schools to participate to more than forty.

Austin, Roosevelt, and University High, all of Chicago; Deerfield-Shields of Highland Park; Lake Forest, Kenosha, Berlin, Cudahy, and Campion of Prairie du Chien are today's entries.

STADIUM CHIEFS FLIRT WITH IDEA OF DOG RACING

Suggestion Is Made by Easterners.

Directors of the Chicago Stadium are reported flirting with the idea of putting dog racing on Chicago's summer sports program. Reports are that the Stadium management is considering building a circular track, setting up an electrical rabbit, and building parimutuel booths. Several officials are said to favor the project.

Easterners visited Chicago several weeks ago and broached the idea. Their argument, which is said to have interested the Chicagoans, pointed out the income the Stadium would have during an otherwise dull season. Centrally located, with a building large enough, all seem to be of the opinion dog racing would solve the problem how to make a seven million dollar investment pay.

Whether the Stadium promotes dog races probably depends on the outcome of the state's fight on the injunction now protecting the outdoor tracks. The state has carried the fight on the injunction to the Supreme court. Advices from Springfield assert that the high court may remand the injunction hearing to the lower courts.

If this is the procedure then dog racing will be free from molestation for at least one more summer. The crowded appellate calendar will not permit a decision until next year. Then, too, the Supreme court, if it does consider the case, might uphold the injunction.

The state's attorney's office raided the tracks in May last year.

Ohio State Loses Only Veteran Hurler by Injury

Columbus, O., April 2.—[Special.]—Ohio State's hope for an early season success of the baseball team took a sudden slump here today when Pitcher Bill Kermode, only veteran moundsman on the team, was lost to Coach Wayne Wright for at least three weeks. Kermode's arm was dislocated in practice. Ray Klink and Bill Hinchman, both members of last year's team who played in the outfield, will be called upon to hurl for the Buckeyes. The Buckeyes open their 1930 season with a two day training trip to the south when they will take on the University of Kentucky at Lexington Friday and Saturday.

Woods and Waters by BOB BECKER

Pickerel or great northern pike fishermen in the central states require a larger vocabulary than 'most any other class of fishermen because the big "pick" has more names than you can remember without a memory training course.

By way of preparing for the coming fishing season, and the many arguments about the correct name for Esox lucius, the pickerel or great northern pike [the muskiellke fish with the white bean shaped spots], here is a list of more or less common names for this fighting species. We have even included the German name for Esox in case you figure on catching a few "picks" while abroad this summer.

The list is as follows: Jack [parts of Canada], great northern pike [Wisconsin and Minnesota], hecht [in Germany], channel pickerel [Thousand islands, St. Lawrence river], chukwuk [Alaska Indians], common pike [more or less general name], English pike [parts of Canada], great northern pickerel [northern North America], lake pike [western Pennsylvania], luce [England], grass pike [several states, including Michigan], jackfish [parts of Canada], pickerel [northern United States and parts of Canada where the fishermen do not call the wall-eye a pickerel], pike [a general name in northern North America], shovel nose pike, slinker [Thousand island region], snake [Wisconsin and Minnesota], great pike and wasserwolf [Germany].

Fishermen can take their choice from this list of names because as a rule all refer to the same fish, Esox lucius, which when young is a slim, hard hitting little fish that is derisively called a snake. Later it acquires weight to merit the name of great northern pike.

Alfred Weed of the Field museum calls attention to the fact that the white bean shaped spots on this fish are really the remnant of the cross bands of the color pattern of the young specimens and are arranged in rows, having the same diagonal direction. Next time you hook a big pickerel or northern pike, check up on its color pattern, as this feature is an interesting one.

GOSLIN ACCEPTS $10,000 SALARY WITH A BONUS

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 2.—(AP)—After two months of long distance dickering over terms (Goose) Goslin, outfielder, today signed his 1930 contract with Clark Griffith, president of the Washington nationals.

Goslin was met in Atlanta early today by Frank Baxter, assistant trainer for the club, who piloted him to Chattanooga in Griffith's automobile. After a brief conference with Griffith Goslin said he had "signed a contract with Griffith's terms."

"I will get myself into condition at my own expense," he added, "I'm glad that I've signed and I'm going to help the club all I've got."

The terms offered Goslin were a $10,000 straight salary and a bonus clause which would make it possible for him to draw all of the $16,000 which he received last year. The bonus clause was incorporated at Goslin's request.

TIGERS BEAT LUQUE.

Tifton, Ga., April 2.—(AP)—Brooklyn's powerful bats of yesterday were relatively ineffective today, as the Detroit Tigers defeated the Dodgers, 2 to 0, in a game stopped by rain at the end of the fifth inning. Vic Sorrell held the National Leaguers to two hits. Adolfo Luque gave the Tigers only three hits, but one of them was a home run by Gehringer after Funk had walked in the third.

Detroit	001	00—2	3 0
Brooklyn	000	00—0	2 0

Batteries—Sorrell and Harworth; Luque and Petty.

PIRATES, 2; BEAUMONT, 6.

Beaumont, Tex., April 2.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, in a one day stand here, Beaumont, celebrated with singles in twelve of them—to win, 8 to 6, in an exhibition contest. The National league club did not make an extra base hit. Easterling of Beaumont accounted for a home run. The Pirates will go to Houston tomorrow for a three game exhibition series with the Buffalo club.

Pittsburgh (N.)	000	030	230—8 12 0

ATHLETICS PUNISH COLUMBIA.

Columbia, S. C., April 2.—(AP)—The touring Philadelphia Athletics and the Columbia Sally league team met in a rainy, wind-swept field today, winning, 9 to 2. Haas, Cochrane, and Foxx contributed triples and Doc Cramer inserted a pair of doubles.

WINGS NOSE OUT ROCHESTER.

Fredericton, Fla., April 2.—(AP)—The Rochester Red Wings nicked Flint pitching for four hits and four runs in the first two innings this afternoon, but the Cardinals overcame the lead given in 11 innings, 7 to 6, to even the series at two victories each.

INDIANS RELEASE THREE.

New Orleans, La., April 2.—(AP)—Ray Bean and Leslie Barnhart, right handed pitchers, and George Detore, left hitting third baseman, will spend another year in the minors, Roger Bresnahan, Indian manager, announced today. They will remain in New Orleans to play with the Pelicans. Cleveland will retain an option on the trio.

Today's game between the Indians and the New York Giants was called off because of wet grounds.

Why do most men love an old hat?

They don't love all old hats. But when a hat just everlastingly adjusts itself to your cranium, even if so hopeless it can't pass muster on the street, you keep it for tough wear.

Only a good hat will survive such a test—the sort we sell—made by the most famous producers.

And, do you know that's why we have fewer "adjustments" to make on hats than on almost anything else in our store? A man doesn't bring back a beloved old chapeau, saying: "Here's your old hat. I want my money."

Spring hats start at $5.

Boys' hats, $5; caps from $1.25 up.

Cubs Whip Angels, 10 to 2; Hornsby Joins Invalids

did the same thing, putting Haney on third. Sigafoos then bounced to Beck at second for what developed into a double play. While this was taking place, Haney sneaked home.

The Cubs adjusted the handicap against them just as soon as it was possible. With one out in the second, Tolson beat out a grounder knocked down behind second by Dittmar. Hartnett bounced out, putting Tolson on second. Beck followed with a single that let Tolson score from second.

Another run was picked up by the Chicagoans in the fifth, putting them in front, 2 to 1. Blake caromed a single off the pitchers' shin after one was out. English lined a one base blow to right, Blake taking third. On Blair's long fly to center, Blake romped over the plate. Then Cuyler singled, but Wilson let the round trip to a close with a grounder to the second sacker. In the next inning Hartnett added one more with his homer over the bricks in left.

Cuyler Cuts Off Run.

The application of considerable skill by Cuyler prevented the Angels from collecting a run in their half of the fifth. Statz led off with a single and Dittmar beat out an infield hit. On Skiff's grounder Dittmar was forced at second. Then Delaney hoisted a foul fly to right and Cuyler, after racing almost to the stand, smothered it in his gloved hand. Statz thought he could scoot home after the catch, but was nailed when Cuyler made a perfect peg into Hartnett's glove.

What Cuyer's work stole from the Angels in the fifth was given to them in the sixth. Haney opened the inning with a grounder on which English made a wide heave to first base. Moore flied out, after which Sigafoos looped a double to right, Haney scoring. Cuyer's return throw was badly aimed, letting Sigafoos continue to third. Harper then walked, and a double steal was attempted, but Hartnett's arm prevented it from coming even close to being successful.

Blair's Drive Ruins Infielder.

The baby riot that let the Cubs clinch it with four runs in the seventh began when English doubled with one out. Blair doubled off Dittmar's jaw, English scoring and Dittmar going home for repairs. Cuyler's single let Blair count. Wilson forced Cuyler, and then jogged when Stephenson drove the ball over the left field bricks. This was followed by a pass to Tolson, but Hartnett fanned to conclude the inning.

Three runs in the eighth completed the day's scoring efforts for the Cubs. Holling began pitching, and Beck welcomed him with a single. Blake also hit safely, but was forced by English. Blair uncorked a double, scoring Beck and planting English on third. A single by Cuyler scored English and Blair.

Chicago Fighter Loses Decision at Cincinnati

Cincinnati, O., April 2.—(AP)—Joe Anderson, Covington, Ky., middleweight, won the judge's decision over Haakon Hansen, Chicago, in a 10 round fight here tonight. After taking nine rounds, Anderson was compelled to withstand a blazing bombardment of rights and lefts to finish the tenth.

Jackie Stewart, featherweight, broke the long winning streak of Tony Leone, Dover, O., in the six round semi-windup. Leone, after winning more than 30 consecutive fights, bowed to superior strength and cleverness.

Sid Kaplan, Golden Glove Winner, Meets Gym Rival

Sid Kaplan, runner up in the featherweight class of the Golden Gloves tournament and winner in the Chicago and New York bouts, will appear in the feature bout at the Arcade gymnasium Saturday night. Kaplan's opponent will be Nick Sciabbala, a hard hitting youngster from the Lawndale gym. There will be seven other bouts.

Lewis Tosses Plestina in 31 Minutes 47 Seconds

Cage Coaches Plan Rules to Stop Stalling

Champaign, Ill., April 2.—[Special.]—Stalling basketball should be eliminated, in the opinion of nearly two-thirds of the high school coaches of the state, who responded to a questionnaire sent out by Craig Ruby, University of Illinois coach and president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

Out of 422 coaches responding, 268 positively favored a change in the rules which would make it impossible for a team to stall for any length of time, Coach Ruby said today. The most stalling was done by sixty teams, and 56 of their coaches voted in favor of some rule that would discourage the strategy.

Statistics on the extent of the stalling game and other facts brought out will be presented to the rules committee of the association of coaches, which will hold its annual meeting in Chicago Friday and Saturday.

Among the suggested rules to eliminate the stall were the following:

Prevent a team which is obviously stalling from retaining the ball longer than a certain period.

Eliminate the dribble in the back half of the court and substitute the one bounce rule in that area only, permitting the dribble in the front field.

Adopt the one bounce rule.

Make the floors shorter.

Eliminate a stipulated playing time and end the game only when a certain score is reached at the end of each half.

INDIANA NINE PLAYS 5 GAMES AT MISSISSIPPI

Bloomington, Ind., April 2.—[Special.]—Coach Everett Dean and 18 members of the Indiana university baseball squad left here this afternoon for a series of five pre-season games to be played with the University of Mississippi at Oxford, Miss. Those who were selected from the squad to make the trip were: Burroughs, Balay, Brubaker, Bailey, Crowe, Cross, Jaros, Veller, Waitkus, Rea, Mankowski, May, Thomas Banka, Magnabasco, Unger, Gatti, and Fleisher. The first game with the southeners will be played tomorrow afternoon.

Baltimore, Md., April 2.—[Special.]—It was Florida's turn to take the limelight at Bowie today when the Brandon stable's Standby was first in the Magnolia purse. On Tuesday it was a New Orleans horse, Mrs. W. J. Potter's Bocaratone, which won the feature. The same owner's Genuine finished a length and a half back of Standby today. He was taken to New Orleans with the rest of the Potter string last winter but his previous out was a first place at Dorval last summer and the defeat snapped a winning streak of six.

The Magnolia was a five and a half furlong sprint for older horses and attracted eight so evenly matched that the whole field finished within about a half dozen lengths. Genuine beat My Sis only a head for the place and Clean Play, which was fourth, beat Toki only a head. The other three were Silverdale, Cloudy and Sun Forward and they finished in the order named. The time was 1:06 4-5.

Three Places Change Hands in A.B.C. Meet

Cleveland, O., April 2.—(AP)—Second place in the singles, and fourth and fifth places in the all-events represented the changes in standings in the American Bowling congress tournament matinee bowling today.

The work of Harold Asplund, Denver youth, featured the activities. Rolling in his first international tournament, he came through like a veteran with 720 in the singles, bringing his nine game total to 1,936 and placing him fourth. He was ousted from this spot on the supper shift by Billy Mills of Pontiac, Mich., as the result of a 1,942 total. Mills had 610 in his team event, 650 in his doubles, and 682 in his singles.

Cleveland and Buffalo bowlers held the drives almost exclusively. Thirteen totals in the 1,200 class were rolled in the two man event, while in the singles there were 35 counts of 600 or better.

The Caruana brothers of Buffalo scored 1,219 in their doubles. In their singles Joe had 621 and Frank 645. Other top singles scores of the day were: W. Mills, Pontiac, 682; B. Wilson, Buffalo, 676, and C. Richard of Buffalo, 653.

Best doubles totals were: F. Burmeister and H. Schneider, Elgin, Ill., 1,262; Mills and A. Monahan, Pontiac, 1,262; J. Demore and P. Salvadore, Oswego, N. Y., 1,250; J. Miller and P. Puszert, Buffalo, 1,242, and M. Webber and A. Landmark, Denver, 1,240.

HOLD OPPONENT BLAMELESS WHEN PENN BOXER DIES

Philadelphia, Pa., April 2.—(AP)—William L. Struble, 23, of Latrobe, Pa., a member of the Pennsylvania State college boxing team, was absolved of blame by a coroner's jury today in connection with the death of Oliver Horne of New York, former captain of the University of Pennsylvania boxing team.

HARVARD'S 1932 GRID SCHEDULE OMITS BIG TEN

Cambridge, Mass., April 2.—(AP)—Harvard will resume football relations with Brown and Penn State in 1932, William J. Bingham, director of athletics, said today when he announced the almost completed Crimson gridiron schedule for that year.

Brown, which has had a place on the Harvard schedule 31 times since 1893, last played against a Crimson eleven in 1927 and Penn State has not visited the stadium since 1921, when the Nittany Lions and Harvard battled to a 21-21 tie.

The scheduling of Penn State appeared to mean the end of Harvard's football relations with mid western elevens. The Crimson has played members of the Big Ten annually since 1925 and has scheduled games with such teams for 1930 and 1931.

ONE FACT WORTH REMEMBERING IN BUYING MOTOR OIL

Amid all the ambiguous claims and glittering generalities current in oil advertising today, one fact stands out so significantly that it should banish all else from your mind.

It is this:—Warm weather grades of the New Waxfree Havoline possess greater heat resistance—lubricate at higher temperatures—than any other oils of the same viscosity at 210° F. and above!

The reason is simple. The New Waxfree Havoline contains no wax to turn water-thin; no volatile crude elements to evaporate when your motor warms up. Every drop is pure rich oil—the first 100%-distilled unblended paraffin-base oil ever refined for warm weather use! It can be produced only by the revolutionary new Govers Process, perfected by the Indian Refining Company.

Remember these facts and refill with Waxfree Havoline today—if you want to enjoy the most miles of superior motor performance between crankcase drainings! A dealer near you has the correct grade for any car.

WAXFREE
HAVOLINE
Wax turns candle-hard with cold. Wax turns water-thin with heat. Now, for the first time you can get a waxfree paraffin-base oil for the best year-round lubrication.

INSULL GROUP PLANS BIG PIPE LINE PROJECT

Taps Gas Reservoir in Texas.

BY O. A. MATHER.

Chicago and its environs will be supplied with natural gas by the greatest pipe line project yet attempted if plans announced by the Insull interests yesterday work out successfully. The plans also will involve a hookup of several of the large public utility and oil companies in the country.

The project calls for 950 mile pipe line from the natural gas fields in the Texas "panhandle" district to Chicago. The initial line probably will be 30 inch pipe, or possibly several inches larger, and capable of delivering upward of 100 million cubic feet of gas a day. But installation of this line will be in a manner to facilitate parallel mains in the future if advisable.

Control Large Acreage.

Preliminary negotiations in the big deal have been conducted by Insull, Bell & Co. on behalf of the Insull group of utilities and associated in the project are the Cities Service company, Texas corporation, Phillips Petroleum company, Skelly Oil company, Columbian Carbon company, and Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. These companies own and control a large acreage in the Texas field and their natural gas reserves are estimated to be more than four trillion cubic feet, all of which is to be placed at the disposal of the new project.

"This reserve is equivalent in volume, practically, to the 1929 output of manufactured gas in the city of Chicago for a period of ninety years," the announcement of Insull, Son & Co. says. "In deliverable heat service it is considerably more because of the higher heating value of natural gas. The magnitude of the panhandle gas field in Texas has not been fully defined, but it is clearly the largest natural gas area ever discovered in any country.

Has Advantageous Route.

"The companies affiliated for the development of the panhandle to Chicago project have not only a 'backing' in the Texas field larger than any reserves supporting any other natural gas project, but the route of the proposed pipe line passes through or near natural gas fields of Oklahoma and Kansas."

Cites Need of Reforms in Field of Home Building

BY SCRUTATOR.

Real estate men, as well as builders, recognize the necessity for reforms that will make it possible for persons with smaller scale of income to own individual homes.

"There is no good reason why we cannot develop a new technique in home building. More and more portions of buildings can be fabricated in factories, so that a finished dwelling could be assembled in a few days, instead of a few months."

Is Building Cost.

Builders know that it is construction costs, rather than taxation or financing costs—although these are important—that prevent the man of moderate wage or salary from owning his home. They know that it costs twice as much to build a house now as it did in 1913, and that the general level of expenditures is only one and a half times as much. The cost of building is proportionately higher than the increase in wage levels over the period.

High wages in the building trades are given as the cause. The belief of some intelligent employing builders is that an acceptance of lower wage scales would promote so much building that the worker, through increased building, would work twice as many days per year as at present and gain a much larger annual income.

Despite its truth, this argument probably will have no effect on the building trades. The country is committed to high wage theories, no matter what they cost. But it is equally committed to standardization in manufacture. There is no engineering impossibility in making sections of walls or floors as large as can be shipped in railroad cars. The high wage scale would be justified or strengthened if accompanied by a reduction in building costs, as there has been a reduction in the costs of automobiles. Standardization could accomplish this.

First Costs.

Two of these, financing and construction costs, bear directly as first costs, and under present circumstances act as deterrents to the building that should be going on. Taxation comes later, and is a part of upkeep. It is to be suspected that it is not so important a factor as high original expenditure in the habit of building.

Mr. Reaume asserted that there had been no advance in the methods of putting up moderate priced homes in recent years.

"Building materials," he said, "are still being made to fit the size of a man's hand. They are transported to the building site and assembled in the course of two or three months by the most expensive labor that the world has ever seen. If the local garage man were to buy the parts of an automobile and attempt to assemble them in his own garage and thus supply his customers, we should have a process which compares with the home building methods of today.

FORCE RETREAT OF PRICES IN N. Y. CURB TRADING

New York, April 2.—(AP)—Bullish forces on the New York Curb exchange were forced to make a partial retreat today as a result of a heavy selling movement launched in the last hour of trading.

Many of the early gains were wiped out, and a rather long list of issues closed with net declines ranging from 1 to 6 points, particularly in the public utility and oil groups. A sprinkling of specialties, in which pools are believed to be operating, maintained at least part of their gains.

In view of the sharp advance in prices during the last week, the reaction was generally expected. It was influenced in part by fears of a large increase in brokers' loans.

Eaton's Hand Seen in Suit to Open Bethlehem's Books

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 2.—The fight to prevent consolidation of Bethlehem Steel corporation and Youngstown Sheet and Tube company having already made its debut in the austere halls of congress today bowed before the judge in an appeal to justice.

Arthur B. Taylor, president of the Lorain County Savings and Trust company of Elyria, O., and a stockholder of the Youngstown company, filed a petition for a mandatory injunction to compel company officials to open the books of Bethlehem Steel corporation so he might obtain figures showing the value of that corporation's common stock.

The suit is believed to have been inspired by Cyrus S. Eaton, Cleveland capitalist, who is leading the fight against the merger. The way was paved for the suit recently by a letter from counsel representing the opposing stockholders demanding the right to make an audit of both Youngstown and Bethlehem books. This was refused, but Bethlehem agreed to furnish any information requested if the company auditors deemed it relevant to the merger.

Youngstown Earnings.

Commenting on the forecast $2.50 a share Bethlehem earnings for the first quarter of the year James A. Campbell, chairman of Youngstown Sheet and Tube, today said sheet and tube earnings would be less than $2 a share on the 1,200,000 shares outstanding for the first quarter.

"We have been operating during the quarter at about 70 per cent of capacity," he continued. "Our falling off in earnings has been due primarily to the reduced demand for tubular products which represents so large a proportion of our capacity."

In the corresponding 1929 quarter Youngstown reported net income of $4,430,316 after charges, equivalent after preferred dividends to $4.22 a share on the outstanding 1,000,000 no par common shares.

"I am gratified to note," Mr. Campbell said, "the excellent statement of earnings for Bethlehem Steel corporation for the first quarter of 1930 as announced by E. G. Grace, president, at the annual meeting."

Report of Accountants.

A report from three firms of independent accountants holding that the merger terms were "fair and favorable" to Youngstown stockholders was sent out today by the Youngstown and Bethlehem companies.

The accountants based their comparison on relative fixed charges, working capital, book value, and earnings. The figures were based on weighted earnings from 1925 to 1928, but the basis for 1929 was adjusted for both companies to provide comparisons.

Less than a week remains for continuance of the battle for proxies between the two groups. The stockholders' vote will be held on April 8.

Although the proposed merger had been called to the attention of congress today by Congressman F. H. La Guardia, who called the move "an attempt to crush independent producers in the steel industry," congress did not act on the subject.

DAHLBERG CORP. BOOSTS STOCK IN MERGER MOVE

Consolidation of Dahlberg Corporation of America, Almar & Co., and Dahlberg & Co., Inc., was approved yesterday by stockholders of the three companies in accordance with a plan previously adopted by directors.

To effect the consolidation the common stock of Dahlberg corporation was increased from 1,000,000 to 2,000,000 shares. The preference stock of 200,000 shares remains unchanged.

New York, April 2.—Wall street's new wonder market began to wobble today. The experts said it had grown a bit topheavy and that the rapid pace of the rise of the last fortnight had weakened its technical structure.

At any rate, the whole list developed a rather lopsided appearance and some of the highsteppers of the late bull parade fell off their perches with quite a clatter. U. S. Steel, for instance, toppled nearly 4 points—just when the boys were saying it was going to the 200 mark without a bobble. American Can folded up with a 2 point loss, and such high and mighty figures as Walter Works, New York Central, Johns-Manville, Standard Gas, American Telephone, Consolidated Gas, and Standard Oil of New Jersey went tumbling for 2 to 4 points or more. Losses of 1 and 2 points were the general rule.

MEMBER LOANS ON N.Y. EXCHANGE RISE IN MARCH

New York, April 2.—(AP)—The New York Stock exchange today reported that the member loans on March 31 totaled $4,656,302,339, an increase of $488,712,987 during the month. Member loans on March 31, 1929, totaled $6,804,457,408.

The record high loan figure was established on Sept. 30, last, with a total of $8,549,383,979, and the low since compilation of the figures was begun in 1926 was $2,767,400,514 on May 31 of that year.

The weekly federal reserve brokers' loan figures for the period from Feb. 26 to March 26 showed a gain of only $331,000,000. The monthly stock exchange compilation indicates that the closing days of the month saw a sharp rise in loans.

The Gas Company of New Mexico

Convertible First Closed Mortgage 6½% Gold Bonds

Due March 15, 1935

CONVERSION PRIVILEGE

if presented for conversion on or before March 15, 1932 in the ratio of 40 shares of such Common Stock (without par value) for each $1,000 Bond; thereafter and on or before March 15, 1933 in the ratio of 30 shares for each $1,000 Bond; thereafter and on or before March 15, 1935 in the ratio of 20 shares of Common Stock for each $1,000 Bond.

THE COMPANY: The Gas Company of New Mexico was organized under the laws of Delaware for the purpose of owning and operating natural gas transmission lines and distributing systems in the States of New Mexico and Texas. The Company completed its main lines and commenced the distribution of natural gas for industrial and domestic use in March, 1930, to Clovis, Portales and Texico, New Mexico and Farwell, Texas, where it operates under favorable franchises extending in each case beyond 1954. It is anticipated that additional 65 miles of main pipe line will be completed by the fall of 1930 to Tucumcari, New Mexico.

The towns to be served by the Company are prosperous and are enjoying a steady, substantial growth. Four out of five of the towns are County Seats of their respective counties.

SECURITY: These First Mortgage Bonds will constitute a direct obligation of The Gas Company of New Mexico and will be specifically secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a closed first mortgage on the entire fixed assets of the Company, now owned or hereafter acquired. The estimated cost of the physical properties (including Tucumcari line and distribution system to be constructed) upon which these bonds will be a first lien has been certified by Ford, Bacon & Davis, Inc., Engineers, New York, to be in excess of $1,000,000.

EARNINGS: Earnings of the Company for the first five years of operation, including operation of Tucumcari, available for interest, depreciation and Federal income taxes, based on existing contracts for gas supply, franchises, and the anticipated demand for service, have been estimated by Ford, Bacon & Davis, Inc., in its first year of operation at approximately 4 times maximum annual interest charges on this issue, increasing in the fifth year to over 8 times.

MANAGEMENT: The management of the Company will be in the hands of SOUTHERN UNION GAS COMPANY, a holding and management company at present successfully operating, through its subsidiaries, many natural gas and water properties in the States of New Mexico, Texas, Arkansas, and Oklahoma. This Company has become an important factor in the natural gas business in the Southwest through efficient management and sound, aggressive expansion.

These bonds are offered, when, as and if issued and deliverable, subject to approval of counsel.

CHICAGO STOCKS DECLINE AFTER BIG DAY'S WORK

Trading Volume Largest Since Last Nov. 7.

BY THOMAS FURLONG.

After churning and splashing about in the most active trading day on the Chicago exchange since Nov. 7, 1929, stocks closed yesterday irregularly lower. Sales totaled 631,000 shares. Although declines were not severe, the weak tone extended throughout all sections of the list. Only a few isolated issues were able to make headway against the current.

The day opened auspiciously enough, with some shares running up to new highs before turning turtle. Bendix was the most spectacular, climbing to a new year's peak of 56¾, only to fall back below its previous close before the day ended.

Grigsby Is a Gainer.

Grigsby was the most notable gainer, advancing 1¼ on sales exceeding 95,000 shares, following news that the radio firm has acquired a patent which it is believed may terminate part of the litigation in which it has been involved.

With the exception of Noblitt Sparks, which improved over a point, the motor shares were mostly heavy and lower at the close. Cord, Borg-Warner and Houdaille "A" were weak. Houdaille "B," after selling above 27, closed with a small net gain at 26¾.

Investments, Utilities Lower.

Investment issues and utilities were nearly all down at the close. Middle West, Central and Southwest, Cities Service and United Gas were weak. Insull Utility was off a fraction, while Corporation Securities, another Insull investment trust, was higher fractionally.

Yesterday was the first day this year that the sales volume has exceeded the 600,000 share mark. Not since the hectic trading days which followed the October-November break have the sales been so great. The cumulative volume this year up to and including yesterday now amounts to 21,255,100 shares. This compares with 17,338,000 during the corresponding period of 1929.

Chicago Curb Exchange Stocks

Price movement in the Chicago curb market leaders were narrow yesterday with the finish irregularly higher. Good gains were marked up in Fourth National Curtiss Flying and Niagara Hudson, with fractional advances in Greenebaum and American corporation. Rustless Iron closed unchanged while Southern Union Gas was fractionally higher on word that the company had secured the contract to supply the $5,000,000 Nichols subdivision of Oklahoma City with Natural gas. United Fixed Shares was admitted to trading with first trades at 10¾.

News and Gossip of Stock Marts

Many Repair Cars.

Earnings of Thompson Products, Inc., have shown a consistent improvement since the first of this year, according to interests close to the company. It seems that the manufacturers of automotive parts have not suffered with the depression in the automobile industry, for the reason that a great many people are said to be repairing the cars they now have rather than buy new ones.

See Valuable Returns.

Electric Power and Light will receive valuable returns in connection with the United Gas merger plan which was announced recently, it is asserted. In return for its holdings of Louisiana Gas and Fuel company and a cash payment of around $50,000,000, Electric Power apparently is to receive 584,680 shares of seven per cent preferred, 3,809,680 shares of common stock and 2,700,000 option warrants of the new company. These securities, it is estimated, are worth in the neighborhood of $180,000,000.

Bullish Tips.

A number of bullish "tips" are being circulated about Central States Electric. It will be recalled that C. F. Stone, president of the company, in his annual report, stated that the corporation was developing more and more characteristics of a holding company.

A Seasoned Chain-Store Security with Marked Possibilities of Enhancement

ATLAS STORES CORPORATION

Common Stock

Listed on New York Stock Exchange

Currently Earning around $6 a share

With 62 units in operation in large cities, doing an annual volume of about twenty millions, Atlas Stores Corporation is the largest organization in the country specializing in the distribution of certain nationally advertised products.

These include such well-known lines as R. C. A. products, Stromberg-Carlson products, Crawford McGregor Golf Clubs, Kroydon Golf Clubs, and Jantzen Swimming Suits. For these and many others it is the largest distributor in the country.

The Corporation is a well-seasoned organization with exceptionally able and experienced management. Subsidiaries have enjoyed a steady growth in earnings over periods ranging from 19 to 50 years.

New units are being constantly added, new territories entered, and numerous additional lines of merchandise are being steadily taken out. Thus the outlook for continued expansion in earnings is unusually good.

Current earnings (at the rate of $6 a share) in our opinion justify a considerably higher price for the Stock.

INSULL GROUP PLANS BIG PIPE LINE PROJECT

Taps Texas Gas Reservoir —Ends at Chicago.

company will distribute the natural gas in Chicago, while other Insull companies, including the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, Western United Gas and Electric company, Illinois Northern Utilities company, and Northern Indiana Public Service company will take care of their districts in northern Illinois and Indiana.

Need Larger Market.

Just how soon the big pipe line will be constructed, what the project will cost and what effect it will have on consumers' rates are matters for future determination.

"To make the project economically possible," the Insull statement says, from both the financial and engineering viewpoints, the market for gas in the Chicago district will have to be enormously increased. Greater use of gas for industrial purposes, for house heating and for kindred employments, calling for use in considerable volume, are obvious prospective outlets.

"The marketing companies will have to work out the problems involved in this local distribution and utilization. To attain the maximum of economic usefulness for the entire gas supply of the Chicago district, as increased by the coming of natural gas, the natural may be mixed with the available supply of manufactured gas before distribution. This will raise a question of rates—whether rates shall be based on the deliverable heating value of the gas on volume measured in cubic feet, as at present.

Must Solve Problems.

"And this is only one of the problems involved in the project which the marketing companies will have to solve before arranging for a supply of the gas. The initial investment required for this project naturally will be many millions of dollars—how many millions is guess work until engineering details are worked out. The size of main, pressures to be employed, number and character of compressor stations, and so on, are all factors affecting the investment cost.

"When the engineering and other details of construction and operation are sufficiently advanced, the general offices of the project will be established in Chicago. Henry L. Doherty & Co., will have charge of the construction."

A new 300 mile natural gas pipe line from the Kansas fields to eastern Nebraska and Kansas is under construction and will be operated by the Missouri Valley Gas company. The Montana Dakota Utilities company will construct a 200 mile pipe line to carry natural gas from the Montana fields to Bismarck, N. D.

559 MILLIONS YIELDED BY U. S. TAX IN MARCH

Washington, D. C., April 2.—[Special.]—Income tax receipts for March totaled $559,503,703.26, according to complete figures issued today by the treasury department. This represents a decrease of $41,860,101.40 from the $601,363,804.67 total of March, 1929, or slightly more than one-fourth of the 160 million dollar tax cut effective for the present calendar year.

Inasmuch as the March payments usually represent considerably more than one-fourth of the total of the four quarterly payments the comparatively small decrease made it evident that the actual loss in revenue for 1929 will not be as great as 160 million dollars.

The excess of ordinary receipts over expenditures for March amounted to 242 million dollars as compared with 462 million dollars in March, 1929. The excess for the fiscal year up to March 31, amounted to 110 million as compared with 60 million dollars for the same period a year ago.

The gross public debt on March 31 was $16,389,624,566, which represented a decrease of about 70 million dollars during March and a decrease of 847 million dollars during the previous twelve months.

PIG IRON SHIPPING.

The Sloss-Sheffield Steel and Iron company of Birmingham, Ala., is reported to be shipping more pig iron than is being produced at present.

FINANCIAL NOTES

The Harris Trust and Savings bank, Tucker, Anthony & Co., Bonbright & Co., and Coffin & Burr, Inc., are offering $4,000,000 Minnesota Power and Light company first and refunding mortgage 4½ per cent bonds at 93½ and interest, yielding 4.85 per cent.

G. E. Barrett & Co. are offering 100,000 shares of $3.00 no par cumulative preferred stock and 50,000 shares of no par B stock of American Utilities and General corporation. Offering is being made in the form of allotment certificates, representing units of one share of the preferred and one-half share of the B stock, priced at $45.00 per unit, plus accrued dividend on the preferred stock.

The Harris Trust and Savings bank, Continental Illinois company, First Union Trust and Savings bank, First National Old Colony corporation, Emanuel & Co., Northern Trust company, L. F. Rothschild & Co., Lawrence Stern & Co., Rutter & Co., Graham Parsons & Co., are offering $10,000,000 of 4¼ per cent road bonds of the state of Missouri to yield 4.05 per cent.

DRY GOODS.

NEW YORK, April 2.—(AP)—Cotton goods are firmer with a moderate demand for gray cloth for future delivery. Raw silk stocks at Japan are estimated at 70,000 bales. Finished cottons and silks are selling moderately. Dress goods of worsted and woolen are becoming more active for fall. Burlaps were slightly firmer.

Eaton Axle, Wilcox-Rich Directors Agree on Terms

Terms for the consolidation of the Eaton Axle and Spring company and the Wilcox Rich corporation have been agreed upon by the directors of both companies, it was announced today. Under the plan common stock to the Eaton company would be exchanged for the Class B shares of the Wilcox company on a basis of 85-100 of an Eaton share for one of the Wilcox. The cumulative dividend stock of the Wilcox company would remain undistributed according to the plan. It was pointed out that as the Eaton stock is now paying dividends at the rate of $3 a year and the Wilcox Class B is on a $2 annual rate the exchange would increase the Wilcox stockholders' dividends to $2.25 a year.

ADVERTISE IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE

NEW SKYLINES FOR OLD

Here the first skyscraper was built, demonstrating the soaring possibilities of steel frame construction.

The adoption of the new principle was typical of the progressive spirit of Chicago business men. It took courage to back with money the genius of the architects and engineers who conceived it.

Chicago's skyline has changed since the First National Bank of Chicago was organized in 1863. Men, too, have changed, but the experience of sixty-seven years is today available to the builders of Chicago, both structural and business.

Through our Divisional Organization this experience is definitely applied to the financial problems of specific lines of business by officers who are intimately acquainted with them.

New business is invited.

PROFIT TAKING LEAVES UNEVEN EDGE ON WHEAT

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Apprehension of damage to the winter wheat crop due to continued dry weather in parts of Kansas and Oklahoma, with strength in Liverpool brought in sufficient buying of futures early yesterday to lift prices for the deferred months around 1½c to a new level since March 3.

The bulge brought in profit taking and also commission house and local selling and the finish was ¼c lower to ¼c higher, the former on May which was $1.11@1.11¼ at the last with July at $1.10½ to 1.10⅝@1.10¾.

Closing spread between Chicago and Winnipeg resulted in the May delivery her showing strength at the start, but the southwest was a persistent seller, and long grain came out through commission houses. Winnipeg May was also under pressure, the trade having the impression that the Pool was a seller, but the easier tone shown in the latter market was offset by the outlook for no rain in the southwest overnight. Winnipeg finished ⅛@¼c lower.

Foreign Interest.

Foreigners showed more interest in North American cash wheat and bought 300,000 to 400,000 bu, including 80,000 bu No. 2 hard taken at Baltimore at 2c under Chicago May, the latter being equal to about 92½c in store at Chicago. Broomhall raised his estimate on world's requirements 16,000,000 bu and now looks for imports of 636,000,000 bu, but says Russia, France and the Danube will be able to furnish the additional grain. Liverpool was strong and 1⅛@2⅛d higher at last, but Buenos Aires was weak from the start and closed 1⅝@1¾c lower.

General speculative interest in the wheat market was not large, with weather conditions the dominating influence, and erratic charges are expected by a majority of operators. Cables said that the British government had decided to pay a fixed price for wheat produced in that country this year in an effort to help agriculture, while Germany is said to be contemplating a further increase in the import duty which is 78c per bu at present, having been advanced sharply during the last few weeks.

May Corn Acts Tight.

May corn was not easy to buy without affecting the market and that delivery averaged higher, while the deferred months were easier as the result of scattered selling. The finish was ¼c higher to ¼c lower with May 85⅞@86c and July 87⅝@87¾c. The spot basis was 1c higher to ¼c lower, choice showing the most strength. Shipping sales aggregated 100,000 bu. Buenos Aires futures were ¼c lower for the day.

FOREIGNERS BUY LARD

Foreigners were good buyers of lard yesterday, orders coming especially from Hamburg and Rotterdam. Good sales of cash lard were made for export over night and commission house buying was increased. Offerings were well taken. Lard closed 20c to 22½c and bellies 17½c to 20c higher. Hog prices were steady to 15c higher and the run small as compared with a year ago. An important feature was the decrease of 93,801 lbs in western stocks during March compared with an increase of 4,021,000 lbs for the same time last year and 36,141,000 lbs two years ago.

Meat stocks decreased 19,102,000 lbs for the month against a loss of 11,986,000 lbs last year, and 40,279,000 lbs two years ago. Comparative stocks, with the last three ciphers omitted, follow:

SOUTHWEST CRIES FOR RAIN TO SAVE ITS WHEAT CROP

Observers Report Cut in Grain Acreage.

BY PAUL POTTER.

Grain growers of the central and southwest states have turned to the weather man with pleas for relief. Where earlier prospects were for an unusually heavy wheat crop and rural districts were pointing hopefully to the oncoming July harvest, the annual reports of four leading grain statisticians released in Chicago yesterday point to dire need of "more than the usual amount of rainfall" to fulfill these prospects.

Weather bureau reports last night showed Kansas and Oklahoma particularly short of rain in February and March. At Oklahoma City only 1½ inches of rain fell in these two months, compared with a normal of 3.20 inches. Topeka had only 1.20 inches instead of the normal 3.74.

Wheat Growers Need Rain.

"While reports from our crop observers over the winter wheat areas indicated in the last week of March that the crop would be about normal," declared Nat Murray, formerly crop statistician for the government, "only the fact that the subsoil in the southwest wheat fields had a good reserve of moisture is keeping the crop from serious damage."

There is likelihood of the unusually heavy "stooled" or branched out wheat plants tending toward straw production instead of good wheat kernels, if the weather man doesn't bring relief soon, Mr. Murray stated. He likened the fine looking fields in the southwest and parts of Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio to those he saw in Argentina last September, but which later proved a disappointment in that heavy wheat producing country.

See 560,000,000 Bushels.

Mr. Murray, B. W. Snow, R. O. Cromwell, and H. C. Donovan were agreed on the crop condition, within fractions of 1 per cent, and, with the exception of Mr. Cromwell, forecast a winter wheat crop of between 560,000,000 and 569,000,000 bushels. The 1929 crop amounted to 578,336,000 bushels.

Crop observers yesterday confirmed the statement of Chairman Alexander Legge of the federal farm board, who declared that the federal government's recent indication that farmers intended to reduce their wheat acreage but little this spring, was not a true picture of the situation.

"Our reporters, experienced in crop estimating, send in estimates which would point to a reduction of fully 10 per cent of the wheat acreage in Minnesota and Montana, about 7 per cent in South Dakota, and 9 per cent in North Dakota," Mr. Murray stated. This he compared with the government's report of 5 per cent decrease, a figure secured from questionnaires sent to 50,000 farmers in February.

WHEAT CROP ESTIMATE

A winter wheat crop of around 574,000,000 bu is suggested by the average of the reports of leading Chicago statisticians given to the trade yesterday, compared with 578,000,000 bu harvested last year. Murray estimated the abandonment acreage at 8.6 per cent, leaving 39,950,000 acres for harvest, against 40,162,000 acres last year, while Cromwell estimated the loss at 9 per cent, but might easily become 12 per cent, the latter being the same as the 10 year average.

Condition of winter wheat averages 81.4, or 4.6 per cent below Dec. 1, but is slightly above the 10 year average. Rye crop is estimated around 46,700,000 bu, against 43,300,000 bu harvested last year.

Murray estimates the Kansas wheat crop at 154,000,000 bu; Nebraska, 56,000,000 bu; Oklahoma, 48,000,000 bu; and Texas, 33,000,000 bu, a total of 291,000,000 bu, compared with 274,000,000 bu harvested in 1929. His returns suggest a decrease of 7.9 per cent in the spring wheat acreage in the United States and a reduction of 5.1 per cent in Canada. Details follow:

Botheration

Botheration is what some folks call it—that feeling you have when some unexpected setback throws your money plans all out of gear. Maybe a few hundred dollars or a thousand would put you back on schedule.

If you are one of those shiftless, thriftless, doless sort of fellows, you don't know what botheration means. But if you have a nature which frets over the things you ought to do but can't, then you know the feeling.

If a loan will help you to eliminate botheration, come in. We will try to help you.

PROTECTIVE COMMITTEE

Fox Film Corporation

6% Gold Notes dated April 1, 1929 and due April 1, 1930

To the Holders of Fox Film Corporation 6% Gold Notes dated April 1, 1929 and due April 1, 1930:

Fox Film Corporation has defaulted in the payment of payment of its above described notes which became due and payable on April 1, 1930. In order that the undersigned committee formed to protect noteholders may act promptly and effectively, you are requested in your own best interests to deposit your notes immediately with the committee by delivering the same to either of the depositaries mentioned below with interest coupons due April 1, 1930 attached, under deposit agreement dated January 29, 1930. Upon the deposit of note, certificates of deposit in bearer form will be issued.

Deposits received by the committee to date have been substantial. The committee reserves the right to limit the time within which notes may be deposited. Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company, 70 Broadway, New York City, and Central Trust Company of Illinois, 208 South La Salle Street, Chicago, Illinois, are acting as depositaries. Copies of the deposit agreement may be obtained from either of the depositaries or from the secretary of the committee.

In view of the many proceedings that have been instituted and are now pending before the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, and before the Supreme Court, State of New York, in which the affairs of Fox Film Corporation are involved, the committee believes that it is of the greatest importance to the noteholders that they should act through the committee, who can only act for the holders of notes deposited with it.

Dated New York City, April 3, 1930.

CENTRAL TRUST COMPANY OF ILLINOIS
208 South La Salle Street, Chicago, Illinois.

This story is in all its essential facts a true experience. Because of the confidential nature of The Northern Trust Company's relationships, identities and personal details have been disguised

He asked ten years for riches

. . . Time gave him two

HE needed ten years, perhaps . . . ten years to complete his bold and practical building of a great fortune.

. . . Time gave him two.

His estate, as it came to The Northern as trustee, was in danger of disastrous losses. All his investments were in second mortgages and real estate, much of which was vacant. The property was encumbered and there were debts at his bank and elsewhere.

To complicate matters further, inheritance taxes and probate expense required over $100,000 in cash. There was no life insurance, only a small bank account.

The trust officers might have raised the needed funds by selling at once the choicest pieces of property, or by converting the second mortgages into cash. But such a course would have resulted in a large shrinkage in the estate.

There was an alternative, which men of The Northern decided to take. They set out to carry through the plans of the estate's founder.

First they obtained a loan of $100,000 for the estate. Then by constant attention they gradually freed the properties from debt, liquidated them one by one at excellent prices as opportunity arose. In the meantime the family was maintained in comfort.

Ten years after it came to the trustee, the estate was worth three times the value set on it by the appraisers at the time of probate.

What are your plans for your estate?

You may write into your Will the aims and purposes you wish your estate to accomplish. But you depend upon others to carry out the spirit of the Will, to uphold impartially the interests of your heirs, to guard against summary and costly liquidation of valuable assets.

To do these tasks as though you yourself were here to supervise them has been the tradition of The Northern for forty years.

The Northern Trust Plan

From the experience of four decades certain money-saving pre-administrative practices have been developed to conserve net values against the serious shrinkages that usually occur. They are embodied in The Northern Trust Plan.

Precisely what this plan will save your estate, a discussion with a trust officer will speedily disclose. At its home on the northwest corner of La Salle and Monroe Streets a trust officer will be glad to confer with you.

Or full information about The Northern Trust Plan will be mailed to you upon request.

ASPIRING BULL MARKET JUST NOW IS WOBBLY

N. Y. Stocks Develop a Rather Lopsided Look.

petus for the decline, although bear activities were very much in evidence in some quarters. Realizing tendencies were particularly pronounced in the better grade of stocks. However, it became more and more evident as the day progressed that the market's condition was bearing heavily in the direction of reaction and many brokerage houses were counseling caution until the situation clears.

Considerable out of town selling was reported coming in over the wires.

Trading continued at a record pace with the ticker lagging thirty minutes or more behind sales for a good part of the session. The turnover was around 5,312,860 shares, as compared with yesterday's total of 5,395,170 shares. Most stocks started the day at higher price levels and for a while bull operators were able to congratulate themselves that the advance was going ahead.

Radio was the bright spot of the market for the bull forces. Rising with a show of its erstwhile vigor, it mounted some 2 points to the highest point since the break above 58, but had to surrender all but a fraction of its lead in the late dealings. The bulls made much of the company's favorable showing in its 1929 report in their concentrated buying. The demand for International Harvester likewise was based on its newly published 1929 annual report.

BUSINESS PERSONALS

Henry L. Rissman, for twenty-five years head of the Stratford Clothes organization, has been elected president of Jerrems, leading clothes manufacturers. Recently the company has reorganized its charter under the laws of Delaware and has increased its capitalization in anticipation of expansion. The new capitalization will consist of 7,500 shares of preferred stock and 15,000 shares of common.

Thermoid.

H. L.: Thermoid company, Trenton, N. J., was incorporated in Delaware in January, 1929, as successor to a business founded in 1897. Through its wholly owned subsidiaries it manufactures brake linings and asbestos and rubber products. In March, 1929, the company acquired 51 per cent of the outstanding capital stock of Southern Asbestos company, whose products it had used extensively.

Net from operations in 1929 was $1,045,152, which was $60,579 lower than 1928. The decrease was attributed to curtailment of shipments to new car builders in the fourth quarter. The above figures do not include the operations of Southern Asbestos company.

Earnings in 1929 were reported to be equal to $3.48 per share earned on the 244,994 shares of no par common outstanding on Dec. 31, 1929. Based on the average number of common shares outstanding during the year, earnings were $3.76 per share.

At the time of the original consolidation in January, 1929, earnings of the then wholly owned subsidiaries of Thermoid company for the year ended Dec. 31, 1928, were equivalent to $2.33 a share on the 200,000 shares of Thermoid company common outstanding.

As of Dec. 31, 1929, current assets were $3,326,843 and current liabilities were $553,791, leaving a net working capital of $2,772,552.

The common stock has been on a $2 annual dividend basis since an initial quarterly dividend was paid Nov. 1, 1929.

The preferred stock is fairly high grade. The common is medium grade and somewhat speculative at present.

Rio Grande Oil.

Miss M. S. M.: For the year ended Dec. 31, 1929, Rio Grande Oil company reported net income of $5,659,943, equal to $4.58 per share on 1,236,700 no par shares.

As of Dec. 31, 1929, current assets were $6,041,856 and current liabilities $4,017,664.

Earned surplus as of that date was $4,321,911.

Rio Grande Oil company capital stock is medium grade and semi-speculative. Dividends were resumed in July and are at the annual rate of $2.

Pure Oil.

M. L. S.: Pure Oil company $20,000,000 ten year sinking fund 5½ per cent notes, due March 1, 1940, are a suitable investment for a business man's funds.

SAUSAGE FIRM PLANS $500,000 WEST SIDE PLANT

Buys Site at Randolph and Carpenter.

BY AL CHASE.

What is claimed will be one of the most modern sausage plants in the country, to represent a total investment in land and building of more than half a million dollars, is announced for the northwest corner of Randolph and Carpenter streets, by the Chicago Sausage company. This site was acquired by purchase from the H. C. Christians company, a butter and egg concern. It has a frontage on the two streets of 265 feet and contains 19,000 square feet of land.

In addition the Chicago Sausage company bought eighty feet of frontage on Carpenter street, adjoining the corner parcel, from Thomas W. and John W. Keelin and Mabel Keelin Keefe. The total area of the site for the new sausage factory is 29,000 square feet, with a total street frontage of 345 feet.

Outgrew Factory Site.

In the Christians deal the Chicago Sausage company gave in part payment the property bounded by Ohio, Peoria, and Milwaukee, containing 15,000 square feet, which was acquired some time ago for its plant, but found inadequate to care for the growing business of the company. The real estate involved in the transaction has a reported value of approximately $225,000. John V. Purtell and Anna Johannsen of the First Realty company were brokers.

Bruno Richter, president of the Chicago Sausage company, states that he is now having plans prepared for a plant which will cover the entire property just purchased. It will be three stories in height, and he says it will bear no resemblance architecturally to a packing house plant. Plans are to be completed within ninety days, and construction will start in the near future.

Concern Is Ten Years Old.

This is the tenth anniversary of the organization. Mr. Richter at that time owned a small retail meat market in Jefferson Park. He conceived the idea of making a special high grade sausage, and a small plant, employing only three men, was started on Armitage avenue. The company grew rapidly, and recently the stockholders authorized a merger with the Milwaukee Sausage company. The combined business is now handled in three separate plants, employing a large force of men.

The sixteen flats at the northeast corner of Francisco and Cullom, lot 50x125 feet, have been transferred by Clarence and L. E. Anderson to John A. Westland. There is an incumbrance of $53,000 on the property.

COTTON PRICES DECLINE

Cotton markets had fair support early yesterday but under increased offerings of May and July, combined with the fact that the short interest has been reduced by the recent sharp advance, helped bring about a sharp reaction, with the close almost the lowest of the day.

Net losses on futures were 20 to 28 points in Chicago and 16 to 28 points in other markets. Spots in New York were off 10c to 16.55c, New Orleans dropped 20c to 16.05c, Galveston was 16.25c, and Houston 16.10c. Prices follow:

MARCH BUILDING HERE $4,597,800; STILL IN DECLINE

Chicago's building permits totaled $4,597,800 for last March, in comparison with $20,523,500 for March, 1929, according to the building research department of S. W. Straus & Co. This was a loss of 77 per cent from last year's figure. The total for February of this year was $5,400,000. Chicago's building volume for the first quarter of this year was $15,482,900, compared with $42,474,200 for the same period of last year.

CORP. SECURITIES CO. PLANS $34,375,000 OFFERING OF STOCK

Listing of 3,000,000 shares of class A nonvoting stock of the Indian Territory Illuminating company and 2,500,000 shares of no par common stock of Corporation Securities company was approved yesterday by governors of the Chicago Stock exchange.

Offering of 1,250,000 shares of Corporation Securities will be made shortly by Utilities Securities at $27.50 a share, comprising a total valuation of $34,375,000. Upon completion of the financing the company will have authorized capitalization of 1,000,000 shares of no par prior preferred stock, 1,000,000 shares of no par preferred stock, and 6,000,000 shares of no par common. Of the authorized stock, 749,531 preferred shares and 4,000,898½ shares of common will be outstanding.

The company was organized last year by a group including the Insull interests and Halsey, Stuart & Co. Stock was originally offered in units of one share of common and one share of preferred. It was announced last week that the common would be placed on a 6 per cent annual dividend basis in June.

The issue of Indian Territory Illuminating company, which is a Cities Service subsidiary, will be traded in today. It controls, through stock ownership, operating companies producing natural gas in Oklahoma.

Governors also approved listing of $3,000,000 first mortgage 6 per cent sinking fund bonds of the Texas Utility company. The bonds will be offered by P. W. Champan & Co. at approximately 98.

MISS GHEEN, INC., LEASES SPACE ON NORTH MICHIGAN

Miss Gheen, Inc., interior decorator, now at 163 East Ontario street, and with offices in New York, has leased the south half of the fifth floor of the Decorative Arts building, at 620 North Michigan avenue, for a two year term. Miss Marian H. Gheen, vice president, is in charge of the local office.

The new establishment will open about June 1, following extensive alterations. McMenemy & Martin and the Bowes Realty company were brokers. The Women's Athletic club and the McCormick Y. W. C. A. are among the many clients of the lessee.

Top yesterday, $9.75; average, $9.20.

Estimated receipts at Chicago today, 6,000 cattle, 18,000 hogs, and 14,000 sheep.

Hogs weakened at soon after a 10@15c higher opening yesterday and most of the gain was lost before the close. The extreme top moved up 5c at $10.40, while the general average showed 10c advance at $9.90, owing to the small proportion that sold at the late weakness.

A decline of 2@4c per pound in fresh pork loins in two days restricted the buying power of small packers and city butchers. Shipping orders were smallest for midweek in some time, outsiders taking only 1,500 head. Five western markets expect only 45,500 hogs today against 58,900 the previous Thursday.

Hog Futures Stronger.

Although volume of trading was smaller on the hog futures market yesterday, prices were fully steady to strong and some sales showed slight gains. April light at $10.50 were 10c higher and May light steady at $10.45.

June light were offered at $10.60 and bid $10.30 and September light were offered at $10.90@11.00 and bid $10.40. Light hogs for next Monday's and Tuesday's delivery were bid $10.35@10.40 on the "to arrive" market and $10.50 for today's delivery. Heavy grades were offered for Friday's delivery at $10.15, but $9.50 was the best bid.

The cattle market was a two way affair yesterday, better grades of steers selling readily at strong to higher prices, while others ruled weak to lower again. The latter kinds show losses of 25@40c for the week. Choice 1,283 lb steers topped the market at $14.65, while 1,325 lb averages sold at $14.50.

Bulk of cattle brought $11.00@13.90, against $11.40@13.50 last Thursday. Cows and heifers were mostly steady, some 650 lb heifers selling at $12.60. Calves were steady to weak.

Lamb Market Stronger.

Fat lambs sold readily at strong to 25c higher prices yesterday. Most wool stock brought $8.75@9.25, with top kinds largely at $9.50@9.75. Lambs without fleece met good demand at $8.00@8.65 and best selections in this branch sold at $9.00@9.25, a load of shorn lambs to city butchers at the outside figure being in a class by themselves.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 6,000 cattle, 18,000 hogs, and 14,000 sheep, against 6,527 cattle, 20,192 hogs, and 15,280 sheep the previous Thursday, and 8,517 cattle, 32,097 hogs, and 9,575 sheep a year ago.

Pennsylvania Four Mill Tax Refundable

Guaranty Trust Company of New York, Trustee

A letter from Mr. J. J. Newberry, President of the Company, copies of which can be obtained upon request, has been summarized by him as follows:

The Company, directly or through wholly owned subsidiaries, is engaged in the business of retailing a wide variety of merchandise in the price range of 5c to $1.00. Starting with one store in 1912 the business has shown a steady growth and is now operating a chain of 290 stores, located principally in the east in the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania and in the west in the States of California and Washington.

This Issue

The proceeds of this issue are to be used for the retirement of indebtedness incurred in connection with the Company's expansion program, for further expansion and for additional working capital.

Sales and Earnings

Combined gross sales of the Company and subsidiaries have increased from $276,449 in 1918 to $27,789,369 in 1929.

Consolidated net earnings (excluding non-recurring profits) of the Company and subsidiaries after depreciation but before interest and Federal Income Tax, as certified by Messrs. Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., for the years 1927 to 1929 inclusive and as reported by the companies for the prior two years, have shown a steady and uninterrupted increase from $615,996 in 1925 to $2,089,199 in 1929.

The average of such net earnings for five years amounted to $1,313,830 or more than 2½ times annual interest charges on these Notes and on outstanding mortgages and dividends on subsidiary company preferred stock. Such net earnings in 1929 amounted to more than 4 times such annual charges.

No allowance has been made in the foregoing ratios for any benefits from the additional funds for expansion being provided by this financing.

Balance Sheet

The consolidated balance sheet of the Company and subsidiaries as of December 31, 1929, adjusted to give effect to this financing, shows tangible assets, after deducting $1,061,000 preferred stock of a subsidiary company outstanding in the hands of the public and all liabilities (including $2,594,000 purchase money mortgages) other than these Notes, of $17,964,908. Current assets amount to more than $7,200,000 and current liabilities to $925,357.

Conversion Privilege

The Trust Indenture will contain provisions for the protection of the conversion privilege in case of subdivision of the Company's common stock into a greater number of shares, in case of a stock dividend, in certain cases of the issuance of additional common stock at less than the then existing conversion price, and in case of consolidation or merger of the Company or sale of its assets. The range in market price of the Company's common stock on the New York Curb Exchange and net income per share (prices and net income adjusted to give effect to the distribution of stock dividends) have been as follows:

	Price Range (adjusted) High	Low	Net Income per Share (adjusted)
1925	Not listed		$1.38
1927	103	56	2.43
1929	93¾	40	3.15

A dividend of 300%, payable in common stock, was paid in 1926 and one of 50% in 1929. Rights to subscribe for additional stock to the extent of 10% of holdings were also given in 1928 and 1929. Cash dividends are being paid at the rate of $1.10 per share per annum. Present market price for the common stock is about $45 per share.

Equity

The Company has outstanding $5,000,000 7% cumulative Preferred Stock and 395,314 shares of Common Stock which, at present quoted prices, have an indicated market value of more than $22,000,000.

Application will be made to list these Notes and the common stock on the New York Stock Exchange

Authorized and presently to be issued, $5,000,000. Coupon Notes in denomination of $1,000, registerable as to principal only. Interest payable April 1 and October 1, without deduction for normal Federal Income Tax up to 2%. Principal and interest payable at the principal office of Guaranty Trust Company of New York.

Redeemable, as a whole or in part, at the option of the Company at any time on 30 days notice at 103% and accrued interest to and including April 1, 1934, the premium decreasing ½ of 1% for each year or fraction thereof elapsed thereafter.

99 and accrued interest, to yield 5⅝%

When, as and if issued and received by us and subject to the approval of counsel. All legal details pertaining to this issue will be passed upon for the Bankers by Messrs. Davis, Polk, Wardwell, Gardiner & Reed and for the Company by Claude V. Pallister, Esq. It is expected that temporary Notes or interim receipts will be ready for delivery on or about April 21, 1930.

SYNOPSIS.

Catherine West of Boston is on her way to Paris. In the train from Havre she is introduced by a boat acquaintance to Geoffrey Macadam, who occupies a seat in the same compartment in the Paris train. She learns that he is an Englishman, but a resident of Paris. He is the junior member in the law firm of Macadam & Langtree. Catherine is on her day to visit Mme. Belmont Bender in Paris, who is the widow of her cousin, Harry Bender. Geoffrey Macadam tells Catherine that his firm handles Mme. Bender's affairs and he knows her slightly. Catherine confides to him that she is a little apprehensive about the coming visit because she learned just before she sailed that Mme. Bender was ill. There seems to be some mystery about the illness. Catherine shows Mr. Macadam a rather incoherent but alarming letter about her cousin's condition, written to her by Hermione Cushing. Macadam tells Catherine that Miss Cushing is an American who teaches singing in Paris.

INSTALLMENT IV.

PARIS AT LAST!

One would not call Miss West pretty, Macadam decided. Pretty was too commonplace and trivial a word. No, there was a sort of high loveliness about her which attracted and held him, showing as much in her expression as in the fine lines of her slender body. When her eyes ran over with that golden, liquid fire it was as though emotion had suddenly fused something clear and intense in her very soul. It made one think she had a greater capacity for feeling than most of the women one meets. Now, because she was looking pensive and downcast, perhaps over her own rashness, Macadam longed to find some way of relieving her anxiety. But how? The small amount he knew was not reassuring.

"At any rate," he said, "I don't see that you need worry. I happen to know that your cousin is under the care of a reputable physician who probably understands her case."

"An American?"

"No—French, I believe."

"She's changed, then. Cousin Harry always had an American doctor. But it doesn't matter, so long as she's in good hands. Well, I suppose it's all right my going to stay there. Anyway, I hope so."

So did he. The truth was he was finding himself quite unreasonably concerned over the thought that this singularly attractive girl was about to become the sole companion of an invalid whose sanity was in grave dispute. She might be letting herself in for something acutely unpleasant. He himself had known at least one case of so-called "circular insanity" where the patient after a long period of normal conduct had veered with startling abruptness into homicidal mania, and ended by inflicting a knife wound upon a member of his family. He had not yet heard of any violence in Mme. Bender's case, but even so it would be extremely depressing to live with an unbalanced person for any length of time. Miss Cushing's account of things, garbled and difficult to follow, rushed into his mind so forcibly that for an instant he opened his lips to utter a guarded warning. Then, simply because he had long been trained in grooves of legal discretion, he decided that it was no business of his to interfere. The words remained unspoken.

When the train pulled into the Gare St. Lazare dusk was deepening into night. Doors banged open, porters swarmed into the carriages clamoring for hand luggage, there was a confused surging exodus of passengers on to the grimy platform.

As Catherine let her companion help her into her gray squirrel coat she felt a thrill of happy excitement. Paris at last! How she had longed for it, ever since her single brief visit four years ago! The very staccato babble filling her ears had an exotic sound, heralding an era of freedom and romance she had dreamed of for weeks past. How stupid of her to upset herself over imagined difficulties! Everything was going to be perfect. . . .

What was Mr. Macadam saying?

"Shall you be able to recognize this servant who is coming to meet you?"

"Eduardo? O, certainly! I'd know him anywhere. He's a sort of mongrel Portuguese, looks as though he ought to have rings in his ears and a knife between his teeth, but quite decent, really. He must be somewhere among the crowd."

While a blue clad brigand fastened her bags together with a thick strap and slung them over a nonchalant shoulder she scanned the platform with an eager eye.

"I'll stay with you, if you don't mind, till you find him," suggested the young man tentatively.

"Thank you, though it's not at all necessary. He's sure to be here."

She accepted the hand outstretched to assist her down the awkward step and, looking this way and that, followed her porter's slouching figure towards the exit. Humanity jostled her, raucous voices shouted "Attention!" and more than once she was glad of the protecting pressure on her arm as some heavily laden truck trundled ruthlessly upon her, bent upon destruction.

Somewhere amid this seething mass her cousin's servant must be searching for her, but although she peered into every passer's face she could descry no one faintly resembling him.

"Probably he's been held up by the traffic. Better let me see you through all this business so as not to waste time."

She turned grateful eyes upon him, her brow faintly furrowed with uncertainty.

"It is too good of you! But aren't you in a hurry to get away?"

"I've nothing to do but go home to dinner," he assured her. "Here we are. Your trunk ought to be down near the end of the line."

It was comforting to be looked after. No woman, however independent, really likes doing this sort of thing unaided. Still anxiously studying the crowd, she let him guide her through the chaos.

Eduardo was not there.

In the open space taxis honked and porters jostled each other with the peculiarly vicious abandon characteristic of Paris. A few private cars were drawn up, and each of these they examined searchingly, sure that one among them must be Mme. Bender's. However, in turn they were claimed, and drove away.

"You say you sent a telegram?" inquired Catherine's traveling companion.

"Certainly, as soon as the boat docked. Of course it may have gone astray."

"Possibly. That does, of course, occasionally happen."

She glanced at him with indecision. Twenty minutes had now passed, and there was no sign that any one was coming to meet her. It was of no great importance, yet she could not deny that she felt a little chilled.

"O, well, there's no good hanging about. I'll just get into a taxi and go along by myself."

He had not noticed in the train how young she looked, and how slender, almost fragile. Standing now against the dingy building with the cold draught whipping her squirrel coat about her silk clad knees, she seemed to him altogether unfit to be venturing across a strange city unescorted. At the moment her dark eyes held a shadow of wistfulness strongly appealing to his protective instincts.

He found himself suggesting solicitously.

She shook her head quickly.

Still she was conscious of a warm appreciation, more pronounced than she would have felt if the offer had come from one of the cheerful, less restrained youths of her acquaintance. She had begun by considering him cold and severe, almost frightening. Now she was not so sure.

"Here's a taxi. I don't in the least mind going alone, really. It's not as if I didn't speak French."

Her manner brooking no argument, he somewhat reluctantly handed her into the waiting cab and gave directions to the driver. Yet he was not quite satisfied.

Jews Honoring Balfour's Act for Palestine

Send Resolutions to His Relatives.

Gratitude for the service Lord Arthur James Balfour rendered the Jewish people in his declaration for a Jewish national homeland was expressed last night by Chicago Jewry at a memorial meeting in the Congress hotel. Resolutions of sorrow were adopted by the Chicago Zionist organization and copies will be sent, according to Max Shulman, president, to the dead statesman's relatives in Great Britain and to the Zionist organization in England.

"The Zionist organization of Chicago expresses its profound grief and sorrow at the death of Arthur James Balfour, whose name will forever be enshrined in the heart of Jewish people," the resolutions declared. "In this period of travail when the state of the Jewish national home is being decided his wisdom, courage, and statesmanship would have meant much in the councils of the British government. The name of Balfour will forever be associated with the national rebirth of the Jewish people."

Mr. Shulman, who presided at the meeting, said that of all declarations made during the world war none created so profund a sensation as the Balfour declaration. Similar tributes were paid by Rabbi Solomon Goldman, Judge Harry M. Fisher, Dr. S. M. Melamed, Rabbi Saul Silber, Rabbi Felix A. Levy, and Pearl Franklin, head of Chicago Hadassah.

"It was not so much world diplomacy as Jewish destiny," Mr. Shulman continued. "It transformed a mystic dream into a practical reality. It gave the Jews an official status and an opportunity to build their home.

"Lord Balfour was a true and understanding friend who remained loyal to our cause and ready to defend it. Only recently when the Palestine inquiry commission was on its way home he demanded that a new commission be appointed to study and examine the workings of Great Britain's Palestine mandate, which was predicated upon the Balfour declaration.

"The author of the declaration is no more, but his declaration will live. The Jewish people will endeavor to translate the declaration into a living reality and thereby perpetuate the memory of its author."

The dedication tomorrow of the new $1,750,000 Temple Sholom and Frankenstein Memorial center, 3480 Sheridan road, opens one of Chicago's most impressive religious edifices. The structure has been under construction for three years. Invitations to the dedication have been sent to Gov. Emmerson and to all Illinois senators and representatives at Washington, D. C. Northwestern university and University of Chicago delegations will be present.

The new temple has a seating capacity of 1,600. This capacity may be increased to 3,000. In addition to Rabbi Abram Hirshberg, spiritual leader of Sholom congregation, the following will participate in the ceremonies: Dr. Louis Wolsey, Philadelphia; Dr. Morris Feuerlicht, Indianapolis; Dr. Samuel Hirschberg, Milwaukee, and Dr. Louis Mann, Sinai temple, Chicago.

The first Jewish women's social organization at the University of Chicago was formed on the campus yesterday by a group of young women students. The society, to be known as Aychud, was sponsored by Mrs. Edith Foster Flint, chairman of the university women's council, and has the sanction of the university authorities. Officers are: Miss Dorothy Lindenbaum, president; Miss Dorothy Zernts, vice president; Miss Ann Safarstine, secretary; and Miss Rose Gilblichman, treasurer.

The National Home for Jewish Children in Denver was benefited to the extent of $1,000 through proceeds of the play "Peter Pan," given yesterday by Chicago auxiliary members of the home at the La Salle hotel. The home was established for children whose parents are sufferers of tuberculosis.

Behavior of Newest Planet Is All That Can Be Expected

Flagstaff, Ariz., April 2.—(AP)—Officials of Lowell observatory said today doubts of the planet's existence as expressed by some European scientists had not caused cessation in the observatory's investigation of the new planet.

"Since its discovery we have been following it continuously," Dr. V. M. Slipher, observatory director, said. "Dr. C. O. Lampland has made scores of plates and has observed it through the large refractory telescope.

"As the object has been followed and its orbit computed it has behaved exactly as expected. It has been following the course that the trans-Neptunian planet would follow, according to computations of Dr. Percival Lowell. Its motion, from the time it was first picked up, until today, has been along the trans-Neptunian path."

Dr. Slipher said he was not yet prepared to make known any definite estimate of the planetary mass. He explained that the observations have not been prolonged enough to warrant official announcement of such facts as are in course of collection.

"We have been engaged continuously in this compilation," he said, "and we will continue to be so engaged."

Boy Scouts, with Old Plainsmen, to Mark Oregon Trail

Boy Scouts will join the old pioneer scouts of the west in the centennial of the Oregon Trail Memorial association commemorating the departure of the first covered wagon over the Rocky mountains.

On July 3, according to a bulletin issued yesterday by the Boy Scouts of America, scouts from all over the country will gather for a prairie encampment at Independence Rock or Red Buttes, Wyo.

The present day scouts wildl hear stories from veterans of old trails. They will take an active part in marking old trails and places identified with the development of the west.

Lorne W. Barclay, executive officer of the World Scout jamboree camp in Birkenhead, England, last summer, will have charge of the camp.

Phoebe Nelson Heads the Radcliffe Athletic Assn.

Cambridge, Mass., April 2.—Phoebe Nelson of 44 East Elm street, Chicago, was elected next year's president of the Radcliffe College Athletic association. Mary Sherman of 21 Brewster avenue, La Grange, was elected president of Eliot hall dormitory. Both belong to the class of 1931.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Question.

What musical instrument do you like best?

The Answers.

G. R. Damiani, 8556 Ogden avenue, Lyons, Ill., mail order business.—I like the violin best. When I was a boy I played a violin for a year or so, then dropped it. I have a son of 15 who is studying violin and doing very well. He uses the same instrument I did when a boy.

Miss Bessie O'Connor, 4438 South Homan avenue, switchboard operator.—I like the piano first, the clarinet second; better, both of them in duet, for in that way each instrument furnishes the finishing touches for the other. Both are old instruments, but only recently have we heard much of the clarinet. Now every café orchestra has one or more clarinets.

John Cusick, Hammond, Ind., lawyer. — The cornstalk fiddle. It's not much in the way of music, but for me it brings back memories of childhood days that can't be surpassed by any other past, present, or future musical instrument. The cornstalk fiddle is made of a section of a cornstalk, the strings being a thread of the tough fiber, and the bow being the same contraption.

Miss Carolyn Templeton, 4900 Blackstone avenue, telephone operator. — The piano. I don't play it, but I wish I could—piano salesmen please don't call; I'm not in the market right now. When we were kids we had a piano, but we all ran away from it. I once started to learn to play it, but it wasn't play.

Joseph Samac, 350 East 26th street, clerk.—The violin. Its reception over the radio is clear and natural. I am quite good on the harmonica. I learned it in school. Big numbers can be played on the violin, but you can get something out of any instrument that you can play.

Senn H. S. Band Shows Why It Wins Contests

Concert Given with Spirit by 120 Pieces.

BY EDWARD MOORE.

It has become an annual event for the Senn High school band to give a concert. Conducted by Capt. A. R. Gish, it played the sixth of the series at Orchestra hall last evening, and in the course of the program it illustrated how it is that championship contests are won.

This band has a considerable amount of talent in its 120 or so members. Its tone is good and its instruments are kept in tune, and after observing quite a number of amateur bands the conclusion is slowly reached that keeping the instruments in tune is more or less up to the conductor. The Senn band likewise plays with spirited rhythm and a good approach to expression. For these and other cognate reasons it has made its standing in state and national contests.

The program ranged as far afield from customary band programs as Beethoven's "Egmont" overture and the finale of Wagner's "Die Walküre," and from there back to present day popular music. There is one point in which the band situation in general seems to stand in need if programs are to be more ambitious than popular music. That point is some modernized and clarified instrumentations made by men who understand bands. At present the balance is greatly in favor of the popular music arrangers. One remembers in last night's performance the really fine clarity and quality of Romberg's "New Moon" selections, as compared with the muddiness of Grieg's "Wedding Day at Troldhaugen" just before. This was not a question of playing, but of what there was to play.

Postponed because of last week's blizzard, Evelyn Shapiro gave her piano recital at Kimball hall last night. After a few moments of nervousness at the beginning, she settled down into a commendable clear touch on the keyboard which was employed in logical and yet reasonably imaginative interpretations. Her program went from the old school of Bach-Liszt, Mozart, and Scarlatti through the Schumann G minor sonata, then to a group of moderns, and concluded with a group by Liszt and Chopin.

THE STAGE

THE Dramatic League of Chicago, which staged five plays at the Princess theater this season, has issued a formal announcement of its plans for next season. Six plays will be given at the Princess for engagements of four weeks each, beginning Oct. 13. The subscription plan will be continued.

The organization names thirteen plays from which its six productions will be selected. These plays, the rights to which are now controlled by the Dramatic league's sponsors, are:

"Dr. Harmer's Holiday," by Arthur Wing Pinero; "The Last Enemy," by Frank Harvey; "Nine Till Six," by Amy and Philip Stewart; "As You Wish Me," by Luigi Pirandello; "A Symphony in Two Flats," by Ivor Novello; "Success," by A. A. Milne; "The Woman in the Clouds," by Rudolph Lothar and Alexander Lernet-Holenia; "Wolf! Wolf!", by Franz Molnar; "The Man in Possession," by H. M. Harwood; "Dice," by Arpad Posztor; "Curiosity," by Elmer Harris; "In the Zone," by Eugene O'Neill (in one act), and "Allice Takats," by Dezsio Szomory.

Certain plays which have had New York runs this season may be used by the Dramatic league for emergency purposes. They include "Topaze," "Death Takes a Holiday," and "Meet Lady Clara." The league calls attention to the fact that four of the five plays which it sponsored here this season are now running in New York—"The First Mrs. Fraser," "The Infinite Shoeblack," "The Matriarch," and "Dear Old England."

Fritz Leiber and his Chicago Civic Shakespeare company will close their engagement at the Shubert theater, New York, next Saturday night. That will end the tour also. They will call it a season and come back home—as many of them as live here. A New York run that would carry well into the warm weather had been expected.

Jed Harris, producer of "The Front Page," "The Royal Family," "Coquette," and other notable successes of recent seasons, will end his brief retirement from Broadway activities week after next. On Tuesday, April 15, he will stage at the Cort theater, New York, Tchekhov's "Uncle Vanya," in a version by Rose Caylor [Mrs. Ben Hecht]. The play comes from the repertory of the Moscow Art theater. Lillian Gish will lead the cast.

"Mebbe," the piece which Charlotte Greenwood will bring to the Erlanger theater Easter Sunday, is a farce-comedy written by B. M. Kaye and staged by Henry Duffy, the California manager. It sounds as if it might be "She Couldn't Say No," which was acted by Florence Moore in New York in 1926 under another title. This same author, Mr. Kaye, was recently represented briefly on the Broadway stage by "I Want My Wife," which closed last Saturday after a run of a week and a half. Bryant Washburn, a star of the old movie galaxy and a Chicagoan when the Essanay and Selig cinema plants were located on the north side, will help Miss Greenwood interpret "Mebbe." C. C.

Alumni Seek $400,000 for U. of C. Yearly

Part of Sum May Raise Pay of Faculty.

The starting of an alumni gift fund which will provide the University of Chicago with $400,000 annually, the equivalent of 5 per cent interest on an endowment fund of $8,000,000, was announced last night by L. Brent Vaughan, chairman of the gift committee.

The plan was started last week with an appeal to 20,000 alumni of the university, and already $25,000 has been raised through the gifts of about thirty alumni, ranging from $10 to $5,000. An appeal to 15,000 more alumni is being sent out this week, Mr. Vaughan said.

The committee conducting the gift campaign expects to raise $100,000 in ninety days, and will continue its activities until the total of $400,000 is raised. The gifts which alumni pledge will be paid annually, until the donor cancels the agreement himself.

The purpose of the gift fund, Mr. Vaughan announced, is to develop the undergraduate colleges through the creation of additional scholarships and to put the undergraduate schools on the same basis in point of merit as that for which the graduate schools have long been noted. A part of the money, the committee hopes, will be used to increase faculty salaries to improve the standard of instruction.

No stipulations, however, for the use of the fund, as a whole, are attached to the gift. The only conditions are those which individual donors may elect to attach to their particular gifts, Mr. Vaughan said. Some of those who already have pledged annual gifts have stipulated that their contributions shall be used for the Rush Medical college, but most of them have been unconditional.

The money will be turned over to President Robert Maynard Hutchins as it is collected and he will decide the uses to which it will be put. It is hoped some will go to raise the pay of the faculty.

President Hutchins and Mr. Vaughan will go to New York on April 21, where they will outline the gift plan to the eastern alumni at a dinner of the University of Chicago Alumni club of New York. The campaign is being conducted independently by the committee as individual alumni and not as members of the alumni association or alumni clubs, Mr. Vaughan said.

Besides Mr. Vaughan, other members of the committee are William Scott Bond, Albert W. Schere, Paul S. Russell, Arthur W. Cody, and Dr. Fred Speik.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rosenwald Are in New York After Trip

New York, April 2.—(AP)—After a wedding trip to Italy, Greece, and Egypt, Julius Rosenwald, Chicago philanthropist, returned to New York today on the liner Majestic with his bride, the former Mrs. Adelaide Goodkind, to whom he was married last January. The couple sailed for Italy on the Saturnia the day after the ceremony and Mr. Rosenwald said they had had a "most pleasant" trip. They will remain in New York for several days before returning to Chicago.

U. S. Delegates Favor Equal Nationality Rights for Women

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

THE HAGUE, April 2.—The proposal of the United States delegates on the question of the nationality of women was adopted today by the nationality commission of the world codification conference on international law.

The American proposal recommends to all the countries there represented that, in principal and practice of their governments' law, there shall be no distinction based on sex, with particular consideration for the interests of children.

The United States delegates voted against motions containing unequal rights between men and women in questions of nationality and marriage, and abstained from voting on all other motions.

BEG YOUR PARDON

In the Metropolitan section of last SUNDAY'S TRIBUNE it was erroneously reported that the Associated Clubs of Woodlawn had adopted a resolution protesting against the construction of the La Rabida sanitarium in Jackson park. According to Mrs. D. J. Stevison, president of the organization, the resolution was not adopted by the association, but rather at a massmeeting of citizens immediately following the association's meeting.

The name of George B. McKibbin, candidate for sanitary district trustee on the Civic ticket, was misspelled in THE TRIBUNE of yesterday, due to an error by the publicity department at Deneen headquarters.

Here's an Exhibition for Those Preferring Fine Horses, Dogs

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

Whoever is lover of horse and dog, of polo or hunting or racing, the exhibit of etchings at the O'Brien Art galleries will ensnare his affections as rapidly as it did mine.

Paul Brown is the artist responsible for the horse prints and he has a half dozen or so which are magnificently exciting. His horses are lean, well bred, highly trained creatures and he has caught them in action, sweeping around a curve on the track, stretching over a long jump, striding down a green field, with a beauty of execution that does them justice.

"Hard-a-Port" is a stunning moment in a race with the horses thundering around the turn; the balance and swing of horse and rider is brilliantly managed. Again in "The Stretch" is the magic of the inside of the track shown. "Into the Plow" and one rider sails gloriously to the jump. Three horses like birds skim "The Ruabon Water Jump." A quiet moment of anticipation is suggested in "Where Away," a solitary hunter on a hill. Two composite prints of the Grand National Steeplechase are amusing and the "High Ball" is a triumph in character study during a polo game.

The dog etchings bring to the fore the names of Marguerite Kirnse and Diana Thorne. A third artist joins them with the name of Morgan Steinmetz attached to three clever prints, "A Tight Squeeze," "Detour" (in which two Scotties avoid a cat without losing their poise), and "Strictly Business." Diana Thorne shows a number of sympathetic interpretations of dogs of various breeds. Possibly "A Sub-Deb of Boston," "Social Climbers," and "The Problem Play" are the best of these. Marguerite Kirnse still holds the lead in the power and beauty and uncanny skill at portraiture with which she depicts dogs. Her Scotties and wire haired terriers are marvelous. Her "Aristocrats" is one of the most beautiful etchings that has ever been made with dogs for the subject.

Ten magnificent heads by Arthur William Heintzelman complete the exhibit. They are heads of women with the exception of an old mountaineer and an accordion player. The "Madonna" and "The Virgin and Infant" are particularly lovely. The music hall scene is charming and the portrait of the child "Baba" is delightful.

The exhibit will continue through April.

Group of Physicians Favor Natural 100% Bran for Constipation

Not long ago ten thousand doctors were asked this question. "Do you believe that raw natural 100% bran is the best form of bran for the relief of constipation?"

93% of the answers were "Yes."

Pillsbury's Bran is natural 100% bran—nothing added, nothing taken away. Doctors say natural 100% bran is best. Think over these two statements—then go to your grocer tomorrow, get a package of Pillsbury's Bran, and start the natural relief of that aggravating and dangerous condition. The unpleasant results of constipation are well-known—headaches, lassitude, sallow complexion, loss of sleep, nervousness, loss of vitality and increased susceptibility to more serious diseases.

Add roughage to your diet—primitive man ate roughage, and had no constipation. Pillsbury's Bran is roughage in a particularly effective form. You can use it to prepare many delicious foods—muffins, tea cakes, apple cake, macaroons, doughnuts, etc.—the recipes are on the Pillsbury package. You can sprinkle it over salads, or mix it with cereals. You can eat it as it comes from the package, with cream and sugar. No matter how you eat it, Pillsbury's Bran is the best kind of bran—natural 100% bran, recommended by this overwhelming majority of doctors.

Business Will Rely on Young Chicagoans for Boosting of City

A pledge of citizenship to carry on the battle against Chicago's "defamers and to reveal its true greatness to all with whom they come in contact" is expected to be made by 700,000 boys under 21 years of age. They will be enlisted by the Better Business bureau during Boys' week, May 14-21, to defend the city's name, it was announced yesterday.

"The present generation of Chicagoans needs a baptism of that pride and loyalty which the older generation had in building the World's Fair in 1893," William J. Bogan, superintendent of schools, declared in making the announcement. Mr. Bogan is chairman of the executive committee of the Chicago Boys' Week federation.

"Business leaders of this city are to be commended on the plan of reestablishing the city's reputation, and as chairman of the group of boy leaders committed to a program of juvenile betterment between now and 1933, I pledge the aid of the youth of the city in this loyalty movement."

Mr. Bogan said many have a mistaken idea about Chicago youths, hearing only of boy gangs. He said visitors to schools, workshops, clubs, and other centers of youthful activity would be amazed at the ambition and intelligence of the city's young people.

Germany Hears 'America,' Ernest Block's Smyphony

LEIPZIG, Germany, April 2.—(AP)—The symphony "America," which won a $3,000 prize in 1927 for Ernest Block, was given its first production in this country tonight from a local broadcasting studio. Mr. Block, whose home now is in San Francisco, was formerly director of the Cleveland Institute of Music. The prize which he won was offered by the magazine Musical America.

The symphony "America" was given its first performance by the New York Philharmonic orchestra at Carnegie hall in the fall of 1928. Since then it has been played numerous times by the Boston, Chicago, Los Angeles, and San Francisco symphony orchestras.

Mr. Block was born in Geneva and studied in Germany and Paris. He came to America in 1916, as conductor of an orchestra accompanying Maud Allen, a dancer. For six years he has been director of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 2.—The German ambassador and Frau von Prittwitz und Gaffron gave a luncheon today in honor of Count and Countess Felix von Luckner, who are spending a few days in Washington. They are making a tour of the world in their yacht "Die Vaterland," which they left in New York when they came here. The ambassador and wife entertained at tea yesterday in compliment to a party of German newspaper men making a tour of this country.

Count von Luckner, who is one of the outstanding figures of the world war, made an address at Trinity college tonight.

Mrs. Ray Lyman Wilbur, wife of the secretary of the interior, and Mrs. Robert P. Lamont were among those taking guests to the performance last night of "Journey's End," for the benefit of the American Association of University Women's million dollar fellowship campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. MacCracken Jr. will give a dinner tomorrow evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Eckener.

Miss May Pershing, sister of Gen. John J. Pershing, arrived today at the Mayflower after spending the winter in Los Angeles. After her visit in the east she will return to her home in Lincoln, Neb.

Denmark Makes Andersen's 125th Birthday Big Fete

COPENHAGEN, April 2.—The 125th anniversary of the birth of Hans Christian Andersen, Danish author of world famous fairy stories, was celebrated here today by the entire nation. Copenhagen's lord mayor broadcast an English radio speech to the children outside of Denmark. Two hundred thousand children in the public schools in Denmark were served with cocoa late, while 75,000 children in Copenhagen assembled in front of the city hall where tableaux from the author's stories were presented.

Again?

The unenlightened woman who still suffers every month, receives little sympathy when she could so easily end those pains with Midol. This merciful medicine is not a narcotic, you know. Nor does it interfere in the slightest with the normal and natural process itself. But Midol does banish the pain—in five to seven minutes. Because it acts directly on the organs affected. If taken ahead of time, you may avoid a siggle uncomfortable moment. Try to realize what a truly wonderful discovery this is; it has made at least one form of suffering quite needless. When every drug store has these harmless tablets, isn't it foolish to be a martyr? Midol costs fifty cents, in metal case.*

*Midol's comfort is not confined to any certain days or age. It relieves at any time of life. Its ease is felt immediately in cases of nervous headache, backache, cramping, hot flashes and all febrile pain peculiar to women.

Changing City Puts Its Mark on Rush Street

BY THALIA

Changes in the residential location of our prominent citizenry are accomplished so gradually that a neighborhood often is depopulated of its fashionable dwellers before we realize it. Commerce and studio apartments almost entirely have vanquished the erstwhile Rush street district south of Chicago avenue. Now the only residences remaining in what formerly was one of the most fashionable districts of the city are Harold F. McCormick's, Mrs. Emmons Blaine's, the Robert Hall McCormicks', and the John Alden Carpenters.

The Cyrus Hall McCormicks are the latest to abandon that section. They return today from Jekyll Island, where they have been since their return from California. They are going directly into their remodelled house at 21 East Burton place, their former residence opposite St. James' Episcopal church having been vacated during their absence. The John H. Winterbothams, who have the substantial looking edifice at the corner of Cass and Huron streets, are soon to move into their new co-op in the Gold Coast region.

Mrs. Watson Blair sold and left the house at the corner of Rush and Superior streets a few years ago for a co-op at 209 Lake Shore drive, and the Joseph G. Colemans, who lived next door, departed shortly afterwards. The Allster McCormicks still occupy the L. Hamilton McCormick place at 111 Rush street, but they are in Chicago very little, and when the senior Mr. and Mrs. McCormick come to town they stay at a hotel.

Harold F. McCormick, whose house and grounds are the largest and most impressive of the neighborhood, rarely is in Chicago, and Mrs. John Alden Carpenter, who took back the big house at the corner of Huron and Rush after having a try at living on the Lake Shore drive, spends more time away than she does at home.

Among those who have made reservations for luncheon following Miss Angna Enters' program of "Episodes" this morning at the Woman's Athletic club are Mrs. William Sherman Hay, Mrs. J. S. Condit, Mrs. W. E. Coburn, Mrs. Hayden Harris, Mrs. Frank Porter, Miss Helen McNair, Mrs. John Wilder, Mrs. J. H. Lee, and Mrs. Allen Howes.

Society really is getting quite excited about the coming of the Chinese actor, Mei Len-Fang, who is to open with his troupe of fellow actors at the Princess next Monday evening. A long list of citizens, including the Silas H. Strawns, Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick, Col. and Mrs. George T. Langhorne, the John Alden Carpenters, the Potter Palmers, the John Paul Wellings, and several others sponsor him, and the Friends of China, the Drama league, and the Playwrights' theater all are going to do something in his honor.

The Playwrights' theater announces a tea for him Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Casino. The hostesses for the afternoon will include Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick, Mrs. Howard Van Doren Shaw, Mrs. John W. Root, Mrs. William Nitze, Mrs. Ernst Freund, Mrs. Erich Gerstenberg, Mrs. Helen Walton, and Miss Sarah Hinde.

Prince Nick Galitzine is to be head of the floor committee for the dinner dance at the Petrushka club next Tuesday evening for the Russian world war invalids. His assistants will include James Addington Jr., Joseph C. Belden Jr., the Madlener twins, Bill and Otto, and Frederic McLaughlin II. Many of the young people are reserving places at several dutch treat parties being arranged by Princess Clarissa Contacuzene, Princess Rostislav, and Louise Brewer. The Shreve Badgers, the Howard Gillettes, and Col. and Mrs. George T. Langhorne also have made reservations for parties of guests.

Mrs. Henry J. Patten arrived in town this week for a few days' stay before she goes on to New York City, where Mr. Patten is to join her for their sailing the end of the month to Italy.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Peabody of 1525 State parkway and their sons, Pat and Stuyvesant Jr., are vacationing at French Lick Springs, Ind.

Mrs. Frank D. Fulton and her daughter, Helen, of Winnetka have returned from a five weeks' trip to Florida. Mrs. Fulton's other daughter, Mrs. Lawrence LeBout (Marion Fulton) of Loudinville, O., is to spend two weeks with her father and mother at Easter time. Mr. LeBout will come on for Easter Sunday and will return to Ohio, while Mrs. LeBout and her infant daughter, Marianne, will remain longer.

Flower Show Open for an Extra Day, Its Directors Decide

Executive committee members of the Chicago garden and flower show at the Sherman hotel met yesterday and announced through Leonard H. Vaughn, chairman, that it would be held open an extra day, Sunday, until 10 p. m. Another show would be sponsored in 1931 at the hotel.

The show had been scheduled to close on Saturday evening.

The directors, beside Mr. Vaughn, who also approved another show for next year, with dates to be announced later, are: A. T. Pyfer, James Sykora and Eric Johnson, Chicago Wholesale Cut Flower association; Peter Pearson and Joseph Michal, Pot Plant Growers Association of Illinois; Arthur Hill and A. E. Nelson, Illinois Nurserymen's association; George Ball and Charles McCauley, Commercial Flower Growers of Chicago; A. Miller, Chicago Florists' club; Kenneth Bangs landscape architect; Frank W. Bering, A. L. Bering and Harlan Ware of the Hotel Sherman; and James H. Burdett, secretary.

Final touches are being put on the novel panoramic designs which are to feature the Central States Garden and Flower show, opening next Saturday in the Chicago stadium, 1800 West Madison street.

Natural banks of floral and evergreen plant life will fringe the large beds of the central gardens, while visitors will be able to view the entire show from any point of the stadium balcony.

Garden clubs and leading flower growers of the west will fill the balconies with their competitive entries, according to John A. Servas, designer, while a large waterfall between banks of tree covered hills is to fill one entire end of the large hall. The central states show was declared yesterday to be the largest in the United States this season in point of area devoted to display of plant life.

Five Japanese Girls Land as Good Will Envoys to Americans

San Francisco, April 2.—(AP)—Five demure young women from Japan bowed and smiled their way into the United States after being greeted aboard the liner President Pierce on their arrival here today.

The girls, four of them representing Tokio and the other Yokohama, came to thank President Herbert Hoover and the people of the United States for America's kindness to Japan, through the Red Cross, during the earthquake of 1923.

The young women are Kimiko Ashino, daughter of a naval officer; Yoshiko Matsudaira, cousin of Princess Chichibu; Yoshi Sato, daughter of Baron Sato; Sumiko Tokuda, daughter of a former paymaster of the Imperial army, and Keiko Nakamura, daughter of a Yokohama official.

The first four represent the city of Tokio, and Miss Nakamura represents Yokohama. These were the two cities hardest hit by the earthquake.

The five were accompanied by H. Yokoyama of the Jiji Shimpo, Tokio newspaper, which is sponsoring the tour, and by Mrs. Toshiko Sudaira.

The itinerary of the "envoys of gratitude" includes many of the larger eastern and Pacific coast cities and Chicago. They are to remain here until Sunday night, when they will go to Los Angeles. After a visit there they will start eastward.

Favors Frank Discussion.

The "hush" method of dealing with sex problems of young people does more harm than good, according to the Rev. E. Leslie Glenn of New York in his noonday sermon yesterday at the Garrick theater. Dr. Glenn is the fourth Lenten speaker at the services conducted by the Episcopal Church club of Chicago. Dr. Glenn advocated frank discussions in the light of Christian teachings.

Vienna Cries for Quota of Spending Yanks

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.

VIENNA, April 2. — President Hoover's appeal to Americans to stay at home and spend the $800,000,000 thus saved, in their own country was received in this part of Europe with consternation, tempered only by the hope that Americans will honor the President's appeal in its breach rather than in observance.

Under the caption "Mr. Hoover, Give Us Back Our Americans," the Neuss Wiener Extrablatt observes that the $800,000,000 is more important to Europe than to the United States, since "in all countries of the continent business is based to a certain extent on the American tourist traffic."

Die Stunde, comparing the American pre-war wealth with its present wealth, contends that the $800,000,000 is really Europe's since it is part of "the millions of exorbitant profits exacted from the nations foolish enough to make war on each other." "It is really our money that the Americans spend in Euorpe," says this paper, "except that it has undergone a change in ownership in a manner certainly painful to us. It belongs now to Mr. Smith and Mr. Brown."

The President's appeal really means, says Die Stunde, that "for at least a year you Americans must cease to spend $800,000,000 yearly to taste culture and civilization."

Women's Talk of Rights Gives Doris a Good Laugh

BY DORIS BLAKE.

Sometimes I think that women are never funnier than when they are talking about their independent rights. And they can be funny on a lot of other occasions, too. Myself as ridiculous as the next one!

But within the last week I have read three separate articles on the subject of the earning wife and her earning spouse, each from a pen with a strong feminist stroke. In each case the home labor problem was settled; the suggestion was made that the wife who works should contribute to the expenses of the home in the proportion only to the loss incurred by her absence from it.

And in each instance it was agreed that the success of the so-called fifty-fifty marriage depends upon the husband maintaining the financial superiority at home.

In other words, "there ain't no fifty-fifty arrangement; it's a seventy-five-twenty-five," with Big Boy playing the heavy.

Not that I'm not for Big Boy doing all the heavy work around home, just like all the rest of my lean-to sisterhood. Like the rest of us, I, too, think it's good for what ails him to have a lot of responsibility weighting him down. It keeps him tethered, as it were.

Nevertheless, I do think there is something most awfully comical about the picture. No wonder the poor wretch doesn't know where he stands in this little game woman has sprung on him of recent years. Not his the privilege to dictate that things might be better thus and so! His only to maintain financial superiority.

How are women going to compute the loss incurred by their absence from home? Some will do it squarely, as they know how. There is, honor among working wives. But how many women are working whose going to work is an actual expense to their husbands? There are women whose salaries do not keep them in the clothes they wear to work, their luncheons, and other expenses created out of leaving home daily. And this is the class from whom you hear most about the glories of being independent. They're funny.

So are we all, I'm afraid! Or else awfully smart to put it over the way it is being done.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

An Unwanted Suitor.

"Dear Miss Blake: A boy in school claims he likes me and keeps writing me notes. I don't like him. What shall I do? GERTRUDE.

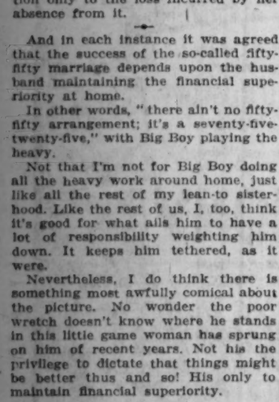
An Apology Is Due.

"Dear Miss Blake: I failed to recognize a girl for whom I care a great deal, so she refuses to talk to me. How can I square myself? P. Q."

If you can offer some plausible excuse for your rudeness, she may listen to you.



TASTING THIS REFRESHING TANG

You'll be aware PEBECO Tooth Paste is working. Not the sweet, meaningless flavor of most dentifrices. But a sharp, refreshing tang . . . distinctive, actiest. Perhaps at first you may not like it—but you'll know it is doing its job. In a week you will be grateful. While cleaning and whitening the teeth, Pebeco, by stimulating the salivary flow, actually helps Nature counteract the mouth acids which cause decay. Isn't this extra result worth your week's trial? NOW!—Advt.

ENGAGED

[Munroe Photo.]

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Antink of River Forest have announced the engagement of their daughter, Frances, to Henry William Keller, son of Magnus Keller of 2438 Austin boulevard. Miss Antink is a graduate of the National Kindergarten college in Wilmette. Mr. Keller is a graduate of the University of Illinois and a member of Theta Nu Epsilon. The wedding will take place on June 28 at the Nineteenth Century club of Oak Park.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

T. B.: YES, HORSEBACK RIDING is excellent for reducing the hips but it is expensive, making it possible only for the financially favored. The waist bending and twisting exercises are especially good for the hips. You may have them in illustrated form for a stamped addressed envelope.

PATTERNS BY CLOTILDE

[Registered U. S. Patent Office.]

WOMAN'S OR MISS' DRESS.

This dress shows both the new molded and flaring silhouette. The bodice is cut with epaulet shoulders that end in a band trimming of the front and back neckline. Flat hips are secured through horizontal tucks, and the circular flounce of the skirt takes an up-in-the-front outline, and a downward curved line at the back. The dipping hemline at the back is decidedly graceful. Any of the silk crêpes will be suitable.

The pattern, 3310, comes in sizes 16 and 18 years, and 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, and 46 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 4⅛ yards of 39 inch material.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Colors in Foods.

It is a strange thing about the different kind of news. We are fond of saying that yesterday's news is dead, and it usually is, but the number of times a certain kind of news can be resuscitated, and always seems to be news, is remarkable. Apropos of this statement is the fact that people are writing about colored foods as if they were discovered yesterday, while in Bible times, before Solomon and in Solomon's own days, they took delight in the color of the pomegranate and by a little effort we might find other examples of this sort.

In the "Song of Songs," the loved one's temples—probably they meant her high cheek bones—were likened to the pomegranate's rosy coloring. You will find something about this in your Bible dictionary, and you will also find they had saffron in those days and used it. In the days when they delighted in frankincense and myrrh, they were equally pleased with lovely colors in foods, and probably Lucullus was as much delighted with the color of the cherry as with its other characteristics.

A news clipping of Nov. 21, 1928, has the title, "Modern Flare for Colors Invades Field of Cookery." You see, the idea was that it was something absolutely new at that date, and then just the other day we had "the absolutely new thing" again, of color in cookery. In time this growing vogue will wane. Perhaps you remember seeing people half a dozen years ago, or even a dozen years ago, beginning to color cream cheese for filling and decorating sandwiches, and making sandwich fillings with jellies, etc., as many colors as those of Joseph's coat.

The news item mentioned described a demonstration given in the Academy of Music in Brooklyn by a teacher of household arts in Pratt institute. She made a red consommé with beet juice, yet iced bouillons of that type had been served by the hotels for at least half a dozen years before that. She, however, varied her soup rather charmingly with lemon rind arrows, and called it Cupid's Soup. The most of the work besides this was with cream cheese, but then there have been colored cheeses including the sage, the speckled Roquefort, etc., for centuries. In season, the sweet red pepper is enormously used in great measure for its color value, which is marvelous. And just how old are the imitations of watermelon in ices and cakes? I certainly knew them twenty years ago.

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $5 for each childish saying printed. The story told must or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Aunty Bee, The Tribune, Chicago.

I took 3 year old Nancy to a fashion show where she watched with wide-eyed interest the promenading of the fashion models. That evening I noticed her strutting about, hands on hips, and switching her diminutive skirts, so I said to her: "What do you think you are doing?"

"Why," she replied, "I'm a pattern."

E. H.

After a few moments of serious thought, Jane replied: "I dess I dot it from my daddy, 'cause his is all gone."

Thick Ankles Grow Slim by This Exercise

by Gilbreth Zenith

With corsets coming back, long skirts here already, hairpins back in use again, maybe the high shoes will return. Anyway, if it means anything or not, I saw pictured in a metropolitan daily within the last ten days an advertisement with a drawing of a pair of high shoes and in the ad was played up the theory that high shoes make better looking ankles.

It has ever been a matter of conjecture in my mind whether high shoes actually did all for ankle symmetry we were once taught to believe. My conjecture is based simply on the countless numbers of nifty looking ankles seen abroad any day, rain or shine, and some of the feet belonging to them haven't known a high shoe in ten years at least, maybe more.

But the fact remains that if things keep on coming back high shoes will just naturally get in the parade.

High shoes served to lace in bulging ankles when women did not take to trimming their ankles themselves via the reducing routes of the last decade. Anyway, the prospect of having to get up earlier in the a. m. to allow for that high shoe lacing opportunity or to chase the elusive buttonhook of yore does not have what you'd call magic appeal, does it?

Neither did corsets the year before last—and that's what scares me about high shoes. If they introduce them in moire or fancy colored leathers or velvets, or something quite feminine of texture, we will all be looking up the nearest charity service station to send our old low shoes off to. For just like that we women do jump on the band wagon, regardless of how we protest at the wisdom of a course.

However, it has not yet come to pass, and so the war on thick ankles has to be kept up in the exercise way now familiar to us. Apropos of which, a woman confides that she made a better looking pair of hers by doing 200 ups and downs on her toes per day. She did it 100 times in the a. m., 100 in the p. m. Simple enough to get a real pair of ankles just by rising up and down on the balls of the feet morning and night, wouldn't you say so?

Dr. Walter Starkie, famous authority on gypsy music and dialects, who will teach Romance languages at the summer session of the University of Chicago, arrived here yesterday to give two lectures. He will speak tomorrow at the Stevens hotel before the Drama league. On next Wednesday he will lecture on gypsy music at the University of Chicago.

Dr. Starkie, who ran away from home with a gypsy fiddler when he was 13 years old, has been professor of romance languages at the University of Dublin, music critic for the Irish Statesman, and director of the Abbey theater in Dublin. He was knighted in Spain and Italy, and is a member of the Spanish academy.

John L. Dern Elected Memorial Union Head

Madison, Wis., April 2.—(AP)—John L. Dern, Wausau, Wis., a junior, was elected president of the Memorial union at the University of Wisconsin here last night. Emmett Solomon of Omaha was named vice president, and Alexander Cannon, Milwaukee, was elected secretary-treasurer.

Society Founded by Benjamin Franklin Seeking Larger Space

New York, April 2.—The American Philosophical society, the oldest American learned society, has raised $1,000,000 for larger quarters in Philadelphia. There it was formed 203 years ago. It will seek another $1,000,000 to increase its personnel so that it can become a league of knowledge.

This announcement was made tonight by Roland H. Morris, former ambassador to Japan, who spoke at a dinner of the organization held in the Hotel Plaza.

The dinner marked the first meeting of the society outside of its own building since its formation by Benjamin Franklin. The reason for the meeting here was to mark the 150th anniversary of the granting of its charter to "promote useful knowledge."

Composer at 71 Yrs. Weds His Childhood Friend

LONDON, April 2.—(AP)—Sir Henry Hadow, 71 year old composer and authority on music, today was married to Miss Edith Troutbeck, a few years his junior, whom he had known since childhood.

Sir Henry is retiring vice chancellor of Sheffield university. His bride is the daughter of the late Rev. John Troutbeck, precentor at Westminster abbey. The marriage was in St. Faith's chapel of the abbey.

The bride, a tall, white haired woman, wore a gown of purple satin and lace and also a toque of satin.

Milk and Sugar

YOU WOULDN'T try a rice pudding recipe that didn't call for these ingredients. You know by experience that the milk — whether fresh, evaporated or condensed — makes a combination with the rice and sugar that is palatable, satisfying and nourishing.

There are so many healthful desserts — puddings, custards and ice cream — that can be made of milk. Have them often and remember that you may use either canned milk or fresh with equally good results.

Desserts belong in the normal diet — even in reducing diets. A famous food scientist recommends a generous green salad and a sweet dessert for the person who wants to reduce without leaving the table hungry.

Aside from the sweetness sugar brings to a dessert, it is also an ideal flavor for essential foods. A dash of sugar to a pinch of salt makes vegetables much more palatable. Try this combination in cooking carrots, cabbage, turnips, spinach and peas. Most foods are more delicious and nourishing with sugar. The Sugar Institute.

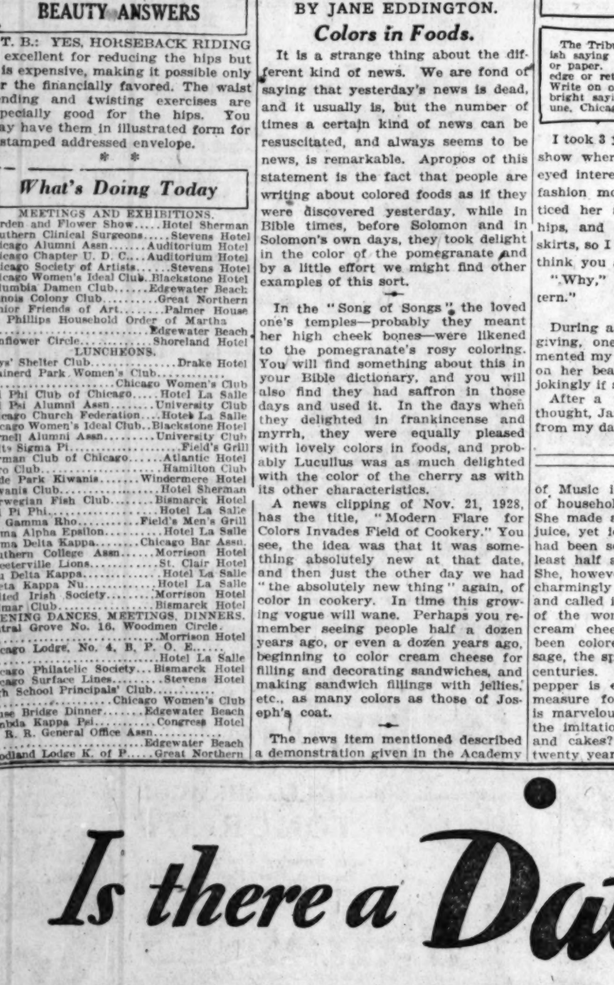
Is there a Date on your coffee can?



"Chase & Sanborn's Dated Coffee has a delightful flavor," says JOHN BOLES, Universal Pictures star.

IT'S mighty important, that date! It's insurance of freshness, flavor, strength! Insurance against staleness, flatness, possible rancidity in the coffee you buy!

The date on each can of Chase & Sanborn's Dated Coffee shows to the very day how long that particular can may remain on your grocer's shelf. You know at a glance that this is fresh coffee.

And he can't keep it long enough for it to lose freshness. Because we take back any can that remains unsold after the expiration date!

Replace it with a fresh one. And what a difference there is in this roaster-fresh coffee! As John Boles, the Universal Pictures star, puts it, "This new dated coffee has a pungent, delightful flavor that lives up to its tantalizing aroma. I'm for it!"

You'll be "for it," too . . . enthusiastically "for it"... once you've tasted Chase & Sanborn's Dated Coffee. Order a supply from your grocer today. Look for the date on the can.

CHINESE BANKERS DIG UP 8 MILLION TO AID NEW WAR

Nationalists Plan Use of Planes Against Rebels.

BY JOHN POWELL.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SHANGHAI, April 2.—Gen. Chiang Kai-shek, head of the Nationalist government, returned to Shanghai last night from Chekiang province, where he has been for the last ten days conferring with local officials and bankers. He issued no statement regarding the northern situation, which is taking a more serious turn due to Gen. Yen Hsi-shan's declaration of civil war, issued at Taiyuanfu yesterday.

T. V. Soong, finance minister, announced he was successful in floating a loan of 24,000,000 Chinese dollars (about $8,400,000) from local Chinese bankers; about $3,500,000 of this will be immediately available for war purposes.

The government has also announced the establishment of a large military airplane base in the northern Kiangsi province, indicating its intention to make extensive use of airplanes in the event civil war develops. Nationalists regard one modern airplane as being worth a division of troops.

Attacks Chang's Dictatorship.

PEIPING, China, April 2.—(AP)—Yen Hsi-shan, governor of Shansi, today assumed office at Taiyuanfu as commander in chief of the "national" land, naval, and air forces. At the same time he issued a circular telegram to the people pledging his support to move for the overthrow of President Chiang Kai-shek, whom Yen denounced as a dictator.

He asserted that the Kuomintang, Nationalist political organization, had developed into the personal instrument of President Chiang, who does with it whatever pleases his fancy.

Bandits Demand Ransoms.

Hankow, April 2.—(AP)—Miss Nina E. Gemmell, a missionary worker formerly of Tacoma, Wash., and Girard, Kas., and the Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Porteus, British missionaries, all of whom were captured last Thursday when bandits raided the city of Yuanchow, are being held for ransoms of $10,000 each.

Report Catholic Mission Safe.

Washington, D. C., April 2.—(AP)—The national Catholic welfare conference has informed the state department that the 16 members of the American Catholic mission at Kanchow, China, who last week were reported in danger from Chinese brigands are safe.

V. EVERIT MACY WILL DISPOSES OF MANY MILLIONS

New York, April 2.—[Special.]—The will of the late V. Everit Macy, president of the Westchester county park commission and former commissioner of public welfare of Westchester county, disposing of an estate variously estimated at between 20 and 30 million dollars, was filed for probate today in Surrogate court in White Plains.

Mr. Macy died suddenly at Phoenix, Ariz., on March 31, and was buried last week from his old English mansion on his estate Chilmark, at Scarborough-on-Hudson. His will was dated June 18, 1929, and leaves the residuary estate, after bequests to other legatees, to his three children, V. Everit Macy Jr., J. Noel Macy, both of Ossining, and Mrs. Edytha Lewis of Weston, Mass. Large bequests are made to educational institutions and household servants.

YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE SOLVED

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: The Warning

Radio Listeners Have a Night of Musical Variety

Singer on W-G-N Program Praised by Reviewer.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

Last night was not a usual radio evening. First, Gladys Rice, soprano, on the New York orchestral concert through W-G-N from 7:30 to 8 o'clock, fooled me by singing, not crooning. "Why Do I Love You?" and "Little Yaller Dog." This made me wish the public would demand something better than the crooning, talking song from our popular entertainers. The orchestra played a number of sections of the "Caucasian Sketches" by Ippolitow-Iwanow.

An orchestra, the Revelers' male quartet, and Olive Palmer, soprano, made the New York program through W-G-N from 8:30 to 9:30 the usual colorful affair.

I expected something sumptuous from a new series of concerts by an enlarged radio symphony orchestra from New York through WMAQ, 9 to 9:30 o'clock. However, "To a Wild Rose" (MacDowell), a number from the "L'Arlesienne" suite (Bizet), "Golliwogg's Cake Walk" (Debussy), and a short entr'acte by Wagner is not sufficiently original in program building to be very enticing to this listener.

Del Owen's pianistics, broadcast over W-G-N from 9:30 to 9:45 p. m., were original, and, being good musical-vaudeville entertainment, this sort of program fills a useful niche.

James J. Corbett, former heavyweight champion, had something to say on a chain program broadcast through KYW at 9:45 p. m.

The W-G-N Symphony orchestra, with Gaston du Moulin directing, played Hadley's "Ballet of the Flowers" suite on the 9:45 to 10 p. m. program.

On the slumber music concert broadcast from New York over WIBO from 10 to 10:30 o'clock Wagner's "Siegfried Idyll" was played in memory of Mme. Cosima Wagner, for whom the work was written in 1870 during the first year of their marriage.

Chicago Fugitive Held Without Bail in New York

Henry B. Neighbours, 36 years old, who has been sought by the Chicago police since 1928 on a charge of operating a confidence game, was held without bail yesterday in New York on charges of forgery, possession of burglars' tools, and violation of the Sullivan law. He was arrested on Tuesday after an attempt to cash a forged check for $175 in a New York bank. When arrested he was carrying a revolver and a "fountain pen" pistol loaded with a tear gas cartridge.

WASHBURN, WHO HELPED REBUILD AUSTRIA, IS DEAD

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

VIENNA, April 2.—Albert Henry Washburn, 64, former American minister to Austria, and one of the artisans of the new order of things in post-war central Europe, died suddenly here at 8:30 tonight of blood poisoning, resulting apparently from a harmless fingernail scratch incurred ten days ago.

A famous dermatologist of Vienna had been called, and Mr. Washburn seemed to have improved under his treatment. This morning, however, he suffered a surprise setback and was rushed to the Rudolfine hospital. An operation was made at noon, and another this afternoon; both were unsuccessful. His wife, Mrs. Florence Lincoln Washburn, formerly of Springfield, Mass., one of the social leaders of Vienna the last seven years, was present.

Mr. Washburn only returned to Vienna two weeks ago from America. As Gilchrist B. Stockton had been appointed to succeed him, he had planned to devote his remaining years to writing and lecturing on international law. He was one of the most popular diplomats in central Europe, and in many ways was to Austria what the late Myron T. Herrick was to France.

As president of the mixed claims commission to adjust differences between Austria and Jugo-Slavia, Mr. Washburn did much towards bringing these traditionally enemy countries together. He was one of the first to see that Austria could not exist as a sovereign independent nation without immediate loans, and was influential in obtaining Austrian loans from the league of nations in 1923, saving the country from anarchy and the threat of the red terror.

Hold Funeral Services for Judge W. N. Gemmill

Funeral services were held yesterday for Judge William N. Gemmill of the Superior court in St. James' Methodist Episcopal church, 46th street and Ellis avenue. Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes officiated at the services and the Rev. Dr. James L. Gardiner delivered the sermon. Immediately after the services the body was taken to Shannon, Ill., for interment. The judge died suddenly of a heart attack in the Hyde Park hotel, where he lived, Monday. He was 69 years old.

NEW LAW EASES BOOK CENSORSHIP IN BAY STATE

Boston, Mass., April 2.—(AP)—The Massachusetts book censorship controversy was brought to an end today with the signature by Gov. Frank G. Allen of the bill to prohibit sale of publications "which are obscene."

The measure, which may require judical interpretation before its scope is definitely ascertained, is a compromise between the old law, which prohibited the sale of any book containing obscene words or phrases, and a proposed law which had passed the senate and which would have prohibited only the sale of those books which, "taken as a whole," were obscene.

Under the old statute a court or jury was allowed to consider only the words or passages complained of without reference to the rest of the book. Under it a number of well known works were barred from public sale in Massachusetts, and several prominent book sellers and publishers convicted.

J. WEINSTOCK, JEWISH ACTOR, DIES SUDDENLY

Milwaukee, Wis., April 2.—[Special.]—A few minutes after the curtain was rung down on a performance at the Pabst theater tonigha, Joseph Weinstock, 70, of No. 29 North Long avenue, Chicago, veteran actor, fell dead.

He was rushed to the county emergency hospital, but was pronounced dead on entrance. Weinstock had been on the theater stage for more than half a century and was a widely known Jewish character in Milwaukee and Chicago.

A member of the Lawndale Jewish Theater company of Chicago, he collapsed after the performance of "Sencrita," while talking with S. N. Zeibleman, editor of a Milwaukee Jewish newspaper. He was to have returned to his Chicago home tonight. Weinstock had been subjected to heart attacks, it was said.

MRS. VON BUELOW OFFERS $10,000 JEWELRY REWARD

Mrs. Lottie Brenner von Buelow and her estranged husband, "Count" Enrique Dechow von Buelow, who were robbed in her home at 5839 Sheridan road of jewelry valued at $40,000 Monday night, have announced that they will pay a reward of $10,000 for the recovery of any of the jewelry, it was learned last night. She also announced that she will stand by her husband, whom she has sued for divorce, until the investigation of the robbery has been concluded. She denied that her husband had ever assumed the title of count, saying that it had been conferred on him by friends.

To Honor Mrs. M. E. Busey for Aid to U. of Illinois

GANDHI ON LAST LAP OF MARCH TO END BRITISH RULE

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.]

SURAT, India, April 2.—Mahatma Gandhi today started on what is virtually the last lap of his long march to the sea when he walked under the Navsari gate in the city wall, bound for the village of Dinloi.

Gandhi was greeted by the most enthusiastic welcome since he left his seminary at Ahmedebad March 12. A huge crowd gathered last night on the bank of the River Tapty, outside the city, to hear Gandhi, who, in the flickering light of kerosene lamps, jibed at the government for "being ashamed to arrest me." He reviled the "satanic reign" of the British, who had imposed the "monstrous salt tax" upon women and children.

When Gandhi left the city at 6 o'clock this morning, he was accompanied a short distance by his admirers, many of whom had come by special trains from other parts of India.

DR. WEBER, 84, BACTERIOLOGIST, PAID LAST HONOR

Funeral services were held yesterday at the chapel in Graceland cemetery for Dr. Eugene Weber, 84 years old, former head bacteriologist in the city health department, who died on Monday at his home at 523 Greenleaf avenue, Wilmette. Dr. Weber had been ill since Christmas.

Dr. Weber began his work with the health department as a bacteriologist in the early nineties, when the city laboratory was in its infancy, continuing his work until seven years ago when he was forced to retire by the loss of his sight. His blindness was attributed to his many years of arduous work with the microscope.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Josephine Weber, and one son, Eugene R. of Milwaukee, and one daughter, Mrs. Leonie Zell of Wilmette.

Emotional Upsets Often Are Cause of Difficult Behavior

A booklet by Mrs. Bevans on "Books to Be Read to Children or by Them" will be sent free on receipt of a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

By Mrs. Gladys Huntington Bevans

Although the following letter has some individual angles, it does present a frequent situation and a frequent difficulty. I will let it speak for itself:

"I have a boy who until he was 5 years old lived under the care of two devoted relatives, besides a nervous father and [as they tell me] an easy mother. Five months ago a little brother arrived and he is extremely good.

"Three months ago his aunts left for another part of the state so that left son here with only mother and daddy to watch or fuss over him. As you no doubt realize, with a new baby, and a large house, with no help at all, he was quite lost, because I was and am busy all day long.

"I noticed that he was becoming quite unmanageable, but blamed it on the fact that he was more alone than ever before. It seems that he loses all sense of obedience whenever company comes. He does not care to play with other children, and is always tagging in back of me, regardless of what I do or where I go. He was always inclined to do that, but now it is more noticeable than ever.

"And nervous—he is terrible! Just now he has several little nervous habits. I have tried ignoring them and they are just as bad. What do you think I should do? Would school be good? Or do you think we should overcome the nervous actions first?"

The answer: I was much interested in your letter about your little boy. It seems to me, in a way, that you yourself realize the root of the difficulty that you are having with him, only you don't give it as much importance as it really deserves.

I think his acting as he does is entirely a matter of the new baby and the departure of his devoted aunt and grandmother coming at practically the same time in his life. Without any one intending it to happen, a tremendous amount of interest has been withdrawn from him and he is probably a lonely and unhappy little boy. Of course he would tag around in back of you because he needs so much the love and attention he has been used to—and it is not his fault if he has had too much. There are several things I will suggest. If they seem not to take into account how busy you are, I hope you will understand that they are founded on a knowledge of children's needs in such a situation.

In the first place, I would not pay any attention to his nervous habits. They are probably only an indirect results of his emotional state. Of course you must be sure his physical condition is good and that he eats, sleeps, and eliminates well. Then I would absolutely stop scolding or nagging. Get all your results through praise and affection. I would make it my business to have more time for him, and let him see my continued interest and love in him.

I do think since you are so busy that a short day at kindergarten would be good for him if you can get him to go happily. This will give him companionship and occupation.

In a word, the thing for you to do is to understand the state of his feelings and act accordingly, and then I am sure everything will straighten itself out.

"Husking Pumpkins."

Visiting at a friend's farm, I was asked if I wanted to help the men "husk pumpkins." Answering in the affirmative, I was given overalls, shirt, and rubber boots, all much too large for me. After tramping down a long lane to a woods I found I was the laughing stock of every one and was informed that such a thing as "husking pumpkins" was unknown. Being embarrassed is indeed putting the situation mildly. E. J. G.

O'Rossen Afternoon Suit Likes Tunics

BY BETTINA BEDWELL.

PARIS. — [Special.] — Paris spring fashions have reinstated the tunic. With the first excitement over the newly discovered waistline, the inside blouse and short jacket completely overshadowed the useful tunic which, thus slighted, retired from the mode. But this spring the greatest couturiers have begged them to come back, with the result that all sorts of tunics, from the short Greek peplum and the long medieval overskirt to the flared Russian blouse are to be found in a prominent place in the spring collections.

Louiseboulanger features the tunic in both coats and blouses. Augustabernard uses tunics on costumes for every time of day. Patou shows tunic blouses and a few tunicked frocks. Both Poiret and Premet show adorable little fitted tunics instead of blouses with both tailored and semi-dressed costumes.

O'Rossen likes the tunic form for the coats of the dressy silk suits which are the leading feature of his spring collection. Our drawing shows an O'Rossen afternoon suit in black marocain which sports two tunics, wrist-length for the blouse and three-quarter for the coat. Both are self-belted at the "low natural," which is O'Rossen's favorite waistline.

The slide buckles are in strasse. The coat is trimmed around the bottom with an incrusted band of fine horizontal tucking which mounts on either side of the front to join a pair of pockets. Similar incrustations form the cuffs, and the hip yoke on the skirt which descends in front panels to match the coat. Collar and reverses are softly classic.

The diaphanous tunic blouse is of Rodier's Fum Heu—a delectable new fine silk crêpe—in pale green piped with black around the hem, cuffs, and amusing little shaped yoke. This type of yoke appears on many of the new blouses. It buttons snug in the back with four buttons. In front, this one has two embroidered eyelets through which the tiny scarf is pulled and knotted, softening the neckline.

Lowest Rate in Chicago On Household Loans $100 to $300

By reason of the large volume and by limiting our service to the larger loans, from $100 to $300, "Household" has been able to reduce its interest rate to almost one-third less than the charges permitted by law.

Here Is the Cost
On 20 Month Payment Plan:
$100 Average monthly cost....$1.32
$200 Average monthly cost....$2.63
$300 Average monthly cost....$3.94
Other amounts at same rate.

WE DO NOT NOTIFY your employer, neither do we make inquiries of your friends, relatives, or tradespeople.

CHAMPION BARGAINS
USED 1928 STUDEBAKER COMMANDER SEDANS FOR ONLY $645

Remember the three Studebaker Commanders which startled the automotive world and made transportation history by traveling 25,000 miles in less than 25,000 minutes? That was just 2 years ago.

Today you can buy Studebaker Commanders of this same series for ONLY $645! Motor cars which are capable of such performance feats are no more than broken in during two years of ordinary driving! That's why these Commanders represent such amazing transportation values – they are good for thousands and thousands of care-free miles.

These used Commanders are 4-door Sedans, finished in attractive colors. The upholstery and interior fitments are practically as good as when new. And advanced Studebaker styling has left these Commanders with an heritage of beauty that fits the mode of today.

Completely reconditioned mechanically, every one of these great Commanders carries a 30-day guarantee, provided for by the famous Studebaker Pledge. This guarantee assures free adjustments and replacement of defective parts within that period. And you also get 5 days' driving trial under the protection of this famous Pledge.

The price—$645—is a revelation in value! And your present car will be taken in trade, leaving only a small balance, which can easily and conveniently be taken up on our liberal time payment plan.

If you expect to own one of these brilliant champions, come early! We cannot assure you that our stock will withstand the rush of buyers this announcement is certain to bring. No motorist can fail to appreciate what a tremendous value we are offering—no motorist will let this opportunity slip by uninvestigated.

CADILLAC
341-B TOWN SEDAN.
"A" De Luxe car in every sense of the word; delivered in 1929 and used only 6 months. This is the popular close coupled type and is equipped with 6 wire wheels, fender wells, trunk and rack, clock, ventilating wings, Lorraine light, Trophy-Aire heater and every other possible extra. For a very unusual car in a slightly used Cadillac we invite you to see this one.

341 TOWN SEDAN.

314 SEDAN, 5 PASS.
A bona fide 1927 car which has been used so little that most of the original mileage is still left in it. Finish and upholstery are perfect and General tires very good. Mechanically this is in wonderful shape and at our price it will be well worth your while to investigate.
